U.S. Bows, Agrees Laos Reds Can Be Seated At Geneva

But Royalist Says His Group Will Not Attend

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States agreed today to permit seating of the Communist Pathet Lao rebels as equals at the 14-nation conference on Laos. But the acting head of the royal Laotian government delegation said his group would not attend if the Reds and the "neutralist" group from his country are admitted on an equal footing.

The formal opening of the parley was delayed again until at least tomorrow as the United States bowed to British and French pressure to permit the Laotian Reds to attend, only to have the pro-Western royal regime reject this plan.

MAKES STATEMENT

Ngon Sanaikone, acting head of the royal Lao delegation said after a conference at U.S. delegation headquarters with secretary of state Dean Rusk:

"Our position has not changed. We are the only delegation of Laos.

"If the other (Lao) delegations are admitted to the conference on the same basis, we will not come."

He said the head of his delegation, interior minister Luan Insisiengmay, who had been scheduled to reach Geneva this afternoon, was in Beirut, Lebanon, where he had "missed his plane."

NO OPENING

Earlier, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, co-chairmen of the conference, had informed Rusk that there would be no formal opening of the conference tonight. They also said there would be no communique this evening announcing just when the conference would start. It originally was scheduled to begin last Friday.

But there has been a bewildering array of new developments and complications that have prevented it from getting off the ground.

Luan Insisiengmay's announcement was the latest, although he seemed to differ with his government at home.

A dispatch from Vientiane, administrative capital of Laos, said the royal government made a surprise proposal today to have all Laotian political parties seated at the conference here.

Few persons there believed it would be accepted. But it apparently was a propaganda counter-move to block seating of the Pathet Lao rebels.

The royal government in Vientaine agreed to Pathet Lao participation here, provided the doors were opened to all Laotian political parties.

Under this plan, representatives of two political parties which support Premier Prince Boun Oum's regime would be seated here as equals with the Neo Lao Haksat, the political arm of the Pathet Lao movement.

BERNARD GOLDFINE
To be tested

Guilty Plea Is Entered By Goldfine

BOSTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine, Boston industrialist, pleaded guilty today to charges of evading nearly $800,000 in personal and corporate income taxes.

U.S. Dist. Judge George C. Sweeney continued the case and ordered Goldfine to report to a court-appointed psychiatrist to determine his present mental competence.

The sudden plea came after defense and prosecution attorneys were closeted with Judge Sweeney for more than half an hour.

ASKS EXAMINATION

When the court finally opened, E. Bennett Williams, Goldfine's chief counsel, said that "the defendant has expressed the desire to withdraw pleas heretofore entered and to enter pleas of guilty."

Williams said, however, before the pleas were entered he wanted to ask that an examination be ordered to determine if Goldfine now is competent to make such a plea.

"I'll accept the pleas subject to a psychiatrist ruling to his competence," Judge Sweeney said.

Goldfine then in a steady voice pleaded guilty to the two indictments, one charging evasion of $450,961 in personal taxes and the other to $340,784 in taxes on the Strathmore Woolen Corp., one of his firms.

TAX TROUBLES

Goldfine's tax troubles burgeoned after the Russian-born industrialist's many favors to high level political associates. Beginning in 1958, the 70-year-old businessman went through a series of congressional hearings into his practice of gift-giving among Washington figures.

Probably the outstanding instance involved Sherman Adams, former New Hampshire governor and former assistant to President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The disclosures about Goldfine's presents led Adams to resign from the White House post. Both Goldfine and Adams denied any wrongdoing.

Kennedy-Nikita Summit Possible

Decision May Come In A Week

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A Kennedy-Khrushchev conference on corrosive cold-war problems has become a definite possibility. The chances that one will be held, and held soon are rated currently at 3 to 2.

But the grave issues of Laos and a valid ban on nuclear arms tests could turn out to be formidable barriers. In contrast, quick progress toward solutions could do much to assure a conference.

President John F. Kennedy may extend a visit to Europe, which starts May 21, and stay on for his first meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev if things work out as they now appear likely to do.

Either Stockholm or Vienna is regarded by the United States as a suitable site for the meeting.

NOTHING FIRM

At the moment, it was learned, a meeting definitely is under consideration but no firm decision has been reached. That may come within a week.

Prospects that the leaders of the world's two greatest powers may consult produced both hearty endorsements and words of caution from various leaders in Washington.

Here in Palm Beach, Pierre Salenger, White House press secretary, bombarded by questions about reports that efforts to arrange a Kennedy Khrushchev meeting were under way, told reporters he could say only, "There are no plans for any such meeting at present." He refused to read any significance into the phrase "at present." But it was there. Kennedy himself, closing out a relaxing five days on beaches and golf courses, was completely silent.

PRESIDENT CONCERNED

The president is known to be tremendously concerned that in the four months since he took command of government, East-West negotiations for an agreement forbidding nuclear weapons tests have deadlocked instead of making any real progress. These deadlocked negotiations are under way still in Geneva.

So are efforts to bring a solution to the Laotian problem out of a 14-nation conference of Communist bloc and anti-Communist countries.

JOHNSON TOLD RED CHINA COULD FALL

Views Said Worthy Of Consideration, But Sources In Hong Kong Disagree

HONG KONG (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has received information indicating the Communist regime in China conceivably could collapse in a year to 18 months due to internal stresses.

An authoritative source, reporting this today, said these views came to Johnson from respectable sources and are worthy of consideration.

Johnson arrived here today from Formosa, where he conferred with Chiang Kai-shek.

The estimate of Chinese prospects does not square with available information from most informed sources in Hong Kong. These persons say no flat prediction of an upset in China can be made.

The information given to Johnson was reported to be based on a variety of considerations, principally these:

1. The Chinese Red army was said to be nearing revolt stage due to unhappiness with the role they were required to play under the regime of Mao Tze-tung.

2. Doctors coming out of the mainland are reporting 30 to 40 per cent of the population is in bad shape due to malnutrition.

3. Another factor was said to be sharp differences among some of the top Communist officials in the Peiping hierarchy. There are reports of slashing attacks from followers of the inevitability of war doctrine of the pro-Mao group, and the peaceful coexistence doctrine of the pro-Moscow group.

In Taipei, Formosa, Johnson gave Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek a new pledge of U. S. support and economic aid and assurance that the Kennedy administration has no intention of recognizing Red China.

Chiang, who almost never holds a news conference, joined Johnson for a conference for the newsmen in the vice president's party and told them he and Johnson had agreed on a joint statement to be issued tonight containing five assurances from Kennedy:

1. A pledge of continued U. S. support for the Nationalists.

2. The United States has no intention of recognizing the Peiping regime.

3. The United States will continue to oppose Red China's bid for a seat in the United Nations.

4. The United States will abide by its mutual defense treaty commitments with the Nationalists.

5. America will step up its assistance to Nationalist China's accelerated economic development program.

County Fire Season Is Proclaimed

Start of the county fire season was proclaimed today by Marin County Fire Chief Charles R. Reilley.

Henceforth, no open fires will be permitted in unincorporated areas under county fire department jurisdiction without special permits.

Incinerators and barbecue pits must be inspected and a permit issued by the county fire department before being used. They should not be used at all on windy days, Chief Reilley said.

Regulations for incinerators are as follows:

1. Burn only from sunrise until 11 a.m.

2. Quarter-inch screen mesh must be used to cover incinerator.

3. Area around incinerator must be cleared down to the bare earth for a radius of 10 feet.

4. A water faucet must be located within 25 feet. At least 50 feet of hose must be attached to the faucet while burning.

5. No overhanging foliage over the incinerator.

Regulations for barbecue pits are as follows:

1. Incinerator regulations apply except there is no limitation on hours of burning.

2. Quarter-inch wire mesh screen must be used to cover chimney opening.

3. Barbecue pit is not to be used as an incinerator to burn refuse.

4. Portable barbecues must be equipped with quarter-inch wire mesh screen in addition to the grill.

Similar regulations, requiring permits were placed in force today in most fire districts within the county.

M'Carthy Move On Pt. Reyes Suffers Delay

SACRAMENTO (CNS)— Protesting San Franciscans today delayed Assembly action on Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy's resolution calling for a change in federal policy on the proposed Point Reyes National Seashore.

Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley ran into a hornets' nest of opposition from both Republican and Democratic San Francisco assemblymen, including John A. Busterud, John A. O'Connell, Phillip Burton and Charles W. Meyers.

LEADS ATTACK

O'Connell led the attack, pointing out the Assembly had already approved his resolution (AJR 37), calling upon Congress to establish the seashore area in Marin. He said McCarthy's resolution would negate his resolution, which is being held up by McCarthy in the senate rules committee. This was the first he had known McCarthy had his own opposing resolution, O'Connell said.

The McCarthy resolution, (SJR 37), does not name Point Reyes specifically. It calls upon Congress to change its policy of land acquisition in Marin for recreational purposes so as to keep land on the tax rolls. It also urges that Angel Island, Forts Baker, Barry and Cronkhite be made available instead.

WITHDRAWS MOTION

O'Connell, declaring "I understand there are certain land speculators in Marin who are resisting any federal acquisition at this time," moved to refer McCarthy's resolution to the Assembly rules committee.

But on Bagley's urging, he withdrew the motion when the San Rafael assemblyman agreed to put over consideration of the measure at least until tomorrow.

After the debate Bagley said he and McCarthy would try to work out differences over the measure. He said he definitely hopes to be able to take it up again tomorrow.

WEEKEND CAR SMASHUPS

Composer Friml In Marin Wreck

Famous composer Rudolf Friml escaped injury, but three persons were hurt Saturday in a five-car collision on the San Rafael overpass on Highway 101. It was one of a string of multi-car crashes on Marin highways.

The 80-year-old Friml, composer of such operettas as "Firefly," "Rosemarie" and "Vagabond King," was driving north with his wife. His home is in Hollywood. He was believed to be on his way to Sonoma.

Injured in the five-car accident were Yolande Courtright, 32, of Oakland, minor injuries; Kelma Brown, 44, of 2153 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, back and neck injuries, and Linda Brown, 13, same address, back injury. All three were passengers and said they would see their own doctors.

Friml told the California Highway Patrol he was driving about 50-55 miles per hour, when his speedometer started making a noise.

He looked down, saw the speedometer was bouncing around. When he shifted his eyes back to the road, he discovered traffic ahead had stopped. Friml, braked, turned left and went into a left broadside skid, he told the patrol.

Dr. Eric A. Plautt, 33, a Berkeley physician, said his car was struck by Friml's sending it out of control. The vehicle glanced off the left side of a car driven by Patricia J. Chapman, 17, of Fern Way, Kentfield, and struck the rear of a car operated by Carl J. Brown, 45, of 2143 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

Also involved in the accident was a car driven by Bob M. Shintaku, 29, of San Francisco. He said he had to come to a skidding stop to avoid striking the rear of Miss Chapman's car.

Two persons were hospitalized and nine others, including seven children, suffered minor injuries yesterday in a three-car collision on Puerto Suello Hill, Highway 101 in San Rafael.

The California Highway Patrol said a southbound car driven by Patrick Cassidy, 17, of 360 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood jumped across the divider and collided with two southbound cars.

Cassidy braked because of traffic slowing ahead of him and lost control. The traffic slow-up was caused by another car which had stalled on the San Rafael overpass when its transmission failed, the patrol reported.

Marin Planners Approve Building Of Electric Line

The Marin County Planning Commission today by a 4 to 2 majority recommended that the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. be granted a use permit to construct two steel transmitting lines across the southern portion of Novato's Indian Valley to Ignacio onto the proposed Bodega Bay generating plant in Sonoma County.

The recommendation hinges on the precise position of the line from Ignacio to Laguna Lake and Fallon to the Sonoma County line.

The proposal made by Commissioner Niels Schultz passed after a vigorous protest made by many members of a standing room only audience.

Dissenting commissioner Worth Fenner said he voted against the measure because "no consideration was given to going underground," in the controversial five mile strip running through the southern portion of Novato. Commissioner Felix M. Warburg joined in vetoing the proposal.

P.G. and E. transmission engineer Elwin Lambert noted that to run the 220,000-volt line underground would cost 15 to 17 times the $95,000 a mile cost to run the line overhead.

Former Novato Advance publisher James Cuzner said that if the lines were to go in as proposed there would be a 36 million dollar loss to the county when the residential value of the land devalued.

It is slated to be presented to the Marin County Board of Supervisors May 23.

High Court Rules In School Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to review a decision that tuition payments to Roman Catholic parochial schools by a Vermont school board are unconstitutional.

This means that a decision by the Vermont Supreme Court banning such payments is permitted to stand unchanged.

Senators Provide Mixed Reaction To World Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first reaction of Senate leaders to a possible Kennedy-Khrushchev summit meeting is general approval.

Such a conference between President John F. Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is being considered, it was learned yesterday, and is given a 60-40 chance of actually coming off.

The senators' summit temper varied from a guarded, "I can see no harm in such a meeting" from Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), to summit meetings are part of the diplomacy "and should not be avoided," from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, suggested any conference be soft-pedaled.

"I hope it is not built up, and is as informal and with as little fanfare as possible," said Fulbright when asked his views.

"If there should be a meeting," he added, "I would hope it would be as quiet as possible.

"It is perfectly legitimate for these people to get together, but it ought not to be built up as a solution to the world's ills."

Two other Democratic senators plugged more strongly for a meeting between the two leaders.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate Democratic leader, said such a meeting "should be given most serious consideration."

Clear Tomorrow, Forecaster Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fair weather appears assured through tomorrow, in most of California, the forecaster said today.

High fog blanketed most coastal areas this morning and extended into some coastal valleys. The overcast is expected to continue near the ocean.

Such a conference between President John F. Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is being considered, it was learned yesterday, and is given a 60-40 chance of actually coming off.

The senators' summit temper varied from a guarded, "I can see no harm in such a meeting" from Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), to summit meetings are part of the diplomacy "and should not be avoided," from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, suggested any conference be soft-pedaled.

"I hope it is not built up, and is as informal and with as little fanfare as possible," said Fulbright when asked his views.

"If there should be a meeting," he added, "I would hope it would be as quiet as possible.

"It is perfectly legitimate for these people to get together, but it ought not to be built up as a solution to the world's ills."

Two other Democratic senators plugged more strongly for a meeting between the two leaders.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate Democratic leader, said such a meeting "should be given most serious consideration."

County Fire Season Is Proclaimed

Start of the county fire season was proclaimed today by Marin County Fire Chief Charles R. Reilley.

Henceforth, no open fires will be permitted in unincorporated areas under county fire department jurisdiction without special permits.

Incinerators and barbecue pits must be inspected and a permit issued by the county fire department before being used. They should not be used at all on windy days, Chief Reilley said.

Regulations for incinerators are as follows:

1. Burn only from sunrise until 11 a.m.
2. Quarter-inch screen mesh must be used to cover incinerator.
3. Area around incinerator must be cleared down to the bare earth for a radius of 10 feet.
4. A water faucet must be located within 25 feet. At least 50 feet of hose must be attached to the faucet while burning.
5. No overhanging foliage over the incinerator.

Regulations for barbecue pits are as follows:

1. Incinerator regulations apply except there is no limitation on hours of burning.
2. Quarter-inch wire mesh screen must be used to cover chimney opening.
3. Barbecue pit is not to be used as an incinerator to burn refuse.
4. Portable barbecues must be equipped with quarter-inch wire mesh screen in addition to the grill.

Similar regulations, requiring permits were placed in force today in most fire districts within the county.

Clear Tomorrow, Forecaster Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fair weather appears assured through tomorrow, in most of California, the forecaster said today.

High fog blanketed most coastal areas this morning and extended into some coastal valleys. The overcast is expected to continue near the ocean.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Welcome For Ike

WEST POINT, N. Y. (UPI) — The U. S. Military Academy put on its best finery today, rolled out the red carpet and prepared a warm welcome with high honors for one of its most distinguished alumni, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Eisenhower came back to his alma mater to accept an award from the association of graduates, the Gen. Sylvanus Thayer gold medal and scroll given to a citizen "who distinguishes himself by the highest devotion and service to his country."

Hillary Gaining

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Sir Edmund Hillary has regained his speech which was affected when he suffered a stroke in the Himalaya mountains, it was reported today.

The world-famed conqueror of Mount Everest who was stricken while leading a scientific expedition in an attempt to climb Makalu Peak — the fifth highest in the world — was resting in Shershon Village in Barun under the care of a doctor.

Killers Sought

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A manhunt was on today for two accused killers who shot their way to freedom by killing the warden of Middlesex County jail yesterday.

Police described the pair as armed and dangerous. Officers were told to shoot to kill if necessary.

The fugitives were identified as Edgar W. Cook, 48, Brookline, and Norman Porter, 21, Woburn.

The victim was David S. Robinson, 53, head of the jail nearly 10 years. Robinson accepted Sunday duty so his deputies could have Mothers Day off.

Cook was to have gone on trial for murder in the killing of a Cambridge policeman last Sept. 3. Porter was awaiting trial on a charge he killed a clerk during an attempted robbery.

Disaster Area

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Hollywood Hills area where 24 luxury homes were burned in a million-dollar brush fire was expected to be declared a disaster area today.

The fire burned the home of philosopher Aldous Huxley. It broke out early Friday night and was brought under control about 24 hours later. Crews stayed on duty all day yesterday and last night in the event of a flareup.

Storms Rip Midwest

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Tornadoes and thunderstorms renewed their fury in the Midwest today, smashed an Illinois farm town and glutted the nation's two mightest rivers.

The middle of May found a quarter of the U. S. battling floods, heavy rain, tornado threats, and in three states, as much as a foot of snow that stranded travelers, endangered crops and snapped power cables.

Flood threats ran generally along the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, depositories for 10 days of lowland runoffs.

Twisters struck the Farmington, Ill., area, injured two persons and killed 20 cattle in Waupaca County of Southern Wisconsin, and tore open a silo near Neillsville, Wis.

Warning On Space

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Air Force expert has warned that it would take the U. S. three and a half to four years to be able to keep a man alive in space as long as Russia can now.

Brig. Gen. Don Flickinger, chief of life sciences space work in the Air Force, made the statement before the House Space Committee in testimony published last night.

He said Russia might be able to dominate space "in the relatively near future." He said they might use their technology "to deny space to any of our vehicles, either manned or unmanned, in the relatively near future."

Iran 'Cleanup'

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — New Iranian Premier Dr. Ali Amini today denied reports that ex-Premier Manuchehr Eghbal would be arrested in the drive against corruption in government.

The "cleanup" already has resulted in mass arrests and dismissals.

Eghbal's government fell late last year following charges of election fraud and there was considerable speculation that he would be arrested in the current "cleanup" campaign.

Junior Horse Show For Sleepy Hollow

A junior and open horse show will be held by the Sleepy Hollow Stables at 1251 Butterfield Road beginning at 9 a.m. May 21.

The show is recognized by the California State Horsemen's Assn. and the Pacific Coast Hunter, Jumper and Stock Horse Assn. for points and it will include jumpers, hunters, saddle horses, English equitation, hunter hacks, American saddle bred and other events.

Encyclical Due From Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII will issue a major encyclical soon giving the Roman Catholic Church's position on modern social problems.

The pontiff told an assembly of 100,000 workers from Italy and some 60 other nations yesterday that his document will outline "a magnificent program of Christian life and apostolic social activity," and "A living in Christ."

The new encyclical will mark the 70th anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's famous encyclical "Rerum Novarum (Of New Things)." That papal letter of 1891 stated the Catholic position on labor, wealth and social justice. Along with "Quadragesimo Anno (Forty Years Later)," it is still a basic document of the church's teaching in the social field.

A SUPPLEMENT

Pope John said his encyclical would supplement Pope Leo's and would deal with "the new, grave and at times perilous problems of our epoch." He said the problem of underdeveloped countries "is justly called the problem of the modern epoch.

Publication of the encyclical had been expected today, the anniversary of "Rerum Novarum." But the Pope said it would be delayed several weeks so the Catholic hierarchy abroad could receive the original Latin text simultaneously.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Pope John described briefly the problems to be treated in his encyclical—"above all, and precisely, those concerning relations between private enterprise and the intervention of public powers in the economic field."

FOUR SECTIONS

The Pope said his encyclical will be in four sections that will:

1. Review the social work of Pope Leo, Pope Pius XI and Pope Pius XII.

2. Deal with social problems that have continued during the 70 years since "Rerum Novarum."

3. Affirm "new, grave and at times perilous problems of this our recent epoch."

4. Reaffirm some church teachings in the social field.

BOB HOPE
'Valued by mankind'

Senate Proposes Gold Medal For Bob Hope

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Moments enriched by humor are moments free from hate and conflict, and therefore valued by mankind," said a Senate resolution today proposing a gold medal for comedian Bob Hope.

The resolution, prepared for introduction by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) on behalf of 97 senators, cited Hope's "countless miles of travel around the globe" to entertain American troops.

This phase of the rapid fire comedian's life already is well known to Americans, particularly those who have served overseas during World War II and in Korea.

"Another less known side of Hope's life," Symington said, is that "for many years, quietly but consistently, this American has been engaged in a career of good works."

Symington said Hope has appeared in nearly every state on behalf of charitable, civic and philanthropic groups.

"All over our land," Symington said, "there are Hope fundraising foundations for less fortunate people."

The British-born entertainer, 58 in two weeks, attempted to enlist after the United States entered World War II. He was told he could serve better as an entertainer to build morale.

Hope took the advice literally and traveled more than a million miles to entertain servicemen all the way from North Africa to the islands of the Pacific.

His book on the wartime travels, "I Never Left Home," sold more than 1.6 million copies and earned about $175,000 which was turned over to charity.

The fifth of six sons of a stonemason, Leslie Townes Hope was born in Eltham, England. His father brought the family to Cleveland, Ohio, when Hope was 4 and he grew up in that city.

He has entertained in radio, television, motion pictures, the legitimate stage, nightclubs and in vaudeville. A dancer in the early days—his career as boxer Packy East already ended in defeat—Hope became best known later perhaps as a comedian expert at the split-second parry.

"No Hamlet for me, just ham," was his reply to whether he sought a role other than comedy.

During World War II he was the only entertainer among 50 persons voted into the Living Hall of Fame at the Smithsonian Institution.

Labor Group Rips Proposal On Use Of School Textbooks

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The AFL-CIO California Labor Federation says a proposal to end California's requirement that all elementary schools use the same textbooks would disrupt education and only benefit private book publishers.

The proposal has cleared the Assembly and comes before the Senate Education Committee tomorrow.

Introduced by Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton Jr. (D-Merced), the proposal would be submitted to the voters in 1962.

It would allow local school boards to select textbooks from a list approved by the State Board of Education.

Since 1884 the board has adopted uniform texts, which all schools must use. Opponents say that some state books are so poor local schools must buy others.

BUS DESTROYED

Bi-Racial Group Beaten In Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A bus was destroyed by a firebomb and several members of a racially mixed group of "freedom riders" were brutally beaten as they sought to bring their test of color barriers in bus stations into Alabama.

Members, however, vowed today to continue their swing which started in Washington 11 days ago.

All told, 13 persons were taken to hospitals yesterday — 12 for smoke inhalation suffered when some one in a crowd of angry white men threw a fire bomb into a stalled bus outside Anniston, and one for head cuts suffered at the hands of white men using pipes for clubs at a Birmingham bus station.

Two other persons required medical attention. None was hurt critically.

No arrests were made in Anniston or Birmingham.

The "freedom riders"—eight white persons and eight Negroes—are members of the Congress of Racial Equality. They are riding regularly scheduled buses through the South to test racial segregation.

This was their first encounter with mass violence.

The group divided in Atlanta for the trip through Alabama, nine taking a Greyhound bus and seven boarding a Trailways bus, all headed for Birmingham.

Both buses ran into trouble at Anniston, about 50 miles from the Georgia line.

When the Greyhound bus arrived there, the bus station was closed and an angry crowd of about 200 white persons milled around.

The driver headed for Birmingham, but six miles outside Anniston the bus had a flat tire. A crowd of white men who had followed in cars sought to board it.

They were blocked by Alabama state investigator, Ell M. Cowling who had ridden the bus from Atlanta on a tip.

A fire bomb—believed to have been a soft drink bottle containing gasoline — was thrown through a window of the bus.

Highway patrolmen, summoned by a passing motorist, fired pistols into the air to disperse the crowd. The passengers got off before the bus was destroyed by flames.

The Trailways bus left Atlanta about an hour after the Greyhound bus. Dr. Walter Bergman, 61, a former Michigan State University professor and a member of the CORE group, said about eight or ten white men had boarded the bus in Atlanta.

THREE BEATEN; ASSOCIATED WITH NEGROES

SYLACAUGA, Ala. (AP)—A white woman and two white men said they were stripped and flogged by white men who said the beatings were punishment for associating with Negroes.

Sheriff Luke Brewer said Mr. and Mrs. Marlin White, both about 50, told him six men forced them from their home Saturday night, took them to an isolated area, stripped and flogged them.

White said the men charged him and his wife with associating with Negroes and permitting a Negro to whip their children. He denied the accusations.

Brewer said James N. Guthrie, 34, who lives about two blocks from the Whites, said three men forced him to undress and flogged him in his home. Guthrie told the sheriff his attackers said he was whipped because he hired a Negro maid to care for his children.

Bill Would Hike Teacher Salaries

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Senate committee says too many qualified teachers are in school administration jobs.

A report issued yesterday by the Fact Finding Committee on Governmental Administration backs a bill by the committee chairman, Sen. Stanley Arnold (D-Susanville).

It would require schools to spend from 50 to 60 per cent of total expense on teachers' salaries.

Present law provides that schools must spend 65 per cent of the foundation program as salaries of certificated employees or for tuition.

The committee says this is meaningless and affects only fastgrowing small districts.

Arnold's bill comes before the Senate Education Committee on Wednesday. A similar proposal is scheduled to be heard next Monday by the Assembly Education Committee.

The first five cash crops in the United States are, in order, wheat, corn, tobacco, cotton and soy beans.

U.S. Judge Testifies In Israel

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—An American judge testified today that Hermann Goering and Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop told him Adolf Eichmann was a main cog in the Nazi program to exterminate Europe's Jews.

Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno, of Pittsburgh, told the Eichmann trial court the defendant even carried his program into the allied prisoner of war camps.

JUDGE AT NUERNBERG

Musmanno testified on the basis of information he collected as a judge at the Nuernberg war crimes trials and as an interrogator for the U.S. Navy during the first Nuernberg trial in 1945-1946.

Reporting on his interrogation of top Nazi officials after their arrest, Musmanno told the court:

"Goering said he was not aware that the program of Jewish extermination had reached these reported proportions. The persons most responsible were Hitler, Bormann, Goebbels, Heydrich and Eichmann."

ANOTHER MENTION

Asked if anyone else mentioned Eichmann, the judge replied:

"Yes, Ribbentrop said he resented very much Eichmann's interference in his ministry of foreign affairs. He said also he was very sorry that Hitler had put so much authority into Eichmann—into the program of Jewish extermination."

Former Gestapo chief Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Musmanno continued, "said the persons who ran the Jewish extermination program were 'Hitler, Bormann, Himmler, Kaltenbrunner, Heydrich and Eichmann."

Musmanno said Hans Frank, Nazi governor general of Poland, "decided to wade in blood no longer" and complained to Himmler. The judge said Frank was referred "to Eichmann."

Motor vehicles registered in Minnesota are expected to total 2,232,000 by 1976, an increase of 77 per cent.

Encyclical Due From Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII will issue a major encyclical soon giving the Roman Catholic Church's position on modern social problems.

The pontiff told an assembly of 100,000 workers from Italy and some 60 other nations yesterday that his document will outline "a magnificent program of Christian life and apostolic social activity," and "A living in Christ."

The new encyclical will mark the 70th anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's famous encyclical "Rerum Novarum (Of New Things)." That papal letter of 1891 stated the Catholic position on labor, wealth and social justice. Along with "Quadragesimo Anno (Forty Years Later)," it is still a basic document of the church's teaching in the social field.

A SUPPLEMENT

Pope John said his encyclical would supplement Pope Leo's and would deal with "the new, grave and at times perilous problems of our epoch." He said the problem of underdeveloped countries "is justly called the problem of the modern epoch.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Pope John described briefly the problems to be treated in his encyclical—"above all, and precisely, those concerning relations between private enterprise and the intervention of public powers in the economic field."

FOUR SECTIONS

The Pope said his encyclical will be in four sections that will:

1. Review the social work of Pope Leo, Pope Pius XI and Pope Pius XII.

2. Deal with social problems that have continued during the 70 years since "Rerum Novarum."

3. Affirm "new, grave and at times perilous problems of this, our recent epoch."

4. Reaffirm some church teachings in the social field.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A bus was destroyed by a firebomb and several members of a racially mixed group of "freedom riders" were brutally beaten as they sought to bring their test of color barriers in bus stations into Alabama.

Members, however, vowed today to continue their swing which started in Washington 11 days ago.

All told, 13 persons were taken to hospitals yesterday — 12 for smoke inhalation suffered when some one in a crowd of angry white men threw a fire bomb into a stalled bus outside Anniston, and one for head cuts suffered at the hands of white men using pipes for clubs at a Birmingham bus station.

Two other persons required medical attention. None was hurt critically.

No arrests were made in Anniston or Birmingham.

The "freedom riders"—eight white persons and eight Negroes—are members of the Congress of Racial Equality. They are riding regularly scheduled buses through the South to test racial segregation.

This was their first encounter with mass violence.

The group divided in Atlanta for the trip through Alabama, nine taking a Greyhound bus and seven boarding a Trailways bus, all headed for Birmingham.

Both buses ran into trouble at Anniston, about 50 miles from the Georgia line.

When the Greyhound bus arrived there, the bus station was closed and an angry crowd of about 200 white persons milled around.

The driver headed for Birmingham, but six miles outside Anniston the bus had a flat tire. A crowd of white men who had followed in cars sought to board it.

They were blocked by Alabama state investigator, Ell M. Cowling who had ridden the bus from Atlanta on a tip.

A fire bomb—believed to have been a soft drink bottle containing gasoline — was thrown through a window of the bus.

Highway patrolmen, summoned by a passing motorist, fired pistols into the air to disperse the crowd. The passengers got off before the bus was destroyed by flames.

The Trailways bus left Atlanta about an hour after the Greyhound bus. Dr. Walter Bergman, 61, a former Michigan State University professor and a member of the CORE group, said about eight or ten white men had boarded the bus in Atlanta.

THREE BEATEN; ASSOCIATED WITH NEGROES

SYLACAUGA, Ala. (AP)—A white woman and two white men said they were stripped and flogged by white men who said the beatings were punishment for associating with Negroes.

Sheriff Luke Brewer said Mr. and Mrs. Marlin White, both about 50, told him six men forced them from their home Saturday night, took them to an isolated area, stripped and flogged them.

White said the men charged him and his wife with associating with Negroes and permitting a Negro to whip their children. He denied the accusations.

Brewer said James N. Guthrie, 34, who lives about two blocks from the Whites, said three men forced him to undress and flogged him in his home. Guthrie told the sheriff his attackers said he was whipped because he hired a Negro maid to care for his children.

Bill Would Hike Teacher Salaries

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Senate committee says too many qualified teachers are in school administration jobs.

A report issued yesterday by the Fact Finding Committee on Governmental Administration backs a bill by the committee chairman, Sen. Stanley Arnold (D-Susanville).

It would require schools to spend from 50 to 60 per cent of total expense on teachers' salaries.

Present law provides that schools must spend 65 per cent of the foundation program as salaries of certificated employees or for tuition.

The committee says this is meaningless and affects only fastgrowing small districts.

Arnold's bill comes before the Senate Education Committee on Wednesday. A similar proposal is scheduled to be heard next Monday by the Assembly Education Committee.

The first five cash crops in the United States are, in order, wheat, corn, tobacco, cotton and soy beans.

U.S. Judge Testifies In Israel

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—An American judge testified today that Hermann Goering and Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop told him Adolf Eichmann was a main cog in the Nazi program to exterminate Europe's Jews.

Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno, of Pittsburgh, told the Eichmann trial court the defendant even carried his program into the allied prisoner of war camps.

JUDGE AT NUERNBERG

Musmanno testified on the basis of information he collected as a judge at the Nuernberg war crimes trials and as an interrogator for the U.S. Navy during the first Nuernberg trial in 1945-1946.

Reporting on his interrogation of top Nazi officials after their arrest, Musmanno told the court:

"Goering said he was not aware that the program of Jewish extermination had reached these reported proportions. The persons most responsible were Hitler, Bormann, Goebbels, Heydrich and Eichmann."

ANOTHER MENTION

Asked if anyone else mentioned Eichmann, the judge replied:

"Yes, Ribbentrop said he resented very much Eichmann's interference in his ministry of foreign affairs. He said also he was very sorry that Hitler had put so much authority into Eichmann—into the program of Jewish extermination."

Former Gestapo chief Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Musmanno continued, "said the persons who ran the Jewish extermination program were 'Hitler, Bormann, Himmler, Kaltenbrunner, Heydrich and Eichmann.'"

Musmanno said Hans Frank, Nazi governor general of Poland, "decided to wade in blood no longer" and complained to Himmler. The judge said Frank was referred "to Eichmann."

Motor vehicles registered in Minnesota are expected to total 2,232,000 by 1976, an increase of 77 per cent.

First Earth Is Turned For Hospital Addition

A doctor and a lawyer leaned on the twin handles of a two-handled chrome-plated shovel Saturday to turn the first earth for a $1,972,000 addition to Marin General Hospital.

About 75 persons were on hand to watch the groundbreaking and listen to remarks by A. Crawford Greene of Ross, lawyer and representative of the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, and Dr. Wilson P. Goddard of Bolinas, president of the board of Marin County Hospital District.

The 116-bed wing, doubling capacity of the district-owned hospital in Greenbrae, is to be built by Barrett Construction Co. of San Francisco.

The addition was made possible by a half-million dollar gift from the Babcock Endowment, set up by the will of Mrs. Julia May Babcock, widow of a San Francisco banker and shipping magnate, to help bring medical care to middle-income families; by a matching half-million gift from a Marin couple who required anonymity in their generosity, and from $1,486,000 in state and federal funds obtained under the Hill-Burton Act.

San Rafael Accountant, Wife Injured In Santa Rosa Wreck

A San Rafael accountant was hospitalized and his wife and two children treated for minor injuries when the car he was driving was struck by another auto in Santa Rosa yesterday.

Gerald Bonner, 38, of 148 Highland Avenue, San Rafael, was in Marin General Hospital today with multiple rib fractures. Hospital attendants reported Bonner "in satisfactory condition."

Highway patrol officers said Bonner's auto was struck in a head-on sideswipe by a car driven by Woodrow E. Lindsey, 46 of San Francisco. Lindsey's car went out of control as he was rounding a curve on Mark West Springs Road, four miles east of Highway 101, and ran into Bonner's car, officers reported.

Lindsey was booked in the Sonoma County Jail and charged with drunken driving, officers reported. He was also cited for unsafe speed.

Bonner's wife, Dolores, 41, was treated at Marin General Hospital for bruises on the arms and cut left leg. Their two children, Kirk, 11, and Kris, 9, were treated at the Santa Rosa Hospital for cuts and bruises.

Russ Hint Resuming Of Tests

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet government said today it might have to resume testing nuclear and hydrogen weapons unless the United States and Britain get France to abandon its testing program.

The assertion was contained in a formal statement the Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, read into the record of the deadlocked nuclear conference at its 305th session.

"The Soviet Union has repeatedly stated that the French tests complicate the reaching of an agreement" on a worldwide suspension of nuclear weapons testing, the statement said. "This may force the Soviet Union to resume testing of nuclear and hydrogen bombs."

Tsarapkin asked U.S. negotiator Arthur H. Dean and Sir Michael Wright of Britain to forward the Soviet statement to their governments.

He repeated charges he made March 21 that the French were in effect conducting tests on behalf of the two Western powers who have observed a moratorium on weapons tests since these talks began more than 2½ years ago.

Dean categorically rejected the Soviet statement. Sir Michael termed it "ludicrous." Both accused the Soviet delegate of raising the matter to cover up Soviet "intransigeance" on the crucial issue of how to control a treaty.

Stinson Beach To Get New Post Office

Stinson Beach is to get a new post office.

The Post Office Department, which last week called for bids for a new post office in Bolinas, today called for them for an office in neighboring Stinson Beach.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day announced a 1,000-square foot building is contemplated to replace existing 727-square foot quarters in Stinson Beach. The contract will be for lease of a building erected to Post Office Department specifications. Closing date for bids is June 15.

Pot Luck Dinner

The Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. will hold its annual pot luck dinner at 6 p.m. Friday at the clubhouse, to be followed by the regular monthly meeting, publicity chairman Mildred Corbin said today. Persons making contributions to the dinner should advise Florentine O'Rourke of Baywood Drive.

BROWN SIGNS MEASURE ON SCHOOL POOLS

SACRAMENTO (AP)—If a school district uses its own money to build a swimming pool, it can still get state aid for the other school construction, under a bill signed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown today.

But if the district does not use local bond money for a pool, it must comtribute an equal amount to any other project for which it gets state aid.

The latter provision of the new measure by Assemblyman Bruce Allen (R-Los Gatos) is now being enforced administratively by the state.

U.N. Troops Withdraw From Kasai

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — The United Nations announced today its troops have withdrawn from south Kasai Province in the face of a grave new threat of tribal warfare.

U.N. civilian operations also have been suspended in the famine-plagued province ruled by Albert Kalonji.

"Tribal fighting is not confined to a single place and keeps erupting like bubbles in boiling water," said a U.N. spokesman.

The decision to withdraw U.N. Ghanian soldiers based on the south Kasai capital of Bakwanga was taken in the light of the experience at Port Francqui, where more than 40 U.N. troops were killed by soldiers under nominal control of the central government.

The Ghanian battalion based on Bakwanga will be temporarily relocated nearer its brigade headquarters in Luluabourg, in northern Kasai.

California Taxable Sales Show A Drop

Taxable sales for the state as a whole dropped during the fourth quarter of 1960, as compared with the same period in 1959.

However, Marin County managed to up its taxable sales volume by 2.4 per cent, according to a report by the State Board of Equalization.

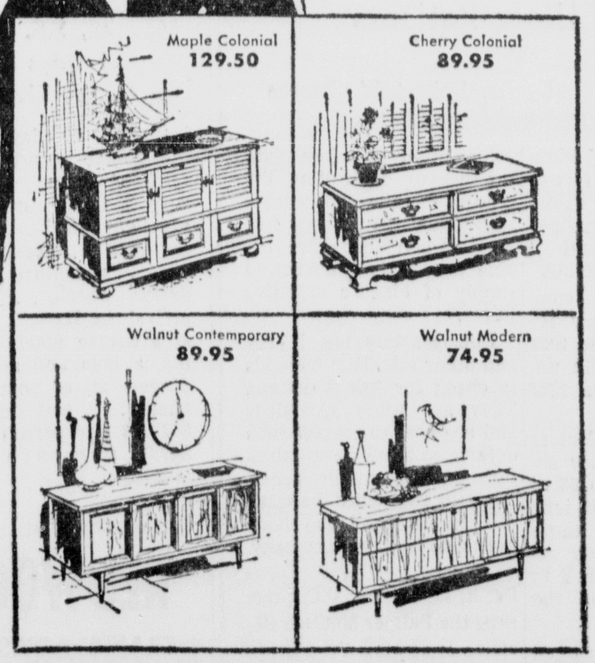

Sales in 31 of the state's 58 counties failed to achieve the record levels of the fourth quarter of 1959. Losses in sales were especially heavy in the north where the hard-hit lumber industry dominates the economic scene. Marin was among the 27 counties which registered increases.

ADDITION TO DOUBLE SIZE OF TOMALES SCHOOL

Drawing by architect Charles J. Woodbury of Petaluma shows how four-room addition to Tomales Elementary School will look when completed. The addition will be built with proceeds of $100,000 bond issue authorized by voters of Tomales Bay School District in April. It will include three classrooms and a teachers' room to double the pupil capacity of the present school, which will be connected with the new wing by walkway (right rear). Children of lower grades in Marshall area will continue to attend Marshall School.

Roundup Of Weekend Automobile Accidents

El Camino Drive, Corte Madera, one of the drivers, escaped unhurt. Mrs. Ruby Winchester, 47, of Healdsburg, the third driver, was admitted to San Rafael General Hospital with a left arm injury. She was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Also hospitalized was Joyce Hebberd, 25, who suffered a severe whiplash injury. She was in "fair" condition today.

Treated at San Rafael General, then released, were the following, all passengers in the three vehicles: Mrs. Yaneko Winchester, 27, of Windsor, Sonoma County, bruises, and her son Gray, 3, cut on the chin; Mrs. Lyoka Shipman, 28, of San Rafael, and her four children, Teresa, 9; Debra, 7; Larry, 4 and Sanda, 3, all bumped and bruised; Patrick Radford, broken toe, and his brother, George, bruised forehead, both of St. Vincent's School.

A 4-year-old San Anselmo boy was in "satisfactory condition" today at Marin General Hospital with concussion after he was struck by a car yesterday on Butterfield Road, San Anselmo police reported.

John Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mann of 145 Butterfield Road, was hit by a car driven by Edward Thomas Clahan, 20, of 300 Hidden Valley Lane, Sleepy Hollow.

Mrs. Mabel Miller of 175 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, a witness to the accident, told police the little boy darted out in front of Clahan's northbound auto about 300 feet west of Arroyo Road at 5:15 p.m.

Shirley R. Michelson, 37, of Ellen Court, San Rafael, suffered a whiplash injury Saturday in an accident involving three cars and a pedestrian who tried to cross Highway 101 north of San Rafael near the Forbes overhead.

She was reported in satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital.

The pedestrian, Jack B. Tefft, 57, of San Quentin, told the highway patrol he started to cross the highway to use a telephone on the other side. He went as far as the slow lane, but traffic was too heavy, so he decided to go back.

Mrs. Michelson said she saw Tefft start to cross, stopped. Her auto was hit from the rear by a car driven by Dave G. Mariani, 39, of 6 Washington Street, Novato, which in turn was struck by one driven by E. Hersh, 18, of 39 Midway Avenue, Mill Valley.

Pfc. Ronald W. Topper, 19, of Fort Baker was cited for following too closely Saturday after his car was involved in a three-car collision just north of the Mission Avenue offramp on Highway 101 in San Rafael.

Also involved in the collision were cars driven by A/2c Robert D. Hackworth, 21, stationed at Travis Air Force Base, and Alex J. Samosvatoff, 23, of San Francisco.

Norman Paige, 50, of Tacoma, Wash., a passenger in Hackworth's car, was injured, but said he would see his own doctor.

Congested traffic backed up on U. S. Highway 101 two miles south of the signal lights at the intersection of Route 37 was blamed by the California Highway Patrol for a five-car smashup yesterday in which four persons suffered minor injuries.

Harriet N. Yuk Kauk, 18, of San Francisco, was traveling in the southbound lane at 6:40 p.m. when she smacked into the rear of a car driven by Walter S. Mildvam, 41, of San Pablo.

Mildvan's car in turn hit one driven by Mrs. Stella Catlson, 51, of Cotati. Cars driven by Sp5 Curtis A. Bahl of 14 Ridgewood Road, San Rafael, stationed at the Presido of San Francisco, and Charles E. Armstrong, 44, of San Lorenzo then piled into the rear of the two cars.

Armstrong and Kaug were cited by the highway patrol for unsafe speed.

Frances Bahl, 34, riding with Curtis Bahl, complained of hurts but required no treatment when she reached Marin General Hospital. Jefferson Wilbur and Cynthia Wilbur passengers with Kaug, were injured but said they would consult their own doctor, as did Kaug.

A San Francisco woman was injured in a two-car crash farther north on Highway 101 Saturday at 2:15 p.m.

Alice T. Norton, 23, passenger with George S. Vashiway, 28, a San Francisco clerk, was taken to see a Petaluma physician after Vashiway's northbound car collided with one driven by Victor A. Cowdell of Chula Vista, a horse trainer. The highway patrol said the cars sideswiped as Vashiway attempted to pass Cowdell on the right, about two miles south of the Sonoma County line.

On the same stretch, a half mile south of Highway 37, a three-car rear-end collision of southbound cars injured one person at 9:15 p.m. yesterday.

Drivers were Antoine H. DeLent, 27, of San Francisco; Edward I. Cox of San Francisco and Catherine A. McGill, 49, of Sacramento. Robert Cowan, San Francisco, a passenger with DeLent, was injured but refused treatment at the scene, the highway patrol said. DeLent was cited for unsafe speed.

A Yellow Cab rolled backwards, broke down 15 feet of redwood fencing, hit a telephone pole, a light pole and injured a passenger about 9:35 p.m. Saturday, San Rafael police reported.

Kenneth A. Wehring of 226 Alexander Avenue, San Rafael driver of the cab, stopped to let out a passenger. The brakes failed and the cab rolled backwards, hitting a fence at 42 Miramar Avenue, the police reported.

Beatrice R. Lubbock, 65, of San Francisco, a passenger inside the cab was taken to San Rafael General Hospital by Louis Milani, owner of the cab company. She was treated for bruises on her right leg.

Marion Louise Clark, 55, of 34 Miraflores Avenue, stopped her car about 4:55 p.m. Saturday at 1619 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael. As she stepped from it, another car went by so close that she pushed herself backwards. She told San Rafael police that she could not describe the car.

Glendale Boy Slays Mother

GLENDALE (AP)—A prominent clubwoman was beaten and choked to death today by her 15-year-old son, who said she had nagged him ever since he was arrested three weeks ago trying to chloroform and photograph a girl friend.

Blood-spattered and shaking, the boy, Ronald Wolff, walked into police headquarters at 9:10 a.m. and said:

"I've got something to report. I just killed my mother with an axe . . . an axe handle."

Police found Mrs. Beulah Wolff, 41, lying dead in a pool of blood in the living room of the modest grey stucco home she shared with the boy.

Ronald told detectives he walked up behind his mother while she was preparing breakfast and struck her with a 14-inch-long axe handle. She was stunned but kept on her feet so the boy began choking her. They struggled from the kitchen through the dining room and into the living room, where he continued to choke her until she died.

Then, the boy said, he knelt down and prayed before going to the police station.

Mrs. Wolff, daughter of Albert Newton Johnson, former Minnesota state legislator, was founder of the Glendale Writers Workshop and president of the San Fernando Valley branch of the National League of American Penwomen.

Bank Manager Cut Walking Into Window

Earl Edgar Boutilier, 50, manager of the United California Bank at 1017 Fourth Street, San Rafael, yesterday cut his legs when he walked into a plate glass window at the Maynard Redmond Realty office at Robinhood and Maplewood Drives.

Police took him to San Rafael General Hospital where he was treated.

Cash Missing

About $50 was stolen from a child's metal bank Friday in the apartment of Mrs. Ruth McRoy, 389 Drake Avenue, Marin City, Marin County sheriff's deputies reported.

Six Persons Suffer Bites From Dogs

Six persons suffered dog bites over the weekend, four of them receiving hospital treatment.

Max Page, 43, of Apartment C-201, Marin City, was bitten on the right hand by a neighbor's dog Saturday at 5 p.m. He was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Herbert Fairn, 65, of San Leandro, was gitten on the right hand about 6 p.m. Saturday. The dog is owned by Charles Robertson of 4 Espalda Court. Fairn was bitten as he was walking by the Robertson home. He also was treated at Marin General.

Mrs. Pauline Teller and her daughter, Ann, 15, were bitten by their own dog as they attempted to pick it up from the street after it was struck by a car near their home at 150 Shady Lane, Ross, Friday.

Mrs. Teller was bitten on the left hand and her daughter on the left wrist. Both were treated at Marin General Hospital.

Catherine Higgins, 8, was bitten Saturday as she was playing in a vacant lot in back of 314 Woodland Road, Kentfield. The dog is owned by Glen Glafke of that address. Catherine, who lives at 315 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, was bitten on the thigh but apparently saw her own doctor, the Marin County Humane Society reported.

Paul Becker, 21, of 250 Alpine Street, San Rafael, was bitten on the right thigh yesterday near his home, the Humane Society reported. The dog is owned by Vince Palombino of 246 Alpine Street. Becker apparently saw his own doctor also.

Hot Wires Fall On Station Wagon

"Hot" electrical wires fell across a station wagon today shooting current through it until Pacific Gas and Electric Co. repairmen cut the wires turning off the current. No one was in the car.

Two wires fell from the rear of an apartment at 922 B Street about 11 a.m. as construction workers from Ralph E. Murphy and Sons of San Rafael were building an addition to the apartment.

San Rafael firemen were called and stood by allowing no one to near the car until PG&E repairmen cut the wires. Firemen said one of the wires burned holes in the vehicle and the other stuck itself to the metal.

Woman Given Life In Slaying Of Kern Girl

BAKERSFIELD (UPI) — Dixie Elaine Lindsey, 23, indicted for the kidnap-sex slaying of a little girl, suddenly changed her plea to guilty today, and immediately was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Lindsey took the action before Superior Judge Gordon L. Howden as her trial entered its second week. A jury of seven men and five women had been seated late Friday and Dist. Atty. Kit Nelson was scheduled to present opening arguments this morning.

Her pleas of guilty of murder in the first degree and kidnap were barely audible in the courtroom. She covered her head with a handkerchief and sobbed as Howden pronounced the sentence.

Mrs. Lindsey and her husRichard, 30, were indicted after the body of 6-year-old Rose Marie Riddle was found in a lonely Kern County field Jan. 17. She had been abducted from a Shafter labor camp five days earlier.

Lindsey admitted he raped and choked the child but claimed his wife killed Rose Marie with a tire wrench. Lindsey, who was condemned to death, was returned to Bakersfield from San Quentin prison to testify against his wife.

Nelson had claimed his testimony would be possible because the couple's remarriage after a divorce was not legal.

While awaiting trial, Mrs. Lindsey gave birth to her fourth child, a boy. He has been placed in a foster home, while her other children by another marriage were being cared for by her parents.

Pleas Changed By Pair In Fraud Case

Charles Anderson Brown, 39, of 6 Washington Street, Novato, and David George Mariani, 26, of 10 Carmel Drive, Novato, today changed their pleas from not guilty on two counts of fraud, before Superior Court Judge Richard Sims Jr.

Four additional counts against the two were dismissed on motion of the district attorney's office. The two will come before Judge Sims on June 19 for a report by the probation department and sentencing.

Mariani was president of Walt Brown Novato Inc., car agency, and Brown was secretary to the company when they were indicted by the grand jury on Feb. 2.

Brown and Mariani were charged with selling cars to which they did not have a clear title, taking cars in trade that were not completely paid for and failing to pay off the lien.

Stanley Wilsey of the State Department of Motor Vehicles and William Bemiss of the district attorney's office brought the case before the grand jury.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Leland C. Finch, 21, of 756 San Pedro Road, San Rafael, and Carolyn Marie Ongaro, 20, of 31 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield.

Rex R. Phillips, 29, and Frieda A. Quade, 53, both of Napa.

STOCKS TODAY

SEC Orders Probe Of Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Securities and Exchange Commission today ordered an investigation of the American Stock Exchange, the second largest in New York City and the nation.

The decision on the inquiry grew out of an SEC investigation of Jerry and Gerard Re, two American Exchange specialists who were banished from Wall Street by the commission on charges of rigging stock prices and illegal stock sales.

In announcing the new inquiry, the SEC said it will look into the "rules, policies, practices and procedures of the American Stock Exchange concerning the regulation and conduct of specialists and other members."

The commission said it will also investigate the role of exchange members in distributing to the public stocks traded on the exchange.

The entire inquiry will be conducted in private, but witnesses will be under oath.

Ross Demo Club Cuba Discussion

Ross Valley Democratic Club will sponsor a discussion on "What Happened in Cuba?" at 8 p.m. Wednesday (May 17) at Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera.

Speakers leading the "open-end" discussion will be Bennett Skewes-Cox of Ross, state foreign policy chairman of the Issues Committee, California Democratic Council; and Frederick W. Wyle, regional foreign policy chairman of the same group .

Al Gately, president of the Ross Valley Democratic Club, announced that members may bring guests to join in the discussion.

Money Stolen

William Joseph of McNear's Brick Yard told Marin County sheriff's deputies that someone entered his home Friday morning while he was at work and stole $22 from his wallet. The thief pried up a window to gain entry.

OBITUARIES

Hermina F. Murphy Succumbs

Mrs. Hermina F. Murphy, a Mill Valley real estate broker for 11 years, died at the home of her daughter in Tiburon early today after a long illness.

Mrs. Murphy was 68. She had lived about 25 years on East Blithedale Avenue in Mill Valley before moving last September to live with her daughter. Mrs. Patricia Damazio, at 114 Jefferson Drive, Tiburon.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Spinal Defects Noted In Many Ulcer Patients
by Dr. Robert W. Pearce
You can't enjoy life when you are suffering from stomach ulcers. Some of the first signs of ulcers are gas pains, indigestion and a swelling or bloated feeling.
Operations or diets sometimes bring temporary relief. But after a while that old ulcer acts up again unless you correct the real cause of the trouble.
German medical doctors have reported that they noticed spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. Using Chiropratic methods, these German medical men restored their patients to health by eliminating the cause of the ulcers.
Research has disclosed that pinched nerves of the spine often interfere with the nerves controlling the digestive juices and cause a body imbalance. Ulcers then result when foods are unable to get their normal supply of these digestive juices.
Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific methods to check for spinal defects. They are spine specialists and are able to correct such defects without hospitalization. Ulcer trouble generally goes away once the spine is corrected and the body is able to function normally.
Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

El Camino Drive, Corte Madera, one of the drivers, escaped unhurt. Mrs. Ruby Winchester, 47, of Healdsburg, the third driver, was admitted to San Rafael General Hospital with a left arm injury. She was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Also hospitalized was Joyce Hebberd, 25, who suffered a severe whiplash injury. She was in "fair" condition today.

Treated at San Rafael General, then released, were the following, all passengers in the three vehicles: Mrs. Yaneko Winchester, 27, of Windsor, Sonoma County, bruises, and her son Gray, 3, cut on the chin; Mrs. Lyoka Shipman, 28, of San Rafael, and her four children, Teresa, 9; Debra, 7; Larry, 4 and Sanda, 3, all bumped and bruised; Patrick Radford, broken toe, and his brother, George, bruised forehead, both of St. Vincent's School.

A 4-year-old San Anselmo boy was in "satisfactory condition" today at Marin General Hospital with concussion after he was struck by a car yesterday on Butterfield Road, San Anselmo police reported.

John Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mann of 145 Butterfield Road, was hit by a car driven by Edward Thomas Clahan, 20, of 300 Hidden Valley Lane, Sleepy Hollow.

Mrs. Mabel Miller of 175 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, a witness to the accident, told police the little boy darted out in front of Clahan's northbound auto about 300 feet west of Arroyo Road at 5:15 p.m.

Shirley R. Michelson, 37, of Ellen Court, San Rafael, suffered a whiplash injury Saturday in an accident involving three cars and a pedestrian who tried to cross Highway 101 north of San Rafael near the Forbes overhead.

She was reported in satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital.

The pedestrian, Jack B. Tefft, 57, of San Quentin, told the highway patrol he started to cross the highway to use a telephone on the other side. He went as far as the slow lane, but traffic was too heavy, so he decided to go back.

Mrs. Michelson said she saw Tefft start to cross, stopped. Her auto was hit from the rear by a car driven by Dave G. Mariani, 39, of 6 Washington Street, Novato, which in turn was struck by one driven by E. Hersh, 18, of 39 Midway Avenue, Mill Valley.

Pfc. Ronald W. Topper, 19, of Fort Baker was cited for following too closely Saturday after his car was involved in a three-car collision just north of the Mission Avenue offramp on Highway 101 in San Rafael.

Also involved in the collision were cars driven by A/2c Robert D. Hackworth, 21, stationed at Travis Air Force Base, and Alex J. Samosvatoff, 23, of San Francisco.

Norman Paige, 50, of Tacoma, Wash., a passenger in Hackworth's car, was injured, but said he would see his own doctor.

Congested traffic backed up on U. S. Highway 101 two miles south of the signal lights at the intersection of Route 37 was blamed by the California Highway Patrol for a five-car smash-up yesterday in which four persons suffered minor injuries.

Harriet N. Yuk Kauk, 18, of San Francisco, was traveling in the southbound lane at 6:40 p.m. when she smacked into the rear of a car driven by Walter S. Mildvam, 41, of San Pablo.

Mildvan's car in turn hit one driven by Mrs. Stella Catlson, 51, of Cotati. Cars driven by Sp5 Curtis A. Bahl of 14 Ridgewood Road, San Rafael, stationed at the Presido of San Francisco, and Charles E. Armstrong, 44, of San Lorenzo then piled into the rear of the two cars.

Armstrong and Kaug were cited by the highway patrol for unsafe speed.

Frances Bahl, 34, riding with Curtis Bahl, complained of hurts but required no treatment when she reached Marin General Hospital. Jefferson Wilbur and Cynthia Wilbur passengers with Kaug, were injured but said they would consult their own doctor, as did Kaug.

A San Francisco woman was injured in a two-car crash farther north on Highway 101 Saturday at 2:15 p.m.

Alice T. Norton, 23, passenger with George S. Vashiway, 28, a San Francisco clerk, was taken to see a Petaluma physician after Vashiway's northbound car collided with one driven by Victor A. Cowdell of Chula Vista, a horse trainer. The highway patrol said the cars sideswiped as Vashiway attempted to pass Cowdell on the right, about two miles south of the Sonoma County line.

On the same stretch, a half mile south of Highway 37, a three-car rear-end collision of southbound cars injured one person at 9:15 p.m. yesterday.

Drivers were Antoine H. DeLent, 27, of San Francisco; Edward I. Cox of San Francisco and Catherine A. McGill, 49, of Sacramento. Robert Cowan, San Francisco, a passenger with DeLent, was injured but refused treatment at the scene, the highway patrol said. DeLent was cited for unsafe speed.

A Yellow Cab rolled backwards, broke down 15 feet of redwood fencing, hit a telephone pole, a light pole and injured a passenger about 9:35 p.m. Saturday, San Rafael police reported.

Kenneth A. Wehring of 226 Alexander Avenue, San Rafael driver of the cab, stopped to let out a passenger. The brakes failed and the cab rolled backwards, hitting a fence at 42 Miramar Avenue, the police reported.

Beatrice R. Lubbock, 65, of San Francisco, a passenger inside the cab was taken to San Rafael General Hospital by Louis Milani, owner of the cab company. She was treated for bruises on her right leg.

Marion Louise Clark, 55, of 34 Miraflores Avenue, stopped her car about 4:55 p.m. Saturday at 1619 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael. As she stepped from it, another car went by so close that she pushed herself backwards. She told San Rafael police that she could not describe the car.

Glendale Boy Slays Mother

GLENDALE (AP)—A prominent clubwoman was beaten and choked to death today by her 15-year-old son, who said she had nagged him ever since he was arrested three weeks ago trying to chloroform and photograph a girl friend.

Blood-spattered and shaking, the boy, Ronald Wolff, walked into police headquarters at 9:10 a.m. and said:

"I've got something to report. I just killed my mother with an axe . . . an axe handle."

Police found Mrs. Beulah Wolff, 41, lying dead in a pool of blood in the living room of the modest grey stucco home she shared with the boy.

Ronald told detectives he walked up behind his mother while she was preparing breakfast and struck her with a 14-inch-long axe handle. She was stunned but kept on her feet so the boy began choking her. They struggled from the kitchen through the dining room and into the living room, where he continued to choke her until she died.

Then, the boy said, he knelt down and prayed before going to the police station.

Mrs. Wolff, daughter of Albert Newton Johnson, former Minnesota state legislator, was founder of the Glendale Writers Workshop and president of the San Fernando Valley branch of the National League of American Penwomen.

Bank Manager Cut Walking Into Window

Earl Edgar Boutilier, 50, manager of the United California Bank at 1017 Fourth Street, San Rafael, yesterday cut his legs when he walked into a plate glass window at the Maynard Redmond Realty office at Robinhood and Maplewood Drives.

Police took him to San Rafael General Hospital where he was treated.

Cash Missing

Six Persons Suffer Bites From Dogs

Six persons suffered dog bites over the weekend, four of them receiving hospital treatment.

Max Page, 43, of Apartment C-201, Marin City, was bitten on the right hand by a neighbor's dog Saturday at 5 p.m. He was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Herbert Fairn, 65, of San Leandro, was gitten on the right hand about 6 p.m. Saturday. The dog is owned by Charles Robertson of 4 Espalda Court. Fairn was bitten as he was walking by the Robertson home. He also was treated at Marin General.

Mrs. Pauline Teller and her daughter, Ann, 15, were bitten by their own dog as they attempted to pick it up from the street after it was struck by a car near their home at 150 Shady Lane, Ross, Friday.

Mrs. Teller was bitten on the left hand and her daughter on the left wrist. Both were treated at Marin General Hospital.

Catherine Higgins, 8, was bitten Saturday as she was playing in a vacant lot in back of 314 Woodland Road, Kentfield. The dog is owned by Glen Glafke of that address. Catherine, who lives at 315 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, was bitten on the thigh but apparently saw her own doctor, the Marin County Humane Society reported.

Paul Becker, 21, of 250 Alpine Street, San Rafael, was bitten on the right thigh yesterday near his home, the Humane Society reported. The dog is owned by Vince Palombino of 246 Alpine Street. Becker apparently saw his own doctor also.

Hot Wires Fall On Station Wagon

"Hot" electrical wires fell across a station wagon today shooting current through it until Pacific Gas and Electric Co. repairmen cut the wires turning off the current. No one was in the car.

Two wires fell from the rear of an apartment at 922 B Street about 11 a.m. as construction workers from Ralph E. Murphy and Sons of San Rafael were building an addition to the apartment.

San Rafael firemen were called and stood by allowing no one to near the car until PG&E repairmen cut the wires. Firemen said one of the wires burned holes in the vehicle and the other stuck itself to the metal.

Woman Given Life In Slaying Of Kern Girl

BAKERSFIELD (UPI) — Dixie Elaine Lindsey, 23, indicted for the kidnap-sex slaying of a little girl, suddenly changed her plea to guilty today, and immediately was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Lindsey took the action before Superior Judge Gordon L. Howden as her trial entered its second week. A jury of seven men and five women had been seated late Friday and Dist. Atty. Kit Nelson was scheduled to present opening arguments this morning.

Her pleas of guilty of murder in the first degree and kidnap were barely audible in the courtroom. She covered her head with a handkerchief and sobbed as Howden pronounced the sentence.

Mrs. Lindsey and her husRichard, 30, were indicted after the body of 6-year-old Rose Marie Riddle was found in a lonely Kern County field Jan. 17. She had been abducted from a Shafter labor camp five days earlier.

Lindsey admitted he raped and choked the child but claimed his wife killed Rose Marie with a tire wrench. Lindsey, who was condemned to death, was returned to Bakersfield from San Quentin prison to testify against his wife.

Nelson had claimed his testimony would be possible because the couple's remarriage after a divorce was not legal.

While awaiting trial, Mrs. Lindsey gave birth to her fourth child, a boy. He has been placed in a foster home, while her other children by another marriage were being cared for by her parents.

Pleas Changed By Pair In Fraud Case

Charles Anderson Brown, 39, of 6 Washington Street, Novato, and David George Mariani, 26, of 10 Carmel Drive, Novato, today changed their pleas from not guilty on two counts of fraud, before Superior Court Judge Richard Sims Jr.

Four additional counts against the two were dismissed on motion of the district attorney's office. The two will come before Judge Sims on June 19 for a report by the probation department and sentencing.

Mariani was president of Walt Brown Novato Inc., car agency, and Brown was secretary to the company when they were indicted by the grand jury on Feb. 2.

Brown and Mariani were charged with selling cars to which they did not have a clear title, taking cars in trade that were not completely paid for and failing to pay off the lien.

Stanley Wilsey of the State Department of Motor Vehicles and William Bemiss of the district attorney's office brought the case before the grand jury.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Leland C. Finch, 21, of 756 San Pedro Road, San Rafael, and Carolyn Marie Ongaro, 20, of 31 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield.

Rex R. Phillips, 29, and Frieda A. Quade, 53, both of Napa.

SEC Orders Probe Of Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Securities and Exchange Commission today ordered an investigation of the American Stock Exchange, the second largest in New York City and the nation.

The decision on the inquiry grew out of an SEC investigation of Jerry and Gerard Re, two American Exchange specialists who were banished from Wall Street by the commission on charges of rigging stock prices and illegal stock sales.

In announcing the new inquiry, the SEC said it will look into the "rules, policies, practices and procedures of the American Stock Exchange concerning the regulation and conduct of specialists and other members."

The commission said it will also investigate the role of exchange members in distributing to the public stocks traded on the exchange.

The entire inquiry will be conducted in private, but witnesses will be under oath.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Spinal Defects Noted In Many Ulcer Patients
by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

You can't enjoy life when you are suffering from stomach ulcers. Some of the first signs of ulcers are gas pains, indigestion and a swelling or bloated feeling.

Operations or diets sometimes bring temporary relief. But after a while that old ulcer acts up again unless you correct the real cause of the trouble.

German medical doctors have reported that they noticed spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. Using Chiropratic methods, these German medical men restored their patients to health by eliminating the cause of the ulcers.

Research has disclosed that pinched nerves of the spine often interfere with the nerves controlling the digestive juices and cause a body imbalance. Ulcers then result when foods are unable to get their normal supply of these digestive juices.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific methods to check for spinal defects. They are spine specialists and are able to correct such defects without hospitalization. Ulcer trouble generally goes away once the spine is corrected and the body is able to function normally.

Misplaced Stop Signs Mystify Motorists

Two misplaced stop signs mystified the California Highway Patrol—and a number of motorists—too, on Saturday.

Someone had apparently gone to quite a bit of trouble to "relocate" the signs on Panoramic Highway not far from Stinson Beach.

The signs originally were placed at Calle Del Mar and Shoreline Highway, and had been a matter of controversy for some time.

Someone dug them out, took them a mile and quarter away, dug two holes, six to eight inches deep on both shoulders of the road, and set the signs in normal position. Then he painted two large "stop" signs on the road.

It all looked very authentic, said Officer Charles Woodworth, who went to investigate after the patrol received a report of the mysterious new signs.

But there was no intersection there, and no logical reason for stop signs.

A practical joker, or someone expressing displeasure at the original location of the signs, apparently was responsible, Woodworth said.

The signs were turned over to the Division of Highways for replacement at Calle Del Mar and Shoreline Highway, and the county road department obliterated the letters painted on the road.

Drunken Driver Given $184 Fine

John Joseph Nelson, 49, of San Francisco must pay $184 fine and remain on six months probation for his first drunken driving offense.

He was sentenced last week by Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court. For 90 days, Nelson may drive only for work and emergencies. He was arrested along Highway 101 near Hamilton Air Force Base on April 8.

Sylvia Parkman Doyle, 43, of 101 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, drew a $158 fine and six months probation for her first drunken driving offense. For 90 days she may drive only on family errands and emergencies. She was arrested April 30 on highway frontage road near Lucky Drive at Greenbrae.

Mosk Asserts Bill Would Kill Antitrust Suit

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Atty Gen. Mosk says a bill before the legislature would cancel a pending antitrust suit against the California Real Estate Assn.

The bill, by Assemblyman Carley V. Porter (D-Compton), would allow real estate associations to set up advisory schedules of fees and commissions.

Mosk's suit against the CREA charges it and 145 local boards conspired to fix commissions, and uniformly increased fees in 1960.

The attorney general said Porter's bill would "go far toward wiping out 50 years of antitrust protection in California."

The bill is pending before the Assembly Governmental Efficiency and Economy Committee.

Orchid Society

SUNDAY SERMON

The Christian Mother's Influence On Her Young

The importance of a Christian mother's influence on her children was stressed yesterday by Chaplain (Capt.) Laurence H. Withington at the early worship service of Hamilton Air Force Base's Protestant Chapel.

"Just think of the influence that a truly Christian mother can have on her children," declared Chaplain Withington. "The Bible describes such a woman in Proverbs: 'Who can find a virtuous woman for her price is far above rubies."

The passage closes with a beautiful summation of the three most important attributes of a Christian mother. She is worthy of praise; she fears the Lord; and she is praised for her works.

"Praise is something we all seek. The Proverbs tell of a woman who is worthy of praise from the lips and actions of her husband and children.

"There is no more fitting tribute to a mother than to overhear a heated discussion among members of the small set, ending with 'My Mommie said it was true and I believe her because she doesn't tell me lies.' Trust and confidence on the part of her family are the rich rewards of a truly virtuous woman.

"Favor and popularity are also traits we all seek after," the chaplain told the congregation. "Most of the time we neglect to choose the correct method of attaining this food for our ego.

"We see so many ads proclaiming the wonders of a new 'miracle diet supplement' and a color rinse that hides gray hair. It seems that staying young is the only virtue that will bring favor and popularity, but the Proverbs say these are deceitful and vain. More important in the eyes of God is the inner appearance, 'a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.' Beauty should never be neglected but it should also not take up our whole life.

"Pride of workmanship has long been a driving force in man's labor. The Proverbs say 'give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.'

"The present day volunteer movement in community circles has produced wonderful results. Women give of their time, which they cannot spare, for worthy causes in the church and the community. Sometimes this is done at the neglect of more time with her children because of the pressures which cause her to ask, 'Am I doing my part?' Community service should not be neglected, but let us remember her 'works' are her children.

"The investment that a Christian mother puts into her children can never be taken from her. She is worthy of praise if she fears the Lord and imparts this to her children," Chaplain Withington concluded.

Misplaced Stop Signs Mystify Motorists

Two misplaced stop signs mystified the California Highway Patrol—and a number of motorists—too, on Saturday.

Someone had apparently gone to quite a bit of trouble to "relocate" the signs on Panoramic Highway not far from Stinson Beach.

The signs originally were placed at Calle Del Mar and Shoreline Highway, and had been a matter of controversy for some time.

Someone dug them out, took them a mile and quarter away, dug two holes, six to eight inches deep on both shoulders of the road, and set the signs in normal position. Then he painted two large "stop" signs on the road.

It all looked very authentic, said Officer Charles Woodworth, who went to investigate after the patrol received a report of the mysterious new signs.

But there was no intersection there, and no logical reason for stop signs.

A practical joker, or someone expressing displeasure at the original location of the signs, apparently was responsible, Woodworth said.

The signs were turned over to the Division of Highways for replacement at Calle Del Mar and Shoreline Highway, and the county road department obliterated the letters painted on the road.

Drunken Driver Given $184 Fine

John Joseph Nelson, 49, of San Francisco must pay $184 fine and remain on six months probation for his first drunken driving offense.

He was sentenced last week by Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court. For 90 days, Nelson may drive only for work and emergencies. He was arrested along Highway 101 near Hamilton Air Force Base on April 8.

Sylvia Parkman Doyle, 43, of 101 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, drew a $158 fine and six months probation for her first drunken driving offense. For 90 days she may drive only on family errands and emergencies. She was arrested April 30 on highway frontage road near Lucky Drive at Greenbrae.

Mosk Asserts Bill Would Kill Antitrust Suit

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Atty Gen. Mosk says a bill before the legislature would cancel a pending antitrust suit against the California Real Estate Assn.

The bill, by Assemblyman Carley V. Porter (D-Compton), would allow real estate associations to set up advisory schedules of fees and commissions.

Mosk's suit against the CREA charges it and 145 local boards conspired to fix commissions, and uniformly increased fees in 1960.

The attorney general said Porter's bill would "go far toward wiping out 50 years of antitrust protection in California."

The bill is pending before the Assembly Governmental Efficiency and Economy Committee.

SUNDAY SERMON

The Christian Mother's Influence On Her Young

The importance of a Christian mother's influence on her children was stressed yesterday by Chaplain (Capt.) Laurence H. Withington at the early worship service of Hamilton Air Force Base's Protestant Chapel.

"Just think of the influence that a truly Christian mother can have on her children," declared Chaplain Withington. "The Bible describes such a woman in Proverbs: "Who can find a virtuous woman for her price is far above rubies."

The passage closes with a beautiful summation of the three most important attributes of a Christian mother. She is worthy of praise; she fears the Lord; and she is praised for her works.

"Praise is something we all seek. The Proverbs tell of a woman who is worthy of praise from the lips and actions of her husband and children.

"There is no more fitting tribute to a mother than to overhear a heated discussion among members of the small set, ending with 'My Mommie said it was true and I believe her because she doesn't tell me lies.' Trust and confidence on the part of her family are the rich rewards of a truly virtuous woman.

"Favor and popularity are also traits we all seek after," the chaplain told the congregation. "Most of the time we neglect to choose the correct method of attaining this food for our ego.

"We see so many ads proclaiming the wonders of a new 'miracle diet supplement' and a color rinse that hides gray hair. It seems that staying young is the only virtue that will bring favor and popularity, but the Proverbs say these are deceitful and vain. More important in the eyes of God is the inner appearance, 'a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.' Beauty should never be neglected but it should also not take up our whole life.

"Pride of workmanship has long been a driving force in man's labor. The Proverbs say 'give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.'

"The present day volunteer movement in community circles has produced wonderful results. Women give of their time, which they cannot spare, for worthy causes in the church and the community. Sometimes this is done at the neglect of more time with her children because of the pressures which cause her to ask, 'Am I doing my part?' Community service should not be neglected, but let us remember her 'works' are her children.

"The investment that a Christian mother puts into her children can never be taken from her. She is worthy of praise if she fears the Lord and imparts this to her children," Chaplain Withington concluded.

San Anselmo Council Needs Primer On How To Govern

"Gentlemen, I think you are much too wise to put yourselves in the position of asking for a first grade primer entitled 'How to govern so people may know what is going on.'"

That is what Attorney General Stanley Mosk told mayors and councilmen at the annual conference of the League of California Cities, held last year in Los Angeles.

Insofar as the mayor and city councilmen of San Anselmo go, the attorney general apparently was wrong.

In San Anselmo, they seem to need the first grade primer Mosk referred to.

Let's examine the situation:

First, let's look at the concensus expressed by at least three of the five councilmen. They say, in effect, "The people elected us to conduct city business, with the city's best interests in mind. If we feel the city's best interests will be hurt, then we are justified in not releasing certain information to the public."

Now let's compare that with Section 54950 of the Government Code of the State of California: "In enacting this chapter, the Legislature finds and declears that public commissions, boards and councils and other public agencies in this state exist to aid in the conduct of the people's business. It is the intent of the law that their actions be taken openly and that their deliberations be conducted openly.

"The people of the State do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created."

Incidentally, Attorney General Mosk read that, too, in his speech to the mayors and councilmen.

As readers of the I-J know, there has been something amiss in the accounting for San Anselmo's city funds for quite sometime. The council paid taxpayers' money for a special accounting survey to get to the bottom of the problem.

The accountants completed their study and report. But now the people who paid for the report—the taxpayers—are prevented from reading the report they had to pay for.

One taxpayer in particular, Hans E. Fischel of Brookside Drive, has been properly and understandably insisting that the audit report be made public.

So far, the council has turned deaf ears to his pleas.

And the city attorney, John Buresh, has sustained the council's suppression of the report.

If you enjoy ironic chuckles, you can have one at Buresh's expense. He was Nixon's campaign chairman here in Marin County a few months ago and presumably agrees with and supports the former vice president's views on public affairs.

On the very day that Buresh was advocating suppression of information in San Anselmo, Mr. Nixon was commenting on suppression in a speech at Detroit.

Suppression, said Nixon, "could well become the cloak for errors, misjudgments, and other failings of government."

Mr. Nixon, of course, was not talking about San Anselmo; he was talking about our national government in Washington.

We think the same principles apply both places.

Finally, let us pass along one of the closing paragraphs of Attorney General Mosk's aforementioned speech:

". . . . the first step toward totalitarian government always is the suppression of the truth. Over the years at both the township and at the highest level of government a step here and there (toward suppression) has been taken. It was always said to be in the 'public interest.' Any move to withhold something was always done in order to prevent something 'really terrible' from happening. I like John Milton's warning on this: He said that when we attempt to prohibit at all 'nothing is more likely to be prohibited than the truth itself.'"

Perhaps Taxpayer Fischel will need to start over by providing "first grade primers" for San Anselmo councilmen—and the city attorney too.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Are Citizens To Be Heeded?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

We have delivered the follow letter:

Mayor John F. McInnis
City Hall
San Rafael

We write you, as a member of the City Council, to set forth facts which might not otherwise be available prior to the council's May 15 meeting to consider the major issue.

On April 25, the City Planning Commission considered Henry Ghilotti's proposal to rezone his property in the Bret Harte area of the Coleman Addition. Over the vociferous protest of close-by residents, the planning commission saw fit to recommend that this property be rezoned from R-1 to R-2, B-2. We believe this action of the planning commission was not in the best interests of the orderly long-range development of San Rafael.

This property was zoned R-1 some years ago. The reasons for such zoning may not be altogether clear, but the development in this area has conformed to these restrictions and serves to re-enforce any original reasons for zoning the property R-1. This property lies in a single-family residential area, and it would appear to be improper to rezone it without showing a substantial reason. No such reason was shown at the planning commission meeting.

As we understand Mr. Ghilotti's attorney, they believe that R-2 development of this area would be good in and of itself since the area is now substantially undeveloped, even though surrounded by single family dwellings. We do not understand this argument, for there would appear to be no value in development for the sake of development. If there be any other value, it was not brought forth at the City Planning Commission meeting.

Any potential increase in taxes due to increased property assessments is overwhelmed by a number of other considerations.

First, there is considerable doubt whether over the long pull taxes would be increased by duplex development as opposed to single family dwelling development.

Second, there are substantial other undeveloped areas of San Rafael available for R-2 development . . .

Third, the present effort is merely the first step in Balkanizing the R-1 areas. If this process commences and continues in San Rafael, will any solid block R-1 areas remain? . . .

Fourth, although there was some suggestion that the density of population would not be increased in this area, this was not effectively demonstrated and, in fact, the reverse was tacitly conceded by Mr. Ghilotti's engineer.

In addition, there are substantial reasons for retaining the present zoning. The 202 persons who submitted the petition in opposition to the rezoning chose to make substantial investments in their homes, and we might add in the future of San Rafael, on the assumption that they would be entitled to maintain the area in its present zoning. Although we were all aware that zoning regulations could be changed, we would not have believed that this could happen without the showing of substantial necessity or other justification . . .

Thus, we come to the crux of the problem. Are Henry Ghilotti's plans for higher profits of greater community interest than the orderly development of our city? Are those of us who relied upon zoning restrictions to be frustrated? Are our investments to be made subject to a single man's desire for greater gain? . . . If our protests is ignored, can any group rest secure? You and the other members of the City Council must answer these questions . . .

Let Kids See True Nature

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This letter is in reply to Mrs. Carol Tobias' letter to you on "Why Dissection In Grammar School." From her comments it is quite apparent that she has never dissected anything more interesting than a frying chicken.

She asks what possible value these children can achieve from dissection when a walk through Muir Woods could reveal ALL the wonders of Nature. It is again quite evident that she is not aware of ALL the wonders of Nature, half of which are hidden inside these plants and animals.

What person who has a curiosity about Nature has not wondered about the intelligence of insects or other lower animals. Do they have a brain? How do they breathe? Do they have a circulatory system and blood like humans?

What could be more interesting than to find out how other forms of life manage to carry on life functions in entirely other ways than we do?

The complete answers to these questions, I can assure you, cannot be gained or, in fact, appreciated by looking at drawings of dissected animals, by words alone, or by a walk through Muir Woods. One's love of Nature can be greatly stimulated if one can discover for himself some of the HIDDEN marvels of Nature and not just the surface of Nature. Why give our growing children half truths?

It apparently never occurred to Mrs. Tobias that it is in these young years that the lifetime opinions, fears, interests, etc., are developed. Through these brief experiences with Nature, some of these children for the first time discover the wonderful world of science. Scientific methods unfold before them. They learn through dissection how to conduct careful observations and to draw intelligent conclusions from these observations.

But perhaps most important of all, they learn to appreciate and to understand these lower animals. No longer would they run in fright or turn in disgust from these creatures or kill them mercilessly on first contact. This can only lead to love of Nature in its true sense.

Mrs. Tobias would like the children of today to see Nature as she would like it to be and not what it truly is. If seeing Nature as it truly is is "twisting the minds of our little children," then I vote for another Scopes Trial.

1,700 Reasons A Girl's Dad Might Prefer That She Elope

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It is getting more expensive to get married . . . the average wedding today costs the bride or her dad nearly $1,700 . . . This includes $160 for the dress and $600 for a reception . . . But it doesn't cover the new $3.50 necktie the bridegroom buys for the ceremony, or the $400 spent on the honeymoon.

The most popular marrying age in this country, incidentally, has dropped to 18 for brides, 21 for men.

Down on the farm: The pig is smarter than he looks . . . a study made at Cornell University found the lowly grunter easily the most intelligent of all domestic animals.

How often do you use the phone? Most people make about 472 calls a year . . . teen-agers excepted of course.

Bees never pay any attention to traffic lights . . . they are blind to red and green colors . . . they live in a world of blues, purples and yellows.

Are you an imaginative sleeper. It is a fad now to buy odd-shaped beds and mattresses . . . they come shaped like a ship, a piano, or even like a heart.

Speaking of fears: If you put cotton in your ears and pull down the shades during a lightning storm, you have "karaunophobia" . . . if you are afraid to handle a knife or any sharp instrument, you have "aichmophobia."

Hail to our cows! If all the milk they produced last year were put in standard containers, the lineup would go around the globe 400 times.

Dice shooting is one of the world's oldest games . . . Sophocles wrote that a gent named Palamedes invented dice during the siege of Troy to help relieve the Greek troops of boredom . . . in the professional gambling palaces of Las Vegas today the longevity of a pair of dice is less than 30 minutes.

Signs of the times: In the window of a women's specialty shop: "We have everything for all girls—except tall men."

AMERICA may have more dieters than any other land, but it also has the world's largest sweet tooth . . . in 1960 it produced over three billion pounds of candy—2,000 varieties—gobbled up by the public at a cost of 1.2 billion dollars.

What's in a name? . . . A California beauty parlor for dogs is called—"The Clip Joint."

WISECRACK of the week: "True love often starts at a waterfall and ends over a leaky faucet."

BENNETT CERF

Harry Hershfield tells about a wealthy widow who boarded a taxicab and announced she was off for Europe. "Set me down as close to the ship as possible," she ordered. "My tootsies ache."

The driver worked his way directly alongside the liner just as a crane was lowered from the top deck. It gripped the cab and lifted it into the hold of the vessel before either the wealthy widow or the cabbie could say, "Foufel and Poufel."

"Be of good cheer," counseled this merry widow. "Now that I've gotten you into this pickle you can drive me through Europe. Keep the meter clicking. I'm loaded!"

So they drove all over the continent, and when they landed back in Gotham, the taxi tab came to about $9,000.

"Take me home now," the widow directed, "and I'll pay you in full."

"Where's home?" asked the cabbie.

"Flatbush," said the wealthy widow.

"Not on your life!" scowled the cabbie. "You never can get a fare back from there!"

It's No Fun To Be The Wife Of A Pigeon Racer Either

The other day we were looking at the sky and suddenly realized the pigeons were gone.

They used to fly out from behind some oak trees in a flock, wild-like. The thing is, they were always there in the sky—security.

Checking with attorney and fellow pigeon watcher Leo Killion, we found the birds' owner had moved them to Terra Linda. We were told, "Call Walter Jarecki in Homestead. He knows pigeons."

Jarecki said, yes, he has about 30—all racing pigeons. In fact, they are right in the middle of racing season and 10 of his were to race Saturday. About 2,000 are gathered, in baskets, in the Bay Area, trucked to Winnemucca, Nev., and let fly. The first one in the club clocked back to the home loft wins.

JARECKI, A MEMBER of the Tamalpais Homing Pigeon Club, said it's 330 air miles to Winnemucca and it takes the pigeons about six hours to make it to Mill Valley. "They do about 45 miles per hour," he said.

"I always go down to the loft about one-half hour early in case they have tail winds." Hmnn, we said. Don't they rest?

"They can't rest," said Jarecki. "Then they're late."

Pigeons don't have names, they have numbers, said the pigeon man. The "old birds" (one year or older) are racing now. Jarecki has one bird 11 years old but said, "We usually retire a bird from racing when it is three or four years old."

JARECKI'S PIGEONS eat a formula of wheat, corn and other grains. They live in a loft with a lot of ventilation but no drafts. "Can't stand drafts . . . like humans," Jarecki said.

How high do pigeons fly? "Well," said Jarecki, "if the wind is high, they fly low. If winds are low, they fly high."

When they are not racing, Jarecki's pigeons are kept in the loft, but exercised twice a day—morning and evening. "They have to have exercise. Sometimes we take them out in the car, around Napa, so they can fly home."

Jarecki's pigeons come in blue checks, red checks and blue bars. "Young birds are like kids. They are stubborn. You have to train them day after day. When they come in from a race and land on the platform, I whistle and they go to the loft. Teaches them to come in fast."

DO THEY EVER get lost? Jarecki said "sometimes they come back about a day or two late on a race."

"Pigeons in England and Belgium," he said, "are like baseball in America. A boy gets two pigeons for his own. Here the kid gets a baseball bat or a glove. They make a big thing out of it over there. If they find a feather on the floor, they can tell what flight it is. Birds have 10 flights (rows) of feathers on their wings."

Flyers frown on eating pigeon. "That would be like breaking my arm," said Jarecki. "However, wives often like squab."

MRS. JARECKI said she is a pigeon widow.

"Talk about your golf widow. The birds go to places like Nevada and Utah. What do we do? We have to sit home and wait for them to come home."

Jarecki, who has been 10 years in the pigeon club, which has 15 members, said "I only raise them for racing—not for show. We have shows every season but I am not a show man. If I get a bird that flies, I'm satisfied."

CIVIL RIGHTS PROVE—

Party Platform Is Just So Much Honey

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 1961 civil rights policies of the Kennedy administration, now disclosed, spotlight what is wrong with U. S. political parties and with presidential platforms.

What is wrong with political parties and platforms? They are honey. They do not mean what they say, and they do not say what they mean. This is about equally true of both parties and their platforms.

The Democratic Party is in power, however, and the Democratic platform is in effect—or supposed to be. So, consider the prevailing situation:

INTRODUCED IN Congress last week by President Kennedy's accredited spokesmen were civil rights bills to make good on Democratic platform promises. These promises were written into the platform to win the Negro vote. They won the Negroes. So it might be said that these promises elected John F. Kennedy President of the United States.

The White House has disavowed these civil rights bills. The President will not seek their enactment at this session. It is fair to speculate on what Negro voters might have done on election day if this Kennedy policy had been as frankly stated during the campaign as it is stated now. They just might have voted against Candidate Kennedy or not voted at all. Either way, he would have been licked.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S conscience, however, can be reasonably clear under these circumstances. His conscience can be clear because the Democratic Platform is unclear. The Democratic platform promised to Negroes substantially whatever they could think of to ask. But it didn't say when. Any reader, barring only a careful reader, would be misled by the platform of an American political party.

This is notably true with respect to 1960 Democratic platform and, especially, with respect to its long discussion of civil rights. For example:

The Democratic platform said the attorney general should be empowered to file injunctions in federal courts against denials of civil rights; that there should be a Fair Employment Practices Commission.

The civil rights bills now introduced in Congress would make good on both of those propositions. The President will not support them this year, however. Instead, he is basing policy on other paragraphs of the civil rights plank which promised vigorous enforcement of the Civil Rights Acts of 1957 and 1960. Kennedy is most interested in assuring Negroes the right to vote.

IT MAY BE significant that this emphasis on voting rights agrees with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's civil rights ideas. However that may be, it is a fact that the Democrats in 1960 offered Negro voters a train load of civil rights promises, but will make good this year on only a car load of them.

The Democratic Party and platform are not unique in such political maneuvering. The 1960 Democratic platform, however, is the currently standout example of how the voters can be bamboozled in a presidential campaign. Both parties, but especially the Democrats seem to write platforms on this system:

If somebody wants it and it will get votes, put it in the platform.

We write you, as a member of the City Council, to set forth facts which might not otherwise be available prior to the council's May 15 meeting to consider the major issue.

On April 25, the City Planning Commission considered Henry Ghilotti's proposal to rezone his property in the Bret Harte area of the Coleman Addition. Over the vociferous protest of close-by residents, the planning commission saw fit to recommend that this property be rezoned from R-1 to R-2, B-2. We believe this action of the planning commission was not in the best interests of the orderly long-range development of San Rafael.

This property was zoned R-1 some years ago. The reasons for such zoning may not be altogether clear, but the development in this area has conformed to these restrictions and serves to re-enforce any original reasons for zoning the property R-1. This property lies in a single-family residential area, and it would appear to be improper to rezone it without showing a substantial reason. No such reason was shown at the planning commission meeting.

As we understand Mr. Ghilotti's attorney, they believe that R-2 development of this area would be good in and of itself since the area is now substantially undeveloped, even though surrounded by single family dwellings. We do not understand this argument, for there would appear to be no value in development for the sake of development. If there be any other value, it was not brought forth at the City Planning Commission meeting.

Any potential increase in taxes due to increased property assessments is overwhelmed by a number of other considerations.

First, there is considerable doubt whether over the long pull taxes would be increased by duplex development as opposed to single family dwelling development.

Second, there are substantial other undeveloped areas of San Rafael available for R-2 development . . .

Third, the present effort is merely the first step in Balkanizing the R-1 areas. If this process commences and continues in San Rafael, will any solid block R-1 areas remain? . . .

Fourth, although there was some suggestion that the density of population would not be increased in this area, this was not effectively demonstrated and, in fact, the reverse was tacitly conceded by Mr. Ghilotti's engineer.

In addition, there are substantial reasons for retaining the present zoning. The 202 persons who submitted the petition in opposition to the rezoning chose to make substantial investments in their homes, and we might add in the future of San Rafael, on the assumption that they would be entitled to maintain the area in its present zoning. Although we were all aware that zoning regulations could be changed, we would not have believed that this could happen without the showing of substantial necessity or other justification . . .

Thus, we come to the crux of the problem. Are Henry Ghilotti's plans for higher profits of greater community interest than the orderly development of our city? Are those of us who relied upon zoning restrictions to be frustrated? Are our investments to be made subject to a single man's desire for greater gain? . . . If our protests is ignored, can any group rest secure? You and the other members of the City Council must answer these questions . . .

Let Kids See True Nature

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This letter is in reply to Mrs. Carol Tobias' letter to you on "Why Dissection In Grammar School." From her comments it is quite apparent that she has never dissected anything more interesting than a frying chicken.

She asks what possible value these children can achieve from dissection when a walk through Muir Woods could reveal ALL the wonders of Nature. It is again quite evident that she is not aware of ALL the wonders of Nature, half of which are hidden inside these plants and animals.

What person who has a curiosity about Nature has not wondered about the intelligence of insects or other lower animals. Do they have a brain? How do they breathe? Do they have a circulatory system and blood like humans?

What could be more interesting than to find out how other forms of life manage to carry on life functions in entirely other ways than we do?

The complete answers to these questions, I can assure you, cannot be gained or, in fact, appreciated by looking at drawings of dissected animals, by words alone, or by a walk through Muir Woods. One's love of Nature can be greatly stimulated if one can discover for himself some of the HIDDEN marvels of Nature and not just the surface of Nature. Why give our growing children half truths?

It apparently never occurred to Mrs. Tobias that it is in these young years that the lifetime opinions, fears, interests, etc., are developed. Through these brief experiences with Nature, some of these children for the first time discover the wonderful world of science. Scientific methods unfold before them. They learn through dissection how to conduct careful observations and to draw intelligent conclusions from these observations.

But perhaps most important of all, they learn to appreciate and to understand these lower animals. No longer would they run in fright or turn in disgust from these creatures or kill them mercilessly on first contact. This can only lead to love of Nature in its true sense.

Mrs. Tobias would like the children of today to see Nature as she would like it to be and not what it truly is. If seeing Nature as it truly is is "twisting the minds of our little children," then I vote for another Scopes Trial.

1,700 Reasons A Girl's Dad Might Prefer That She Elope

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It is getting more expensive to get married . . . the average wedding today costs the bride or her dad nearly $1,700 . . . This includes $160 for the dress and $600 for a reception . . . But it doesn't cover the new $3.50 necktie the bridegroom buys for the ceremony, or the $400 spent on the honeymoon.

The most popular marrying age in this country, incidentally, has dropped to 18 for brides, 21 for men.

Down on the farm: The pig is smarter than he looks . . . a study made at Cornell University found the lowly grunter easily the most intelligent of all domestic animals.

How often do you use the phone? Most people make about 472 calls a year . . . teen-agers excepted of course.

Bees never pay any attention to traffic lights . . . they are blind to red and green colors . . . they live in a world of blues, purples and yellows.

Are you an imaginative sleeper. It is a fad now to buy odd-shaped beds and mattresses . . . they come shaped like a ship, a piano, or even like a heart.

Speaking of fears: If you put cotton in your ears and pull down the shades during a lightning storm, you have "karaunophobia" . . . if you are afraid to handle a knife or any sharp instrument, you have "aichmophobia."

Hail to our cows! If all the milk they produced last year were put in standard containers, the lineup would go around the globe 400 times.

Dice shooting is one of the world's oldest games . . . Sophocles wrote that a gent named Palamedes invented dice during the siege of Troy to help relieve the Greek troops of boredom . . . in the professional gambling palaces of Las Vegas today the longevity of a pair of dice is less than 30 minutes.

Signs of the times: In the window of a women's specialty shop: "We have everything for all girls—except tall men."

AMERICA may have more dieters than any other land, but it also has the world's largest sweet tooth . . . in 1960 it produced over three billion pounds of candy—2,000 varieties—gobbled up by the public at a cost of 1.2 billion dollars.

What's in a name? . . . A California beauty parlor for dogs is called—"The Clip Joint."

WISECRACK of the week: "True love often starts at a waterfall and ends over a leaky faucet."

It was Kin Hubbard who observed: "Success may go to one's head, but the stomach is where it gets in its worst work."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Harry Hershfield tells about a wealthy widow who boarded a taxicab and announced she was off for Europe. "Set me down as close to the ship as possible," she ordered. "My tootsies ache."

The driver worked his way directly alongside the liner just as a crane was lowered from the top deck. It gripped the cab and lifted it into the hold of the vessel before either the wealthy widow or the cabbie could say, "Foufel and Poufel."

"Be of good cheer," counseled this merry widow. "Now that I've gotten you into this pickle you can drive me through Europe. Keep the meter clicking. I'm loaded!"

So they drove all over the continent, and when they landed back in Gotham, the taxi tab came to about $9,000.

"Take me home now," the widow directed, "and I'll pay you in full."

"Where's home?" asked the cabbie.

"Flatbush," said the wealthy widow.

"Not on your life!" scowled the cabbie. "You never can get a fare back from there!"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

It's No Fun To Be The Wife Of A Pigeon Racer Either

The other day we were looking at the sky and suddenly realized the pigeons were gone.

They used to fly out from behind some oak trees in a flock, wild-like. The thing is, they were always there in the sky—security.

Checking with attorney and fellow pigeon watcher Leo Killion, we found the birds' owner had moved them to Terra Linda. We were told, "Call Walter Jarecki in Homestead. He knows pigeons."

Jarecki said, yes, he has about 30—all racing pigeons. In fact, they are right in the middle of racing season and 10 of his were to race Saturday. About 2,000 are gathered, in baskets, in the Bay Area, trucked to Winnemucca, Nev., and let fly. The first one in the club clocked back to the home loft wins.

JARECKI, A MEMBER of the Tamalpais Homing Pigeon Club, said it's 330 air miles to Winnemucca and it takes the pigeons about six hours to make it to Mill Valley. "They do about 45 miles per hour," he said.

"I always go down to the loft about one-half hour early in case they have tail winds." Hmnn, we said. Don't they rest?

"They can't rest," said Jarecki. "Then they're late."

Pigeons don't have names, they have numbers, said the pigeon man. The "old birds" (one year or older) are racing now. Jarecki has one bird 11 years old but said, "We usually retire a bird from racing when it is three or four years old."

JARECKI'S PIGEONS eat a formula of wheat, corn and other grains. They live in a loft with a lot of ventilation but no drafts. "Can't stand drafts . . . like humans," Jarecki said.

How high do pigeons fly? "Well," said Jarecki, "if the wind is high, they fly low. If winds are low, they fly high."

When they are not racing, Jarecki's pigeons are kept in the loft, but exercised twice a day—morning and evening. "They have to have exercise. Sometimes we take them out in the car, around Napa, so they can fly home."

Jarecki's pigeons come in blue checks, red checks and blue bars. "Young birds are like kids. They are stubborn. You have to train them day after day. When they come in from a race and land on the platform, I whistle and they go to the loft. Teaches them to come in fast."

DO THEY EVER get lost? Jarecki said "sometimes they come back about a day or two late on a race."

"Pigeons in England and Belgium," he said, "are like baseball in America. A boy gets two pigeons for his own. Here the kid gets a baseball bat or a glove. They make a big thing out of it over there. If they find a feather on the floor, they can tell what flight it is. Birds have 10 flights (rows) of feathers on their wings."

Flyers frown on eating pigeon. "That would be like breaking my arm," said Jarecki. "However, wives often like squab."

MRS. JARECKI said she is a pigeon widow.

"Talk about your golf widow. The birds go to places like Nevada and Utah. What do we do? We have to sit home and wait for them to come home."

Jarecki, who has been 10 years in the pigeon club, which has 15 members, said "I only raise them for racing—not for show. We have shows every season but I am not a show man. If I get a bird that flies, I'm satisfied."

CIVIL RIGHTS PROVE—

Party Platform Is Just So Much Honey

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 1961 civil rights policies of the Kennedy administration, now disclosed, spotlight what is wrong with U. S. political parties and with presidential platforms.

What is wrong with political parties and platforms? They are honey. They do not mean what they say, and they do not say what they mean. This is about equally true of both parties and their platforms.

The Democratic Party is in power, however, and the Democratic platform is in effect—or supposed to be. So, consider the prevailing situation:

INTRODUCED IN Congress last week by President Kennedy's accredited spokesmen were civil rights bills to make good on Democratic platform promises. These promises were written into the platform to win the Negro vote. They won the Negroes. So it might be said that these promises elected John F. Kennedy President of the United States.

The White House has disavowed these civil rights bills. The President will not seek their enactment at this session. It is fair to speculate on what Negro voters might have done on election day if this Kennedy policy had been as frankly stated during the campaign as it is stated now. They just might have voted against Candidate Kennedy or not voted at all. Either way, he would have been licked.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S conscience, however, can be reasonably clear under these circumstances. His conscience can be clear because the Democratic Platform is unclear. The Democratic platform promised to Negroes substantially whatever they could think of to ask. But it didn't say when. Any reader, barring only a careful reader, would be misled by the platform of an American political party.

This is notably true with respect to 1960 Democratic platform and, especially, with respect to its long discussion of civil rights. For example:

The Democratic platform said the attorney general should be empowered to file injunctions in federal courts against denials of civil rights; that there should be a Fair Employment Practices Commission.

The civil rights bills now introduced in Congress would make good on both of those propositions. The President will not support them this year, however. Instead, he is basing policy on other paragraphs of the civil rights plank which promised vigorous enforcement of the Civil Rights Acts of 1957 and 1960. Kennedy is most interested in assuring Negroes the right to vote.

IT MAY BE significant that this emphasis on voting rights agrees with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's civil rights ideas. However that may be, it is a fact that the Democrats in 1960 offered Negro voters a train load of civil rights promises, but will make good this year on only a car load of them.

The Democratic Party and platform are not unique in such political maneuvering. The 1960 Democratic platform, however, is the currently standout example of how the voters can be bamboozled in a presidential campaign. Both parties, but especially the Democrats seem to write platforms on this system:

If somebody wants it and it will get votes, put it in the platform.

BANK APPOINTMENT—L. J. (Les) Hendy of San Rafael was appointed this week to an executive post with the United California Bank. 'LIFE ADJUSTMENT'

Education Board, Parents To Meet

Dr. Joel H. Hildebrand, professor emeritus of chemistry at University of California and outspoken critic of some phases of California's public school system, will attend a meeting of parents with the San Rafael Board of Education tomorrow night.

Hildebrand will listen while parents and board discuss "life adjustment" courses and the "exploratory language" course in San Rafael schools, then give his evaluation of the parents' position, Mrs. Charles G. Strom of a protesting parent group announced today.

The meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. in the city schools board room at 215 Mission Avenue; but it appeared today the crowd may be too large for that room and force moving the meeting to San Rafael High School.

The parents last Tuesday night presented the board with a petition bearing 90 signatures, asking that freshman orientation, exploratory language and life adjustment courses be eliminated from the curriculum.

Life adjustment courses are set up to fulfill a requirement of the State Education Code that the schools teach "training for healthful living" and "morals and manners." Freshman orientation includes a short period of actual orientation, then driver education and the remainder of the year in a course in world geography. Exploratory language is described by the San Rafael schools as providing drill in English grammar and an introduction to several foreign languages. It is designed for students "not yet ready for a foreign language in the freshman year."

Mrs. Strom said today she has read the text used for freshman orientation and discovered that, among other things, it suggests that the high school freshman be allowed to stay out until 11:30 o'clock on Saturday nights.'

CORTE MADERA ANNOUNCES FIRE SEASON

Summer burning regulations went into effect today in Corte Madera.

The regulations, announced Fire Chief Frank Nelson, call for a permit for any outdoor burning, even with an incinerator, and limit hours for such burning to 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Permits may be obtained at the Corte Madera Fire Department.

Greenbrae Doctor Reported In Line For Health Job

Dr. Donald C. Wallace of Greenbrae today was reported in line for the job of heading the San Francisco Health Department's dental bureau.

The job, which pays $1,154 a month, was vacated when Dr. Robert Grosso, 66, its head for 35 years, resigned last week at insistence of Health Director Ellis Sox, who said he needed a younger man to head the bureau. Sox said he sought to have the bureau reorganized to work closely with the U.S. Public Health Service on evaluating San Francisco's seven-year-old water fluoridation program, among other things.

Doctor Wallace, who is in his mid-30s, gave up private practice of dentistry in San Anselmo about a year ago and is now a dentist at Deuel Vocational Institute in Tracy. His home is at 380 Vista Grande, Greenbrae.

Appointment to the new job is expected next week.

Chicago's Managerial System Target For Plenty Of Jokes

HANLEY

Vedie Himsl, Chicago's current head coach whose name sounds like it was composed from left over pieces in a scrabble game, brought the Cubs into Candlestick Park today for a three-game set with Alvin Dark's Giants.

There have been many jokes this season about the way Phil Wrigley has been platooning his managers. None was better than Charlie Dressen's crack.

"They ain't going to platoon 'em against me," said the manager of the Braves who just vacated Candlestick. "I've read the rules. What do they say? Read 'em yourself but the situation is covered there. One guy's not going to come running out to talk to his pitcher and then another guy, or one complain about this situation and another about the next decision.

"No, sir. The fellow who brings the starting lineup out to the umpires at home plate when I do is the fellow who's gonna run the club when they are playing Milwaukee.

"SO THEY'RE coaches and have no manager. The rules cover the number of coaches they can have, too. Only one guy's going to run their club against us. I got enough trouble figuring out what one fellow is thinking, let alone a brain trust."

A few weeks ago when Harry Craft was appointed Chicago's head coach, his appointment was announced as "indefinite." Lois Wille, a competent feature writer of the Chicago Daily News, called on Annelle Craft to determine what her idea of "indefinite" was.

"As for how long it will last," Mrs. Craft told Miss Wille, "you know as well as Harry or I do."

MRS. CRAFT, however, was under no illusions. She had barely unpacked her suitcases, explaining "it will be easy for us to pick up and go—and who knows, we may have to, at any time."

But she wasn't complaining. She loves baseball and the traveling.

"I wouldn't know what to do if I had to get dinner at six every night. Sometimes we eat early, sometimes it's midnight."

Harry Craft knows he is a lucky man to have such a wife although it took him a long while to pop the question. The Crafts were married only 18 months ago — after a 10-year courtship.

A petite, Texas-born gal, Mrs. Craft is 34. She was working as a secretary in San Antonio and attending almost every game of the San Antonio Missions when she met the team's young star pitcher and his wife —Bob and Dolly Turley.

One evening the Turleys introduced her to the tall, handsome manager of the visiting Beaumont team—Harry Craft.

SINCE ANNELLE and Harry both were raised in tiny Texas towns, loved baseball and fishing, they had a lot to talk about. And Annelle doesn't mind it one bit being back in San Antonio now where Craft, displaced by Himsl, is managing the Cub farm team.

"I wouldn't mind it one bit if Harry were sent back there," she said at the time her husband got his indefinite appointment. "After all, I lived there for years."

So, at least in one instance, the constant shifting of Cub head coaches is no family problem.

Rookies, Veterans Share Giants' Glory

The rookies play like veterans and the veterans hustle like rookies but Manager Alvin Dark refuses to take any credit for the San Francisco Giants' early success.

"Shucks," says Dark, "I'm not doing anything that any other manager couldn't do."

Dark, 38, in his rookie season as a manager, is modest. but his Giants, sitting atop the National League, are playing their hearts out for him.

They did it again yesterday at Candlestick Park, pulling out an 8-7 victory over Milwaukee in the ninth inning. Coupled with the Giants' 8-5 win Saturday, it gave San Francisco the series 2-1 and marked the fourth victory in six meetings with the Braves.

"It's not me," Dark insists. "Harvey Kuenn got a wonderful pinch hit. Jim Duffalo did a real good job and so did Bob Bolin. Willie Mays does something that helps you win every day. He caught a ball today that should have been a triple."

Mays knocked in six runs with two homers Saturday but didn't get a hit yesterday. But he raced from left center field to the right center field fence for a grab that robbed Frank Thomas and left 34,239 Mother's Day fans breathless.

"Everybody is playing just wonderful," Mays said. "The manager is doing a fine job."

Duffalo and Bolin, a pair of fast ball flinging rookie right-handers, gave up just one run over the final 4⅔ innings. Bolin overcame momentary wildness when he relieved Billy Loes in the fifth and then retired five batters in order.

Duffalo worked the final three frames. He gave up a home run to Lee Maye in the ninth that tied the score at 7-7 but he won the game in the last of the ninth.

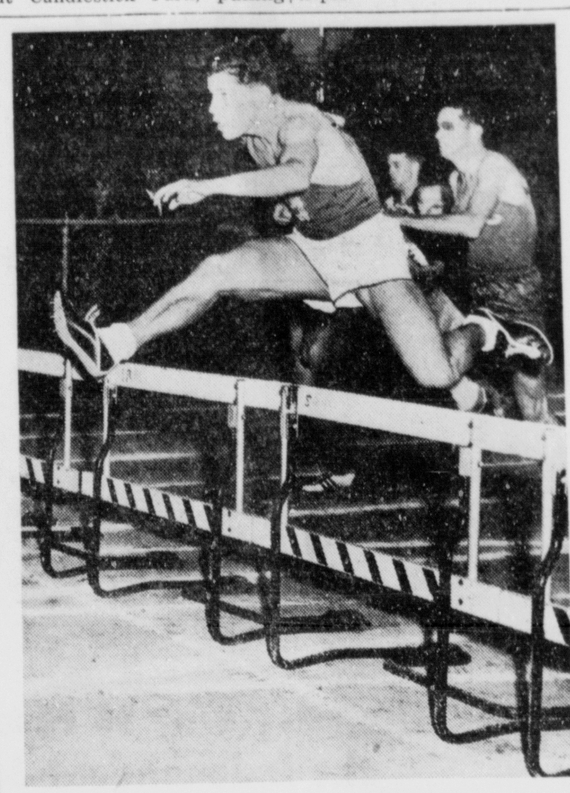

Orlando Cepeda opened the ninth with a grounder that shortstop Roy McMillan fumbled. Felipe Alou bunted Cepeda to second and Ed Bailey was walked intentionally. But Ron Piche, the Braves' fourth pitcher, then walked Joe Pagan and Matty Alou, forcing Cepeda home with the winning run.

The made rookie Duffalo's record 3-0.

"I never dreamed I'd get to pitch so much," he said. "Alvin's been wonderful to me." Duffalo has been in nine of the Giants' 26 games.

The Giants got some fine clouting too. Cepeda's seventh homer of the season, a 420-foot shot, scored three runs in the first inning. Jim Davenport's second homer of the season meant two runs in the fourth. The Giants got another pair in the sixth on singles by Ed Bailey, Jose Pagan, Kuenn and Charlie Hiller.

The Braves, meanwhile, had a two-run homer from Ed Mathews, his third home run of the series and the 13th straight game in which he's hit safely. They got four in the fifth, chasing Loes with three hits and a walk.

UPSET OF YEAR — Drake High sophomore Dave Miller leads Marin Catholic's previously undefeated ace Rich Ongaro over the 180-yard low hurdles en route to startling upset in Friday night's Marin Athletic League's track and field finals. Miller was clocked at 20.6 seconds. Ongaro won the high hurdles as expected.

ANOTHER UPSET—Novato's Jim Sewell (right) outruns Tam's Paul Warne to the tape in the 440-yard run in time of 52.2 seconds. San Rafael's Mike Shafer, favored in the event, was a disappointing third. San Rafael, however, came through to win the championship in all three divisions. (Jim Kean photos)

PREP OF THE WEEK—Dennis Nickel (above) of San Rafael High's championship track and field team today was named Marin Athletic League's "Prep of the Week" for winning the shot put and discus Friday night in the league finals. His 49 foot, 4¼-inch shot put was a league record. He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

Unheralded Vaulter Clinches Track Title For San Rafael

Chip Kern, an unheralded junior pole vaulter, was the toast of San Rafael High School today following his heroics Saturday that gave the Bulldogs the Class A championship in the Marin County Athletic League track and field finals.

The pole vault was postponed from Friday night because of darkness, and San Rafael needed seven points in the event to overcome Tamalpais which had taken a 38½ to 31½ lead in the completed competition Friday night.

So, from out of nowhere came slender Bulldog Chip Kern to tie teammate Don Shanks for first place and give San Rafael eight points to barely edge out Tam, 39½ to 38½.

Shanks, a steady winner all year at 11 feet, was favored in the event, but Kern was listed as questionable. His best previous mark this season was 10 feet 6 inches, but Saturday he carried the hopes of the entire Bulldog squad on his shoulders as he cleared 11 feet with Shanks for the championship.

Drake's Galetti placed third at 10-6. Three tied for the other points—McElroy of Novato, Lundahl of Tam and Cain of Drake.

The dramatic Class A championship gave San Rafael a sweep of all three divisions. The Bulldogs upset favored Tam in Class B Friday night while the favored Class C San Rafael team came through as expected with its title.

San Rafael Coach Bill O'Bailey said the three-division sweep was the result "of tremendous overall team effort and desire."

He said of young Chip Kern: "Well, he came through for us when the chips were down. He's the toast of San Rafael High School today."

Brash Rookies Star In 500-Mile Tuneup

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Brash newcomers have taken the place of four veterans killed since starting in the 1960 Memorial Day auto race.

There were six rookies among the 27 drivers who made 10-mile qualifying runs over the weekend for the golden anniversary 500-miler May 30.

Parnelli Jones, of Torrance, Calif., almost unbeatable on the midwest high bank tracks last season, was fastest of the firsttime qualifiers at 146.033 miles an hour.

Jack Brabham of Australia, defending world road racing champion and a champion intercontinental commuter, was second best of the "rookies" at 145.144 in a tiny English Cooper Climax.

Jones is 27 and Barbham 35. The other first-time qualifiers are A. J. Shepherd, 32, Gardena, Calif.; Ebb Rose, 36, Houston, Tex.; Bob Cleberg, 32, Tucson, Ariz., and Norm Hall, 34, Los Angeles.

They'll be at a definite disadvantage against 21 other qualified drivers who have averaged five Memorial Day starts.

Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., only 33 but veteran of four speedway starts, won the pole position in Saturday's opening session at 147.481 miles an hour in a Dean Special.

Last year's starters missing from the scene are Tony Bettenhausen, killed Friday when a bolt snapped in a car he was testing; Jimmy Bryan, the 1958 winner; Al Herman and Johnny Thomson. The last three were killed on other tracks.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Pancho Gonzales is the champion of Jack Kramer's touring professional tennis players.

He captured the title yesterday by winning his 15th match from Andres Gimeno of Spain, 12-10.

Gonzales pocketed $35,000 for his victory. Gimeno won $25,000 for second place.

Still contending for third ($20,000) and fourth ($15,000) are Barry MacKay and Australia's Frank Sedgman.

M.V. Women Golfers Win North Bay Honors

Four Mill Valley women were among winners in the North Bay Women's Golf Assn. tournament at Santa Rosa Golf and Country Club Friday.

They were Mrs. Clay Lilleston who placed third in Class B with a 104-21—83; Mrs. A. E. Poarch and Mrs. Fred Fellows who tied for third place with 106-23—83 cards in Class C and Mrs. John Kobil, first in Class D with 103-25—78.

At the Mill Valley course a "Three Little Pigs" tournament was played:

Class A—Mrs. George Prydz 45½, Mrs. B. R. Wilkie, 47½.

Class B—Mrs. Victor Verdellet, 45 1/6; Mrs. B. M. Brown 46.

Mrs. Bruno Maraccini won novice group with 124-41—83

Marin Dragster Sweeps Honors

A Marin County dragster collected a handful of honors in racing at northern California drag stripes over the weekend.

The Cash Auto Special, owned by Wally Allred of Ignacio and Mike Belknap of San Rafael, swept three honors Saturday night at the Kingdom Drag Strip near Lodi and bagged two more yesterday at Half Moon Bay.

The car won top time, low elapsed time and top eliminator at Kingdom and top time and low elapsed time at Half Moon Bay. Allred is the driver and Belknap the chief mechanic.

S.A. Runner Sets Record In Two-Mile

Doug Ketron of San Anselmo, a sophomore at University of Nevada, had his name etched in the Far Western Conference athletic record books Saturday by smashing to smithereens the conference record for the two-mile run.

Chased by a strong field, Ketron covered the distance in 9 minutes, 14 seconds in the conference finals at Davis. The former record was 9:37. He won by about 20 yards over his nearest contender.

Ketron, a graduate of Drake, hopes to bag more honors next weekend at the NCAA Small College section meet at Fresno where he will enter the three-mile competition rather than the two-miler.

MARIN 'LIFTER WINS WESTERN REGION TITLE

Marin County's leading weightlifter, Carroll Varner of San Rafael, captured the 1961 Western Division of the Junior National Weightlifting Championships at Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday night for the second consecutive year.

Varner managed a combined total lift of 745 pounds, some 30 pounds below his previous best, but still good enough to beat the tough competition from western states. He was the only northern Californian to win a first place.

Varner's next competition will be June 23 at Santa Monica in the Senior National Championships. He is one of three northern California men who have made qualifying totals.

Saturday marked Varner's 13th straight win in the three-Olympic-lift competition. And for the second straight year he has won all the official championships for the western United States, including the Northern California, State and Pacific Coast titles.

FRONT AND CENTER

Relievers Steal Big League Show

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

They call the bullpen the back room of baseball, but three of the men who toil there—Jim Coates, Jim Duffalo and Frank Funk—richly deserve to move front and center today.

Each of the three right-handers came through nobly yesterday on a day when relief pitching in the majors generally overshadowed everything else.

Coates gained credit for both ends of a double-header which the New York Yankees swept from the first-place Detroit Tigers, 5-4, in 11 innings and 8-6.

Duffalo, the rookie reliever of the San Francisco Giants, won his third game without a defeat in an 8-7 victory over the Milwaukee Braves that widened the Giants' lead in the National League to a full game.

And Funk, another rookie, pitched seven scoreless relief innings against the Baltimore Orioles to help Cleveland win a 15-inning opener, 1-0, after which the Indians made it a sweep by also taking the nightcap, 6-4.

The new Washington Senators swept the first double-header in their brief history, 3-0 and 2-1, from the Boston Red Sox, and the Minnesota Twins downed the Los Angeles Angels, 4-3. The Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 6-1, but lost the nightcap, 5-3.

DODGERS BOW

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs snapped an eight-game losing streak with an 11-inning 10-8 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers; the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, and the Philadelphia Phlies beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-4.

Coates, now 3-2, hurled a total of six innings for the Yanks in their two games with the Tigers. He picked up his first victory of the day by holding Detroit hitless in the 11th inning of the opener which was decided by Yogi Berra's pinch single with the bases full off reliever Hank Aguirre.

In the nightcap, Coates checked the Tigers on two hits and one run over the last five innings after taking over for starter Ralph Terry. Bob Cerv and Bill Skowron homered for the Yankees in the opener while Rocky Colavito, Dick Brown and Charlie Maxwell connected for the Tigers in the finale.

Duffalo gave up one run in the last three innings, a homer by Lee Maye of the Braves in the ninth. The blow tied the score at 7-7 but the Giants won the game in the bottom of the frame when loser Ron Piche walked pinch hitter Matty Alou with the bases loaded. Orlando Cepeda, Eddie Mathews and Jim Davenport hit homers.

The Cubs, trailing the Dodgers 8-4 after seven innings, fashioned their winning rally in the 11th on three singles and a sacrifice fly. Dick Farrell, who relieved starter Don Drysdale, was charged with the loss. Don Elston won his fifth game against one defeat by limiting the Dodgers to one hit over the last four innings. Seven homers were hit in the game. Norm Larker, Charlie Neal, Tommy Davis, Drysdale and Ron Fairly connected for the Dodgers, and George Altman and Sammy Taylor for the Cubs.

FRIEND ROUTED

Frank Robinson hit his seventh and eighth homers of the season to lead the Reds to their victory over Bob Friend of the Pirates. Robinson hit his first homer off Friend and his second one off reliever Elroy Face. Rookie Ken Hunt (3-1) was the winner with help from Jim Brosnan in the seventh. Bill Mazeroski homered for the Pirates.

The Phillies broke a 4-4 tie with two runs off loser Lindy McDaniel in the eighth. Clay Dalrymple singled home the tie-breaking run and pinch hitter Lee Walls singled home an insurance run. Reliever Chris Short was the winner in relief of Dallas Green. Larry Jackson started for the Cards but was replaced by McDaniel in the eighth.

Novato Completes Unbeaten Season In League Golf

Coach Jerry Barnacle's undefeated Novato High School golf team completed the Marin Athletic League schedule Friday with a 6-0 victory over Drake—the Hornets' 10th consecutive triumph.

Fred O'Bannon and Bob McBride with identical cards of 39 led the way. Other Novato victors were Barry Hachmyer, Rob Schultz, Al Walters and Bob Sparrow.

The matches were played at Indian Valley course in Novato.

HANLEY

Vedie Himsl, Chicago's current head coach whose name sounds like it was composed from left over pieces in a scrabble game, brought the Cubs into Candlestick Park today for a three-game set with Alvin Dark's Giants.

There have been many jokes this season about the way Phil Wrigley has been platooning his managers. None was better than Charlie Dressen's crack.

"They ain't going to platoon 'em against me," said the manager of the Braves who just vacated Candlestick. "I've read the rules. What do they say? Read 'em yourself but the situation is covered there. One guy's not going to come running out to talk to his pitcher and then another guy, or one complain about this situation and another about the next decision.

"No, sir. The fellow who brings the starting lineup out to the umpires at home plate when I do is the fellow who's gonna run the club when they are playing Milwaukee.

"SO THEY'RE coaches and have no manager. The rules cover the number of coaches they can have, too. Only one guy's going to run their club against us. I got enough trouble figuring out what one fellow is thinking, let alone a brain trust."

A few weeks ago when Harry Craft was appointed Chicago's head coach, his appointment was announced as "indefinite." Lois Wille, a competent feature writer of the Chicago Daily News, called on Annelle Craft to determine what her idea of "indefinite" was.

"As for how long it will last," Mrs. Craft told Miss Wille, "you know as well as Harry or I do."

MRS. CRAFT, however, was under no illusions. She had barely unpacked her suitcases, explaining "it will be easy for us to pick up and go—and who knows, we may have to, at any time."

But she wasn't complaining. She loves baseball and the traveling.

"I wouldn't know what to do if I had to get dinner at six every night. Sometimes we eat early, sometimes it's midnight."

Harry Craft knows he is a lucky man to have such a wife although it took him a long while to pop the question. The Crafts were married only 18 months ago — after a 10-year courtship.

A petite, Texas-born gal, Mrs. Craft is 34. She was working as a secretary in San Antonio and attending almost every game of the San Antonio Missions when she met the team's young star pitcher and his wife —Bob and Dolly Turley.

Pancho Pockets Title And $35,000

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Pancho Gonzales is the champion of Jack Kramer's touring professional tennis players.

He captured the title yesterday by winning his 15th match from Andres Gimeno of Spain, 12-10.

Gonzales pocketed $35,000 for his victory. Gimeno won $25,000 for second place.

Still contending for third ($20,000) and fourth ($15,000) are Barry MacKay and Australia's Frank Sedgman.

M.V. Women Golfers Win North Bay Honors

Four Mill Valley women were among winners in the North Bay Women's Golf Assn. tournament at Santa Rosa Golf and Country Club Friday.

They were Mrs. Clay Lilleston who placed third in Class B with a 104-21—83; Mrs. A. E. Poarch and Mrs. Fred Fellows who tied for third place with 106-23—83 cards in Class C and Mrs. John Kobil, first in Class D with 103-25—78.

At the Mill Valley course a "Three Little Pigs" tournament was played:

Class A—Mrs. George Prydz 45½, Mrs. B. R. Wilkie, 47½.

Class B—Mrs. Victor Verdellet, 45 1/6; Mrs. B. M. Brown 46.

Mrs. Bruno Maraccini won novice group with 124-41—83

Marin Dragster Sweeps Honors

A Marin County dragster collected a handful of honors in racing at northern California drag stripes over the weekend.

The Cash Auto Special, owned by Wally Allred of Ignacio and Mike Belknap of San Rafael, swept three honors Saturday night at the Kingdom Drag Strip near Lodi and bagged two more yesterday at Half Moon Bay.

The car won top time, low elapsed time and top eliminator at Kingdom and top time and low elapsed time at Half Moon Bay. Allred is the driver and Belknap the chief mechanic.

S.A. Runner Sets Record In Two-Mile

Doug Ketron of San Anselmo, a sophomore at University of Nevada, had his name etched in the Far Western Conference athletic record books Saturday by smashing to smithereens the conference record for the two-mile run.

Chased by a strong field, Ketron covered the distance in 9 minutes, 14 seconds in the conference finals at Davis. The former record was 9:37. He won by about 20 yards over his nearest contender.

Ketron, a graduate of Drake, hopes to bag more honors next weekend at the NCAA Small College section meet at Fresno where he will enter the three-mile competition rather than the two-miler.

MARIN 'LIFTER WINS WESTERN REGION TITLE

Marin County's leading weightlifter, Carroll Varner of San Rafael, captured the 1961 Western Division of the Junior National Weightlifting Championships at Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday night for the second consecutive year.

Varner managed a combined total lift of 745 pounds, some 30 pounds below his previous best, but still good enough to beat the tough competition from western states. He was the only northern Californian to win a first place.

Varner's next competition will be June 23 at Santa Monica in the Senior National Championships. He is one of three northern California men who have made qualifying totals.

Saturday marked Varner's 13th straight win in the three-Olympic-lift competition. And for the second straight year he has won all the official championships for the western United States, including the Northern California, State and Pacific Coast titles.

FRONT AND CENTER

Relievers Steal Big League Show

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

They call the bullpen the back room of baseball, but three of the men who toil there—Jim Coates, Jim Duffalo and Frank Funk—richly deserve to move front and center today.

Each of the three right-handers came through nobly yesterday on a day when relief pitching in the majors generally overshadowed everything else.

Coates gained credit for both ends of a double-header which the New York Yankees swept from the first-place Detroit Tigers, 5-4, in 11 innings and 8-6.

Duffalo, the rookie reliever of the San Francisco Giants, won his third game without a defeat in an 8-7 victory over the Milwaukee Braves that widened the Giants' lead in the National League to a full game.

And Funk, another rookie, pitched seven scoreless relief innings against the Baltimore Orioles to help Cleveland win a 15-inning opener, 1-0, after which the Indians made it a sweep by also taking the nightcap, 6-4.

The new Washington Senators swept the first double-header in their brief history, 3-0 and 2-1, from the Boston Red Sox, and the Minnesota Twins downed the Los Angeles Angels, 4-3. The Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 6-1, but lost the nightcap, 5-3.

DODGERS BOW

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs snapped an eight-game losing streak with an 11-inning 10-8 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers; the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, and the Philadelphia Phlies beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-4.

Coates, now 3-2, hurled a total of six innings for the Yanks in their two games with the Tigers. He picked up his first victory of the day by holding Detroit hitless in the 11th inning of the opener which was decided by Yogi Berra's pinch single with the bases full off reliever Hank Aguirre.

In the nightcap, Coates checked the Tigers on two hits and one run over the last five innings after taking over for starter Ralph Terry. Bob Cerv and Bill Skowron homered for the Yankees in the opener while Rocky Colavito, Dick Brown and Charlie Maxwell connected for the Tigers in the finale.

Duffalo gave up one run in the last three innings, a homer by Lee Maye of the Braves in the ninth. The blow tied the score at 7-7 but the Giants won the game in the bottom of the frame when loser Ron Piche walked pinch hitter Matty Alou with the bases loaded. Orlando Cepeda, Eddie Mathews and Jim Davenport hit homers.

The Cubs, trailing the Dodgers 8-4 after seven innings, fashioned their winning rally in the 11th on three singles and a sacrifice fly. Dick Farrell, who relieved starter Don Drysdale, was charged with the loss. Don Elston won his fifth game against one defeat by limiting the Dodgers to one hit over the last four innings. Seven homers were hit in the game. Norm Larker, Charlie Neal, Tommy Davis, Drysdale and Ron Fairly connected for the Dodgers, and George Altman and Sammy Taylor for the Cubs.

FRIEND ROUTED

Frank Robinson hit his seventh and eighth homers of the season to lead the Reds to their victory over Bob Friend of the Pirates. Robinson hit his first homer off Friend and his second one off reliever Elroy Face. Rookie Ken Hunt (3-1) was the winner with help from Jim Brosnan in the seventh. Bill Mazeroski homered for the Pirates.

The Phillies broke a 4-4 tie with two runs off loser Lindy McDaniel in the eighth. Clay Dalrymple singled home the tie-breaking run and pinch hitter Lee Walls singled home an insurance run. Reliever Chris Short was the winner in relief of Dallas Green. Larry Jackson started for the Cards but was replaced by McDaniel in the eighth.

Novato Completes Unbeaten Season In League Golf

Coach Jerry Barnacle's undefeated Novato High School golf team completed the Marin Athletic League schedule Friday with a 6-0 victory over Drake—the Hornets' 10th consecutive triumph.

Fred O'Bannon and Bob McPride with identical cards of 39 led the way. Other Novato victors were Barry Hachmyer, Rob Schultz, Al Walters and Bob Sparrow.

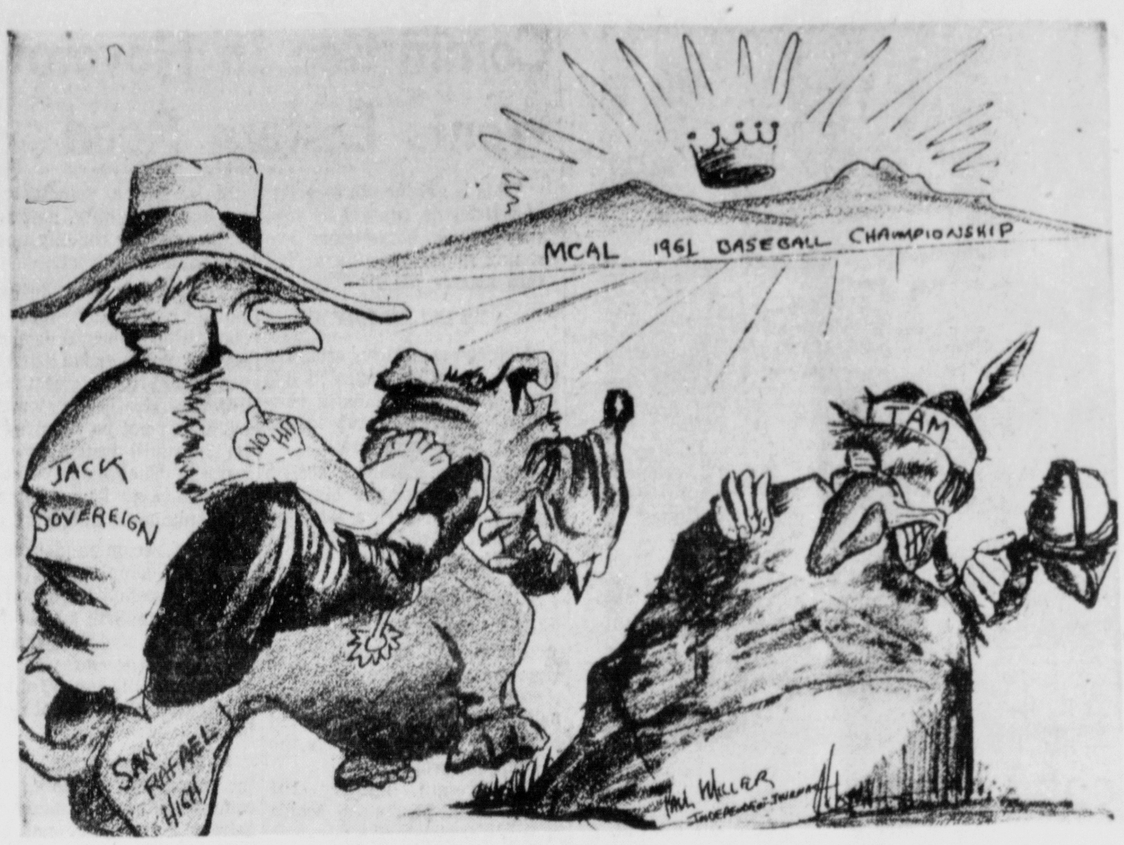

The matches were played at Indian Valley course in Novato.

INDIANS WAITING IN AMBUSH

San Rafael's Bulldogs and their ace righthander Jack "No Hit" Sovereign are riding toward the gold country of Marin high school baseball. But first they must pass through dangerous Indian territory. Tam-San Rafael Showdown For Marin Title Tomorrow

Big Game At M.V. Park; S.R. Win Would Cinch It

Marin Athletic League's exciting baseball race reaches the boiling point in Mill Valley tomorrow afternoon when the first place San Rafael Bulldogs take on the second place Tamalpais Indians.

A victory would clinch the undisputed championship for San Rafael which goes into the showdown with seven victories against only one setback. Tam has a 6-2 won-lost record and the Indians could pull into a tie for the leadership with a victory. The league ends Friday.

In their first meeting on the first half of the round-robin schedule San Rafael eked out a 7-6 victory in a wild and woolly game.

Tomorrow San Rafael Coach Jack Sims will start his ace righthander Jack Sovereign on the mound while Tam Coach Ray Bell is still undecided on his starter—Russ Adams or Fred Mack. Like Sovereign, Adams and Mack have a full week's rest.

LEADING PITCHER

Sovereign is the league's leading pitcher with a 5-0 record, a glittering 0.33 earned run average and 41 strikeouts in 26⅔ innings. He recently pitched the league's first no-hitter against Drake.

Tomorrow he'll be up against some mighty Tam sluggers, including Adams, Ed Collins, Harry Herr and Bill Hurley, to name a few. The game will be played at "Project 17" diamond in Mill Valley, 4 p.m.

Should Tam win, all sorts of confusion would develop, for the third place Drake Pirates would still have a chance to tie for the flag. Drake plays host to Novato tomorrow. In the other game on the agenda Marin Catholic and Redwood clash at Albert Park, San Rafael.

ORIENT SCORES BIG UPSET IN REGATTA

By ALFRED MATSON

Should the good folk of Paradise Cay, over on Marin's eastern shore, observe the developer of that residential spa, Tim Mosely, wearing a most beautific smile today it is not because a flock of lots had just been sold; no, Tim won a yacht race! Yesterday, in the final of the all-clubs regatta, Moseley took his big blue sloop Orient out of the ranks of the also-rans with a smashing victory in Cruising Club "A" division.

Right from the start he was crossing tacks with the usual pack leaders Bolero and Baruna. And on the long course down the Islais Creek buoy, Berkeley Shoal, Crissy and to the finish line, the Orient refused to play dead and won on corrected time by a mere 17 seconds over the surprising Santana, owned by Wally Nickells of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

While first to finish, the handicaps relegated the Bolero to third and Baruna fourth by a slim margin of 15 seconds. The Baruna again suffered an overdose of hard luck. Jim Michael, after rounding Crissy Buoy, got his kites up in jig time and the big black yawl soon put a lot of water between it and the rest of the fleet.

FLAT SPOT

But down in lower bay it ran into a flat spot and the crew dolefully watched as the other contenders worked their way, close inshore, toward the leeward mark.

The Baruna, in consequence, was sixth at the Berkeley Shoal Buoy and Michael, instead of heading back for the San Francisco shoreline, chose a course on the Marin side. As the times indicate, it paid off handsomely but not quite enough.

In Cruising Club "B," the Carina, owned by W. K. Chase, Stockton Sailing Club, was first of the 36 entries. Pat Kirrane, San Francisco Y.C., as usual, was in the money, getting second spot in the Andale with Chan Chrissman of the same club beating out Ted Schoonmaker of Sausalito in his bounty winsome, in a photo finish for third place.

Another noteworthy win was that of Dr. Anthony Souza in Class "C" with the sloop Nautical, beating out perennial winner Hank Easom's Serenade by two minutes, 26 seconds.

HUGE SUCCESS

The two-day classic was a huge success in the matter of participants, Saturday's class races might better be termed a "howling" success as the wind blew near hurricane force, dismasting six boats and causing others to withdraw on the theory that discretion is the better part of valor.

Saturday's cruiser race, despite the heavy winds and rough seas, was run off with most of the entries coming in with comparatively low margins of error.

In last Friday's column we may have put the whammy on San Rafael's Bon Vivant, Clyde Stevens, by forecasting a possible win for his Imp. The Sahiba, owned by Marshall Smith, St. Francis Y.C., won. The Imp? It finished second, out of 24 entries in Class "A" and that ain't bad, whammy or no.

BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

Billy Hughes Sets S.R. League Record

A record-smashing performance by diminutive southpaw Billy Hughes in the San Rafael Country Club Bowl's "725" Classic Foursome League highlighted last week's bowling sparklers in Marin County.

Hughes put together games of 252, 206 and 224 for a skyrocketing 682 series, a record for that classic league.

Some other fine performances were noted, including a 670 (246) by Phil Wallace, 621 (223) by Ed Posusney and 596 (206) by Forry Wilson.

Here are the highlights from around the county for the past week.

COUNTRY CLUB BOWL

BELL RINGERS TRIO — Mike LaTorre 625.

MORNING GLORIES—Val McCutchen 527, Rosemarie Watts 188.

JUNIORS—A junior-adult doubles tournament was conducted to conclude the program and the tandem of Flo Migliore-Marsha Pinney came up with a 1246 total, including handicap. Other leaders: Jeff Dunning-Jug Paul 1236, Charles Drago-Carlo Drago 1197, Mariann Prischmann-Kathy Prischmann 1191, Tim Cain-Keith Morris 1177, Carol Thompson-Willa Thompson 1174.

NAVE LANES

540 TRIO—This is the hottest league at Nave and last week's fire-works were provided by Willie Corda with a four-game set of 824, including 243 and 210. Lee Caplan had 804-232-223. Paul Gottlieb-773-214. Dick Treadway 756-221. In the field of 24 men, there were 16 "200" or better games.

NOVATO MERCHANTS—Liquor Mart beat Ray's Barbers for the league title.

NOVATO MAJORS — Bill Gerton, 563-203; Bill Wight, 552.

TUESDAY HANDICAP — Glenn Wilfeet 564-247, Jon House 552.

WEDNESDAY HANDICAP — D. Greenhagh 597-263 (Dig that game!).

TUESDAY MIXED DOUBLES—Joe Solimine 618-237, Addie Rush 498-180, B. Keeshon 554-220.

THURSDAY HANDICAP—Wiltshire Towers beat Giant Maintenance 3-1 in the title playoff.

500 TRIO—Mike Powers totalled 778 for four games, including 224 and 201. Sam Morigi 769-223-204, Bud Eckerly 754-209, Doug Solberg 750-210-202.

THURSDAY MIXED DOUBLES —"Cleanest League" in Marin as Brunner's Cleaners beat San Rafael Laundry in the championship playoff, thanks to Em Smith's 530 and Evalyn Kelly's 510.

WOMEN'S CLASSIC — Loxie Dowdy 713 (for games), Jackie Newsom 682-212, Virginia Moorhead 663-213, Varena Helbing 658, Eunice Sedler 657.

GREENBRAE LANES

Bimbo's 365 team won the championship of the Late Monday Night Mixed Fives in the winter league.

Bimbo's defeated Mill Valley Motors by only 117 pins in a closely fought battle for the league championship.

Members of Bimbo's team were Mac Glover, Lyle Shurtz, Craig Shurtz, Fredda Corbett and Lynn Glover.

For Mill Valley, Roger Friend, Ed Johnson, Alyce Dillsaver, Getta Oliver, and Bud Dillsaver.

League awards went to Alice Chapman for women's high series of 538; Alice Dillsaver for women's high individual game of 198; and for the men, Ed Johnson received a special trophy for capturing both the high series and high game—643-244. Duplicate awards went to Craig Shurtz for a high series of 584, and to Bob Arbini for a high game of 244.

Barbara Tannewitz received the women's most improved average award, going from 102 to 112, and John Kelly was given the men's most improved. Kelly gained 16 pins, going from 116 to 132.

HITS AND MISSES — Some beautiful performances, led by Dottie Rosso's 555-228, Jeanne Gaffney's 549-224 and Peggy McMurtry's 514. Marin Swimmers Take 14 Titles In Sub-NCS

Marin County athletes won eight first places in varsity and six in Class B Saturday in the sub-North Coast Section swimming and diving competition at Tamalpais High School's pool.

Redwood High's Dick Chambers and Tam's Rick Snow each bagged two first place medals. Chambers won the 400-yard freestyle in 4 minutes, 17.5 seconds and the 200 free in two minutes flat while Snow won the 100 butterfly in 58.9 seconds and the 200 individual medley in 2:22.5.

Other Marin winners in varsity were Jeff McCreary, Tam, 100 backstroke, 1:04.1; J. J. Rodrigo, Redwood, diving; Ken Frost, Redwood, 100 breaststroke, 1:06.8, and Tam's 200-yard freestyle relay team of Tony DePrado, Jack Mosher, McCreary and Scott at 1:39.9, their best time of the year.

Bellarmine High nosed out Tam by one point, 58-57 for team competition with Redwood third at 52. San Rafael had 22 points and Drake 17 in varsity.

In Class B Drake's talented Terry Politi chalked up a double victory with a 1:07.0 clocking in the 100 back and 1:07.6 in the individual medley.

Other Marin winners were Barry Levin, San Rafael, 50 butterfly, 28.2; Lawrence Herst, Redwood, 50 free, 25.9; Jim Detweiler, Drake, 100 breast, 1:16.7; San Rafael's 200 medley team of Tegeler, Manske, Levin and Toland in 2:01.0.

Class B team scores: Santa Rosa 65, Drake 64, Redwood 50, San Rafael 40 and Redwood 12.

SRMA Athletes Set Records In Track And Field

Three San Rafael Military Academy athletes broke records in Class B competition of the Bay Counties League track and field finals at San Rafael High School Saturday.

They were Bill Freeman with a shot put of 47 feet, 7½ inches, Glen Lee with a 10-6 pole vault and Clifford Lee with a 15.6 seconds clocking in the 150-yard dash.

Their performances led their Class B team to the championship with 63½ points, followed by California School for Deaf with 43, Menlo 25, Emery 7 and Lick-Wilmerding 3½.

San Rafael's Class C team also won the championship with 32 points, followed by Concordia 22, Emery 11, Lick-Wilmerding 1.

In Class A competition SRMA was third behind Menlo and and C. S. D.

INDIANS WAITING IN AMBUSH

San Rafael's Bulldogs and their ace righthander Jack "No Hit" Sovereign are riding toward the gold country of Marin high school baseball. But first they must pass through dangerous Indian territory. The Redman is poised for a surprise attack. There'll be a real dogfight tomorrow in Mill Valley. See story at right. (Cartoon by Paul Miller)

Tam-San Rafael Showdown For Marin Title Tomorrow

Big Game At M.V. Park; S.R. Win Would Cinch It

Marin Athletic League's exciting baseball race reaches the boiling point in Mill Valley tomorrow afternoon when the first place San Rafael Bulldogs take on the second place Tamalpais Indians.

A victory would clinch the undisputed championship for San Rafael which goes into the showdown with seven victories against only one setback. Tam has a 6-2 won-lost record and the Indians could pull into a tie for the leadership with a victory. The league ends Friday.

In their first meeting on the first half of the round-robin schedule San Rafael eked out a 7-6 victory in a wild and woolly game.

Tomorrow San Rafael Coach Jack Sims will start his ace righthander Jack Sovereign on the mound while Tam Coach Ray Bell is still undecided on his starter—Russ Adams or Fred Mack. Like Sovereign, Adams and Mack have a full week's rest.

LEADING PITCHER

Sovereign is the league's leading pitcher with a 5-0 record, a glittering 0.33 earned run average and 41 strikeouts in 26⅔ innings. He recently pitched the league's first no-hitter against Drake.

Tomorrow he'll be up against some mighty Tam sluggers, including Adams, Ed Collins, Harry Herr and Bill Hurley, to name a few. The game will be played at "Project 17" diamond in Mill Valley, 4 p.m.

Should Tam win, all sorts of confusion would develop, for the third place Drake Pirates would still have a chance to tie for the flag. Drake plays host to Novato tomorrow. In the other game on the agenda Marin Catholic and Redwood clash at Albert Park, San Rafael.

ORIENT SCORES BIG UPSET IN REGATTA

By ALFRED MATSON

Should the good folk of Paradise Cay, over on Marin's eastern shore, observe the developer of that residential spa, Tim Mosely, wearing a most beautific smile today it is not because a flock of lots had just been sold; no, Tim won a yacht race! Yesterday, in the final of the all-clubs regatta, Moseley took his big blue sloop Orient out of the ranks of the also-rans with a smashing victory in Cruising Club "A" division.

Right from the start he was crossing tacks with the usual pack leaders Bolero and Baruna. And on the long course down the Islais Creek buoy, Berkeley Shoal, Crissy and to the finish line, the Orient refused to play dead and won on corrected time by a mere 17 seconds over the surprising Santana, owned by Wally Nickells of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

While first to finish, the handicaps relegated the Bolero to third and Baruna fourth by a slim margin of 15 seconds. The Baruna again suffered an overdose of hard luck. Jim Michael, after rounding Crissy Buoy, got his kites up in jig time and the big black yawl soon put a lot of water between it and the rest of the fleet.

FLAT SPOT

But down in lower bay it ran into a flat spot and the crew dolefully watched as the other contenders worked their way, close inshore, toward the leeward mark.

The Baruna, in consequence, was sixth at the Berkeley Shoal Buoy and Michael, instead of heading back for the San Francisco shoreline, chose a course on the Marin side. As the times indicate, it paid off handsomely but not quite enough.

In Cruising Club "B," the Carina, owned by W. K. Chase, Stockton Sailing Club, was first of the 36 entries. Pat Kirrane, San Francisco Y.C., as usual, was in the money, getting second spot in the Andale with Chan Chrissman of the same club beating out Ted Schoonmaker of Sausalito in his bounty winsome, in a photo finish for third place.

Another noteworthy win was that of Dr. Anthony Souza in Class "C" with the sloop Nautical, beating out perennial winner Hank Easom's Serenade by two minutes, 26 seconds.

HUGE SUCCESS

The two-day classic was a huge success in the matter of participants. Saturday's class races might better be termed a "howling" success as the wind blew near hurricane force, dismasting six boats and causing others to withdraw on the theory that discretion is the better part of valor.

Saturday's cruiser race, despite the heavy winds and rough seas, was run off with most of the entries coming in with comparatively low margins of error.

In last Friday's column we may have put the whammy on San Rafael's Bon Vivant, Clyde Stevens, by forecasting a possible win for his Imp. The Sahiba, owned by Marshall Smith, St. Francis Y.C., won. The Imp? It finished second, out of 24 entries in Class "A" and that ain't bad, whammy or no.

BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

Billy Hughes Sets S.R. League Record

A record-smashing performance by diminutive southpaw Billy Hughes in the San Rafael Country Club Bowl's "725" Classic Foursome League highlighted last week's bowling sparklers in Marin County.

Hughes put together games of 252, 206 and 224 for a skyrocketing 682 series, a record for that classic league.

Some other fine performances were noted, including a 670 (246) by Phil Wallace, 621 (223) by Ed Posusney and 596 (206) by Forry Wilson.

Here are the highlights from around the county for the past week.

BELL RINGERS TRIO — Mike LaTorre 625.

MORNING GLORIES—Val McCutchen 527, Rosemarie Watts 188.

JUNIORS—A junior-adult doubles tournament was conducted to conclude the program and the tandem of Flo Migliore-Marsha Pinney came up with a 1246 total, including handicap. Other leaders: Jeff Dunning-Jug Paul 1236, Charles Drago-Carlo Drago 1197, Mariann Prischmann-Kathy Prischmann 1191, Tim Cain-Keith Morris 1177, Carol Thompson-Willa Thompson 1174.

NAVE LANES

540 TRIO—This is the hottest league at Nave and last week's fire-works were provided by Willie Corda with a four-game set of 824, including 243 and 210. Lee Caplan had 804-232-223. Paul Gottlieb-773-214. Dick Treadway 756-221. In the field of 24 men, there were 16 "200" or better games.

NOVATO MERCHANTS—Liquor Mart beat Ray's Barbers for the league title.

NOVATO MAJORS — Bill Gerton, 563-203; Bill Wight, 552.

TUESDAY HANDICAP — Glenn Wilfeet 564-247, Jon House 552.

WEDNESDAY HANDICAP — D. Greenhagh 597-263 (Dig that game!).

MONDAY HANDICAP — Marge Redshaw 519, Pat Bunds 481, Daisy Pagh, 457, Ruby Edmonds 456.

TUESDAY MIXED DOUBLES—Joe Solimine 618-237, Addie Rush 498-180, B. Keeshon 554-220.

THURSDAY HANDICAP—Wiltshire Towers beat Giant Maintenance 3-1 in the title playoff.

500 TRIO—Mike Powers totalled 778 for four games, including 224 and 201. Sam Morigi 769-223-204, Bud Eckerly 754-209, Doug Solberg 750-210-202.

THURSDAY MIXED DOUBLES—"Cleanest League" in Marin as Brunner's Cleaners beat San Rafael Laundry in the championship playoff, thanks to Em Smith's 530 and Evalyn Kelly's 510.

WOMEN'S CLASSIC — Loxie Dowdy 713 (for games), Jackie Newsom 682-212, Virginia Moorhead 663-213, Varena Helbing 658, Eunice Sedler 657.

GREENBRAE LANES

Bimbo's 365 team won the championship of the Late Monday Night Mixed Fives in the winter league.

Bimbo's defeated Mill Valley Motors by only 117 pins in a closely fought battle for the league championship.

Members of Bimbo's team were Mac Glover, Lyle Shurtz, Craig Shurtz, Fredda Corbett and Lynn Glover.

For Mill Valley, Roger Friend, Ed Johnson, Alyce Dillsaver, Getta Oliver, and Bud Dillsaver.

League awards went to Alice Chapman for women's high series of 538; Alice Dillsaver for women's high individual game of 198; and for the men, Ed Johnson received a special trophy for capturing both the high series and high game—643-244. Duplicate awards went to Craig Shurtz for a high series of 584, and to Bob Arbini for a high game of 244.

Barbara Tannewitz received the women's most improved average award, going from 102 to 112, and John Kelly was given the men's most improved. Kelly gained 16 pins, going from 116 to 132.

Tributes Arrive For Gary Cooper; Mass Tomorrow

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Tributes from all over the world arrived today at the home of Gary Cooper, who lost his four-month battle against cancer Saturday at the age of 60.

The message of sorrow spoke of a personal loss felt by friends of the late actor on and off the screen.

Rosary for the three-time Academy Award winner will be recited tonight.

Solemn Requiem Mass will be recited at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills. The eulogy will be read by Rev. Timothy Manning, auxiliary bishop of the Los Angeles archdiocese.

CLOSE FRIENDS

Six close friends, Henry Hathaway, William Goetz, Jimmy Stewart, Jack Benny, Charles K. Feldman and Jerry Wald, will serve as pallbearers at the burial at Holy Cross Cemetery in Inglewood.

Honorary pallbearers include author Ernest Hemingway, who is ill and will be unable to attend, John Wayne, Henry Ford II, Bing Crosby, Burt Lancaster, Dick Powell, Kirk Douglas and Danny Kaye.

Mrs. Cooper asked that contributions be made to the Sloan-Kettering Institute of Cancer Research in New York City in lieu of flowers.

Cooper's casket will be sealed because the family wants him to be remembered "as his friends saw him in life."

Fear that the ceremonies might turn into a circus has prompted Mrs. Cooper to appeal to the public to let her husband be laid to rest privately and in a dignified manner.

EXTRA POLICE

Extra police have been assigned to the funeral procession.

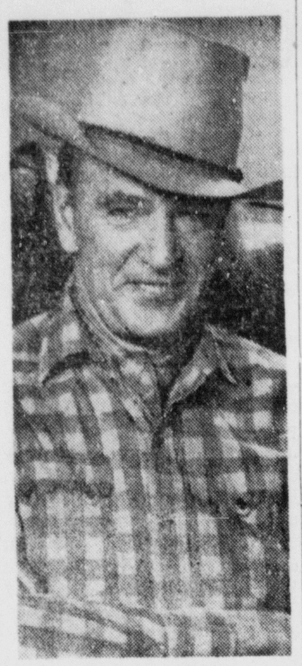

Ony persons having special cards will be admitted to the church, which seats about 500 persons. The services will be restricted to close friends and business associates.

Msgr. Daniel Sullivan, who administered the last rites to Cooper Friday, will sing the funeral mass. Father Henry J. Johnson will be the deacon and Father Harold Ford will serve as sub-deacon. The Rev. Ford gave Cooper his first communion after he was converted to Catholicism in 1959.

The actor had been only semi-conscious for two weeks and was visited only by his wife, daughter, Msgr. Sullivan and Dr. Rexford Kennamer.

"He had a great will to live, or he might not have survived this long," Dr. Kennamer said. Kennamer said Friday night that Cooper's death was only a matter of hours away and there was no hope for his life.

The doctors said, however, that Cooper never lost confidence he would beat the disease, even though the pain was almost unbearable. Two male nurses attended the actor through his ordeal.

GARY COOPER
Message of sorrow

The tall, lanky Montana native, born Frank Cooper, worked in the movies for 35 years and was one of the most beloved stars in the industry's history. He starred in such famous pictures as "Pride of the Yankees," "Sergeant York" (this role brought him his first Oscar in 1941), "For Whom the Bell Tolls," "Meet John Doe," "The Westerner" and "High Noon," which briught him his second Oscar.

People in Hollywood knew death was inevitable, but when death came it still shocked.

John Wayne said, "The world lost its most loved man today. It's going to be awfully sad not seeing old Coop unwind out of chair at Hollywood affairs. We're going to miss him."

Pope John XXIII cabled condolences to Cooper's family, and the message was forwarded by James Francis Cardinal McIntyre.

In London, Van Johnson mourned Cooper as "the last of the Hollywood gentlemen. I lost a great friend."

U-2 Pilot Won't Stay In Russia

POUND, Va. (UPI)—Imprisoned U-2 pilot Francis Powers has emphatically denied speculation he would remain in Russia after completion of his 10-year espionage sentence.

In a recent letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers, he wrote, "I do not intend to stay in the Soviet Union when I am released.

"I have never said to anyone that I intended to do so," he told his parents in the letter which they released yesterday.

A published account last month by a London newspaper said the former U.S. Air Force pilot convicted last summer of making high altitude flights over Russia, would stay in the Soviet Union when he gained his freedom.

"WILL RETURN"

The story also said Powers' wife, Mrs. Barbara Powers of Milledgeville, Ga., would join him there.

But Francis assured his parents that "I will return home, where I belong and want to be, as soon as I am released. Remaining here has never entered my mind."

His mother, in ill health for several months and just discharged from a hospital Friday, said, "I had always felt he wouldn't deliberately stay there of his own free will."

'ALL MADE UP'

His father, a shoe repairman in nearby Norton, said he "knew all along that it (the story) was all rumors and made up."

Francis wrote he was "proud to be" a U.S. citizen, adding "I might not like all the policies of the U.S. government, but I feel sure there are millions of people in the state who disagree with them also."

His father had sent a clipping of the story, and Francis replied, "You seemed worried that it was true even though in the article you said you did not believe it."

He told them "you can set your mind to rest on that account."

The ex-pilot also wrote the story seemed to imply that "for some reason I don't know, to tell the people that I have renounced my country. I would never do this."

Disc Jockey Convicted

NEW YORK (UPI) — Disc Jockey Peter Tripp was convicted today of having taken up to $35,000 in "payola" from record makers and distributors.

The technical charge of which Tripp was found guilty was commercial bribery.

A three-judge special sessions court found the disc jockey guilty of 35 of 39 counts that charged him with taking payola in exchange for playing the record-makers' selections on his local radio program.

The court fixed June 30 for sentencing. Tripp faces a maximum term of one year in jail and a fine of $500 on each count.

Tripp's attorney, Benjamin Shedler, asked the court to sentence his client today because of "economic difficulties" but the judges declined so they could have time to receive a report from the probation department.

4,000 Sit Atop Tamalpais To See 'Robin Hood' Play

Four thousand play goers sat in shirt sleeves and cotton dresses yesterday afternoon in the Cushing Memorial Amphitheater atop Mount Tamalpais to see the 44th annual mountain play "Robin Hood."

Many participants had picnics prior to the play and mothers were wearing bouquets for Mother's Day. The Temperature was a comfortable 75 degrees.

Little John, played by Michael O'Shaughnessy of San Rafael, was able to go on stage although his co-players were dubious about him prior to the play since he was injured with a bow in dress rehearsal Saturday.

O'Shaughnessy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Shaughnessy of 47 Bret Avenue, was tusseling with King Richard and was accidentally hit with a bow, cutting his cheek.

The play will be given again next Sunday at 2 p.m.

Coal seams were discovered in Johnson County, Ark., in 1840, and a year later the first boatload of coal was shipped to Little Rock.

Committee In Novato Wants Eastern Road

(This is another in a series of articles on reports by Novato citizen committees assisting in formulating a Novato master plan.)

By ELLEN BRY

A citizen committee studying streets and highways in Novato has come out in favor of relocation of highway 101 to the east of its present route.

Committee members set no specific route for the highway but concurred with a later report from county planners that the highway should be rerouted.

And if it is, said the committee, Elm and Mirabella streets should be extended to the present highway. Front street between Elm and Mirabella could then be converted to a civic parking lot, says the committee's report.

The present highway 101 should then become a scenic parkway through the city.

The committee is one of eight citizen groups advising the planning commission as it moves toward formation of a master plan.

Committee members also recommended that the bay area rapid transit plans provide for extension of the line to southern Novato, instead of the present planned terminus in Terra Linda.

The committee, after making myriads of suggestions on extension, widening, change of classification of city streets, came to the conclusion that "good planning for Novato requires the services of a full-time professional planner."

Bill D. Dobbs, principal planner for the county, now serves as planner for the city under a city-county contract.

The present street designs of Novato generally met with committee approval but members recommended that improvement of a street to its ultimate size on major thoroughfares not be required of a builder until traffic flow warrants it. They made no recommendation of how to guarantee compliance at a later date.

Other recommendations include the adoption of parallel parking, prohibition of parking of trucks, trailers and boats in residential streets overnight; parkways in the present advisory county master plan to be eliminated along Novato creek banks.

In areas under consideration for annexation to the city, the committee recommended that "street deficiencies not be a deterrent."

Committee members signing the report were J. Douglas McNeil, chairman, Mrs. C. N. Borgman, William J. Cartee, Mrs. Calvin Mellor, Robert Morley Jr., Lee Oberkamper and Robert C. Schoen.

NOT THE "Barber of Seville" but Mill Valley's own Tony Arrigo warbles a few notes for Mrs. Stanley Brooks, chairman of the Outdoor Art Club's "Barbershop Pops" scholarship benefit set for May 20 at the clubhouse.

Hadassah To Mark Milestone

Early in June—because of an American gift—the State of Israel will mark a milestone in its medical history. At that time, the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center will begin to function at Kiryat Hadassah, west of Jerusalem. This Medical Center was made possible by the contributions of more than 318,000 American women of Hadassah.

The new ultra-modern 17-building complex will be opened to people of all races, colors, and creeds. Its sole objective—to push back the frontiers of medical science for the maxium benefit of all people. It will benefit not only the people of Israel, but peoples of the newly-emerging nations of Africa.

At this time, the Marin chapter of Hadassah is engaged in a special effort—Operation MD—Operation Moving Day, to raise the special funds needed to help move the Hadassah facilities from Jerusalem to the new Medical Center in the ancient Judean Hills. To commemorate this occasion and to celebrate the installation of officers for the coming year, Marin Hadassah will convene at Bob's of Marin on Wednesday at noon.

Mrs. Sidney Rudy will be installed as president for her second term. Her executive board includes Mesdames Morris Bode, Daniel Chaffin, William Rubin, Harry Schriebman, and Fred Wellen, vice presidents; Philander Beadle, treasurer; Dan Jackson, recording secretary; J. Herscowitz, financial secretary; and David Sheldon, corresponding secretary.

'Barbershop Pops' Saturday For Mill Valley Art Club

Music, barbershop style, will fill the Outdoor Art Clubhouse Saturday evening, May 20, when the club stages a "Barbershop Pops" as a benefit for its scholarship fund.

General chairman Mrs. Stanley Brooks reports that three quartets in costume, two men's, the "Tenders of Note" and the "Frisco Knights," and one women's, the "Jazzabelles," will provide the entertainment and lead members and guests in community singing.

Tables will be set with red checked cloths and beer steins.

Mrs. Brooks is being assisted by Mrs. John Laurie, who planned the invitations received this week; Mesdames H. C. Kellers, Earl C. Marsh, Michael Amoroso and Samuel Seifert, who are planning decorations; and Mesdames Edmund Mahon and John V. Buckley, will be in charge of serving.

Reservations for the fun event starting at 8:30 p.m. are to be made by May 17 with Mrs. Samuel Bagshaw or Mrs. Edward Kemp.

PWP Will Meet Thursday Evening

The meeting of Parents Without Partners will be held Thursday, at 2160 Lake St., San Francisco at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Lawrence K. Whitfield who will speak on "Inner Resources within the Single Parent Home."

Parents Without Partners is a non-profit organization devoted to the interests of single parents and their children. Meetings are on the first and third Thursdays of each month. Newcomers are welcome.

Tamelpa Parlor Will Observe 36th Birthday

Plans were made for a 36th anniversary dinner on May 18, and grand parlor delegates were elected at the recent meeting of Mill Valley's Tamelpa Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse.

Reservations for the anniversary dinner at Dominic's in San Rafael are to be made with Mrs. George Martensen.

Delegates elected to represent the parlor at the 75th annual session of the grand parlor to be held in Oakland in June were Mesdames Fred Brusati and Eldora Clinton.

Serving refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting were Mesdames John De Carlo and James Stinchcomb.

Engagement Broken

By mutual agreement the engagement of Robert Petersen of San Rafael and Frances Pipes of Bend, Ore. has been broken.

First Hand Report On Red China Highlights Outdoor Art Lunch

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. A. P. Baukol was elected to succeed Mrs. Philip T. Smith as the 49th president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley at Thursday's home day luncheon meeting.

Other officers elected unanimously from a slate prepared by a nominating committee headed by Mrs. William Pemberton were Mesdames Edward Johnson, first vice president; William Searles, second vice president; Kenyoy Spalding, recording secretary; Robert Cook corresponding secretary; Ralph Martindale, business secretary; and E. M. Tobin, treasurer.

The directors chosen were Mesdames M. A. Leonis, finance chairman; John Giuliani, house; Blythe Adams, rentals; John Nahapiet, membership; Russell Mills, grounds; Gerhart Becker, community service; A. B. Goddard, ways and means; R. L. Iglehart, civics and conservation; Robert Graver, cultural arts; and Elvira Becker, publicity and historian.

For the program Dr. Shau Wing Chan talked on "The United States and Communistic China." Professor of Chinese Studies in the department of Asiatic and Slavic studies at Stanford University since 1938, Dr. Chan was able, because he is Chinese, to get into Red China and gather much information. He left for the Orient again the day after this speech.

Among highlights of his speech describing achievements, good and bad, of the Red Chinese government in the 12 years they have been in power were (1) Complete political unification of 650 to 680 million Chinese under an absolute government—here to stay—that is ruled by not more than 20 ruthless men (2) Leveling of wealth and tremendous investment in heavy industry (3) Destruction of social classes by killing 10 million people (4) Destruction of the family and filial piety with children spying on parents.

He said that when women were forced to get divorces during one period covering 1951-52 so that they could be made into factory workers, one half million committed suicide.

Other achievements he described were the complete collectivization of agriculture and building one of the most powerful military nations in history even before its imminent acquisition of atomic power status. They have a standing army of five million, 60 to 90 million reserves and 100 to 150 million militiamen, he said, and an air force that has five to eight thousand planes, mostly Russian jets.

One of the favorable accomplishments, he declared, was the reduction of illiteracy from 78 per cent to 20 per cent.

Dr. Chan warned against the wishful hoping for any possible rebellion among the masses, rupture between Red China and Russia and possibility of Chang Kai Check's return to power.

As for American recognition of Red China and admission to the United Nations, Chan predicted that next September when the U.N. convenes if the United States votes against it, it will be outvoted and lose face. The realities of the situation should be faced by the brain, he warned.

Other problems the speaker dealt with were the trade embargo, how General Marshall was deceived, Formosa, which he said the U.S. should do everything possible to keep from Red China and try to have turned over to the U.N. for a period of time, and the offshore islands that probably should belong to Red China in his opinion.

Points stressed by Dr. Chan in his conclusion were that the United States must (1) Not lose faith in its own institutions (2) Give foreign aid in a spirit of humanity and sacrifice, not as master to slave (3) Do everything in its power to recapture lost initiative and (4) Increase military preparedness if a worse "Pearl Harbor" is to be avoided.

Luncheon chairman Mrs. Robert Andresen was assisted by Mesdames Cecil Brown, John Coutlee, Fred Bullock, William Schwarzer and L. T. Kett, and decorations using roses, flowering eucalyptus and driftwood were done by Mesdames J. Paul Hurd and H. C. Kellers.

New members welcomed and presented with corsages by Mrs. Smith were Mesdames Albert Leonard Bjorkland, Gordon V. Reynolds and George R. Williams.

Greeting guests at the door were Mesdames Thorpe De Lasaux, Ernest Brymer and Mrs. Giuliani.

MRS. STAPP ON BRIGADE AIR TOUR

Mrs. S. C. Stapp, president of the Sausalito Woman's Club, has been accorded the honor of being a member of the "Operation Understanding Trip" arranged by the 40th Artillery Brigade. Chosen as a community leader with 11 other women from this area, Sally boarded a CV 47 plane at Hamilton Field on Tuesday morning for a five-day trip. Stops included inspection tours at Fort Bliss, Texas; White Sands, New Mexico, and the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, where a question and discussion period were held.

In addition to serving the Woman's Club of 300 members as its president for the past year, Sally has been Sausalito chairman for the Red Cross for six years, during which time she headed the Motor Corps for two years. She is a past president of Sausalito's erstwhile League of Women Voters and is currently a member of the Board of Directors for Marin Chapter, Pro America.

Davidson School Food, Fun Day Set Tomorrow

The Davidson School P-TA annual "Food 'n' Fun Day" will be held tomorrow at noon at the school.

A buffet luncheon will be served to students, teachers, and parents in the school gymnasium. Mesdames Albert Walz and Earl Dixon head the committee on food arrangements.

Luncheon will be followed by an all-student program. Boys and girls track events will be presented under the direction of Herbert Witt and Mrs. Josephine Smith of the physical education department. Mrs. Alverna Kavanaugh's drama class plans a play for students, and an assembly period, consisting of a talent show and dance contest finals, will be offered. An eighth grade student, Donna Kelly, is chairman of the assembly period committee.

Hadassah To Mark Milestone

Early in June—because of an American gift—the State of Israel will mark a milestone in its medical history. At that time, the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center will begin to function at Kiryat Hadassah, west of Jerusalem. This Medical Center was made possible by the contributions of more than 318,000 American women of Hadassah.

The new ultra-modern 17-building complex will be opened to people of all races, colors, and creeds. Its sole objective—to push back the frontiers of medical science for the maxium benefit of all people. It will benefit not only the people of Israel, but peoples of the newly-emerging nations of Africa.

At this time, the Marin chapter of Hadassah is engaged in a special effort—Operation MD—Operation Moving Day, to raise the special funds needed to help move the Hadassah facilities from Jerusalem to the new Medical Center in the ancient Judean Hills. To commemorate this occasion and to celebrate the installation of officers for the coming year, Marin Hadassah will convene at Bob's of Marin on Wednesday at noon.

Mrs. Sidney Rudy will be installed as president for her second term. Her executive board includes Mesdames Morris Bode, Daniel Chaffin, William Rubin, Harry Schriebman, and Fred Wellen, vice presidents; Philander Beadle, treasurer; Dan Jackson, recording secretary; J. Herscowitz, financial secretary; and David Sheldon, corresponding secretary.

'Barbershop Pops' Saturday For Mill Valley Art Club

Music, barbershop style, will fill the Outdoor Art Clubhouse Saturday evening, May 20, when the club stages a "Barbershop Pops" as a benefit for its scholarship fund.

General chairman Mrs. Stanley Brooks reports that three quartets in costume, two men's, the "Tenders of Note" and the "Frisco Knights," and one women's, the "Jazzabelles," will provide the entertainment and lead members and guests in community singing.

Tables will be set with red checked cloths and beer steins.

Mrs. Brooks is being assisted by Mrs. John Laurie, who planned the invitations received this week; Mesdames H. C. Kellers, Earl C. Marsh, Michael Amoroso and Samuel Seifert, who are planning decorations; and Mesdames Edmund Mahon and John V. Buckley, will be in charge of serving.

Reservations for the fun event starting at 8:30 p.m. are to be made by May 17 with Mrs. Samuel Bagshaw or Mrs. Edward Kemp.

PWP Will Meet Thursday Evening

The meeting of Parents Without Partners will be held Thursday, at 2160 Lake St., San Francisco at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Lawrence K. Whitfield who will speak on "Inner Resources within the Single Parent Home."

Parents Without Partners is a non-profit organization devoted to the interests of single parents and their children. Meetings are on the first and third Thursdays of each month. Newcomers are welcome.

Tamelpa Parlor Will Observe 36th Birthday

Plans were made for a 36th anniversary dinner on May 18, and grand parlor delegates were elected at the recent meeting of Mill Valley's Tamelpa Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse.

Reservations for the anniversary dinner at Dominic's in San Rafael are to be made with Mrs. George Martensen.

Delegates elected to represent the parlor at the 75th annual session of the grand parlor to be held in Oakland in June were Mesdames Fred Brusati and Eldora Clinton.

Serving refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting were Mesdames John De Carlo and James Stinchcomb.

Engagement Broken

By mutual agreement the engagement of Robert Petersen of San Rafael and Frances Pipes of Bend, Ore. has been broken.

First Hand Report On Red China Highlights Outdoor Art Lunch

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. A. P. Baukol was elected to succeed Mrs. Philip T. Smith as the 49th president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley at Thursday's home day luncheon meeting.

Other officers elected unanimously from a slate prepared by a nominating committee headed by Mrs. William Pemberton were Mesdames Edward Johnson, first vice president; William Searles, second vice president; Kenyoy Spalding, recording secretary; Robert Cook corresponding secretary; Ralph Martindale, business secretary; and E. M. Tobin, treasurer.

The directors chosen were Mesdames M. A. Leonis, finance chairman; John Giuliani, house; Blythe Adams, rentals; John Nahapiet, membership; Russell Mills, grounds; Gerhart Becker, community service; A. B. Goddard, ways and means; R. L. Iglehart, civics and conservation; Robert Graver, cultural arts; and Elvira Becker, publicity and historian.

For the program Dr. Shau Wing Chan talked on "The United States and Communistic China." Professor of Chinese Studies in the department of Asiatic and Slavic studies at Stanford University since 1938, Dr. Chan was able, because he is Chinese, to get into Red China and gather much information. He left for the Orient again the day after this speech.

Among highlights of his speech describing achievements, good and bad, of the Red Chinese government in the 12 years they have been in power were (1) Complete political unification of 650 to 680 million Chinese under an absolute government—here to stay—that is ruled by not more than 20 ruthless men (2) Leveling of wealth and tremendous investment in heavy industry (3) Destruction of social classes by killing 10 million people (4) Destruction of the family and filial piety with children spying on parents.

He said that when women were forced to get divorces during one period covering 1951-52 so that they could be made into factory workers, one half million committed suicide.

Other achievements he described were the complete collectivization of agriculture and building one of the most powerful military nations in history even before its imminent acquisition of atomic power status. They have a standing army of five million, 60 to 90 million reserves and 100 to 150 million militiamen, he said, and an air force that has five to eight thousand planes, mostly Russian jets.

One of the favorable accomplishments, he declared, was the reduction of illiteracy from 78 per cent to 20 per cent.

Dr. Chan warned against the wishful hoping for any possible rebellion among the masses, rupture between Red China and Russia and possibility of Chang Kai Check's return to power.

As for American recognition of Red China and admission to the United Nations, Chan predicted that next September when the U.N. convenes if the United States votes against it, it will be outvoted and lose face. The realities of the situation should be faced by the brain, he warned.

Other problems the speaker dealt with were the trade embargo, how General Marshall was deceived, Formosa, which he said the U.S. should do everything possible to keep from Red China and try to have turned over to the U.N. for a period of time, and the offshore islands that probably should belong to Red China in his opinion.

Points stressed by Dr. Chan in his conclusion were that the United States must (1) Not lose faith in its own institutions (2) Give foreign aid in a spirit of humanity and sacrifice, not as master to slave (3) Do everything in its power to recapture lost initiative and (4) Increase military preparedness if a worse "Pearl Harbor" is to be avoided.

Luncheon chairman Mrs. Robert Andresen was assisted by Mesdames Cecil Brown, John Coutlee, Fred Bullock, William Schwarzer and L. T. Kett, and decorations using roses, flowering eucalyptus and driftwood were done by Mesdames J. Paul Hurd and H. C. Kellers.

New members welcomed and presented with corsages by Mrs. Smith were Mesdames Albert Leonard Bjorkland, Gordon V. Reynolds and George R. Williams.

Greeting guests at the door were Mesdames Thorpe De Lasaux, Ernest Brymer and Mrs. Giuliani.

MRS. STAPP ON BRIGADE AIR TOUR

Mrs. S. C. Stapp, president of the Sausalito Woman's Club, has been accorded the honor of being a member of the "Operation Understanding Trip" arranged by the 40th Artillery Brigade. Chosen as a community leader with 11 other women from this area, Sally boarded a CV 47 plane at Hamilton Field on Tuesday morning for a five-day trip. Stops included inspection tours at Fort Bliss, Texas; White Sands, New Mexico, and the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, where a question and discussion period were held.

In addition to serving the Woman's Club of 300 members as its president for the past year, Sally has been Sausalito chairman for the Red Cross for six years, during which time she headed the Motor Corps for two years. She is a past president of Sausalito's erstwhile League of Women Voters and is currently a member of the Board of Directors for Marin Chapter, Pro America.

Garden Program For Sausalito Club

The final program of the club year will be presented at the Sausalito Woman's Club at 2:30 p. m. on Thursday, May 18 by the garden chairman, Mrs. Wint F. Saint.

The speaker will be Jim Kerr, known as the "Scotch Gardener" on his weekly TV program over KQED. His subject, "The Spring Garden in Sausalito", is one garnered from experience. Mr. Kerr lived in Sausalito during the early '30's and is aware of the problems, frustrations and joys of gardening in a hilly community.

Born in Scotland, Jim Kerr received his apprenticeship there and has been in the business of gardening for over 40 years. He now lives in San Mateo where he owns and manages the Garden Shop. The speaker's half hour weekly TV program is a public service and in addition, he has three radio programs weekly, the stations receiving over 2000 letters and questions each week from interested listeners.

Greeting members and their guests at the door will be Mesdames George R. Chapman and Charles P. Knaebel; at the reception desk, Mrs. L. S. M. Beckett with Mrs. Howard Hale in charge of the guest book.

New Ideas For Teaching Topic For Bel Aire Meeting

New ideas for teaching children, some now being used in the Reed School District, others like "teaching machines" still under study, will be discussed, displayed and shown on film at the Bel Aire School auditorium on Wednesday, May 17, at 8 p.m. The Bel Aire Unit of the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club is sponsoring the meeting.

Clarence Spencer, president of the Audio Visual Education Association of California, will tell and show how adding eye and ear appeal to learning helps in the retention of facts and ideas. Parents will see samples of filmstrips used in the district classrooms and become acquainted with proposed instructional materials planned for use in the foreign language program under consideration.

Spencer, who has been director of audio-visual education for Marin County for a number of years, is convinced that learning does not have to be a painful process. He has recently traveled around the state and the country following studies that are being made in TV teaching, programmed learning and teaching machines, recently discussed in national magazines.

He is the father of Leland Spencer, Reed School teacher.

George H. Gregg, Reed District director of curriculum materials, will explain why the Reed District is moving into some of these new fields at its present pace.

Officers for the Bel Aire Unit for the next year will be elected at the business meeting, according to Mrs. Robert Hamilton, unit president.

EMPLOYEES WORKSHOP SERIES

The first in a series of four educational programs for household employees will be given from 7 to 9 p.m., tomorrow at the Marin City lounge on "Employer-Employee Relationships."

Classes, limited to 10 persons on a first come, first served basis, are co-sponsored by the Marin Council of Community Services at Marin City and the Marin County Young Women's Christian Assn.

Each program will have a speaker to be followed by a question and answer period.

The last three programs will be held at the same hour as the first but at Richardson Bay School in Sausalito. The second program will be on "Care Of Children, May 23; "Food — Its Planning, Purchasing and Preparation and Serving" will be the subject of the June 6 program and the fourth program will be on "Care and Maintenance of the Home and Furnishings," on June 13.

Westminster Women To Meet Tuesday

Who Says You Won't Get POLIO?

Polio struck last summer . . . and the summer before . . . and it can strike again this summer. There is no reason why you can't get it—unless you are immunized with vaccine shots.

The groups who appear to be particularly susceptible are young parents and babies. And now is the time to do something about it. It only takes minutes for Polio protection.

Call your physician or local health department.

No one needing this protection should go without it!

STORY
Jan. 10, 1960 — Pittsburgh, Pa. "Doctored for psoriasis 30 years. Spent much money to no avail. Then used GHP Ointment and Tablets for 2 weeks. Scales disappeared as if by magic. In 6 weeks skin completely cleared and clean. First time in 30 years. Thanks for your marvelous products." This much abbreviated report tells of a user's success with a dual treatment for psoriasis now made available to all sufferers. Full information and details of a 14 day trial plan from Canam Co., Dept. 271F Rockport, Mass.

Who Says You Won't Get POLIO?
Polio struck last summer... and the summer before... and it can strike again this summer. There is no reason why you can't get it—unless you are immunized with vaccine shots.
The groups who appear to be particularly susceptible are young parents and babies. And now is the time to do something about it. It only takes minutes for Polio protection.
Call your physician or local health department.
No one needing this protection should go without it!

Marion P-TA Family Fun Set Thursday

The Marion School Parent-Teacher Association of Novato will hold their last meeting of the school year on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. with a program entitled "Family Fun."

The program will be narrated by Mr. Roy Kanoff and was written by Mrs. Ray Tschache. A teachers skit was written by Mr. Don White.

Teachers and students will get things started by showing what might happen on the last day of school. This will be followed by a series of skits about family vacations, and trips that you hope will never happen to you.

Many of the school children will display their acting and singing talents along with several of their parents.

Also to be included in the program will be a short explanation on the upcoming election for unification of the Novato and San Jose School Districts given by Earl Marshall, member of the Novato School Board.

An original song written for the occasion by Mrs. Ray Tschache entitled "A Most Happy Song" will be performed by the school children.

Mrs. Earl Marshall is chairman for the program. Refreshments will be served.

Gets U.S. Post

Norman Todhunter, New York commercial artist and son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Todhunter of 132 Oakdale Avenue, Mill Valley, has been appointed to the Citizens' Advisory Committee under the Postmaster General's office in Washington, D. C.

Reed Union Meeting

Reed Union School District trustees will hold an adjourned meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Reed School to hear Supt. Paul R. Stouffer's preliminary report on the 1961-62 budget.

DECORATIONS IN the New Orleans Bourbon Street atmosphere as the mural above, will decorate the Sleepy Hollow Clubhouse on May 20 when the Marin Assembly stages its "Muskrat Ramble." Working on the decor are, from left, Mesdames Daniel Dever and Malcolm Kelso.

Marin Catholic Mothers' Club To Fete Officers

Mrs. Peter Sarocka, newly elected president of the Marin Catholic High School Women's Club, will be installed with her staff at a tea honoring new officers to be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Others to be installed are Mesdames Louis Pometta, first vice president; George Ballantine, second vice president; G. David Callahan, corresponding secretary; Thomas Cuffe, recording secretary; Daniel O'Looney, treasurer; Dominic Basile, financial secretary; and William Thiercof, auditor.

Mrs. Eugene Lombardi and Mrs. Charles Schroth are tea co-chairmen and freshmen mothers will be hostesses.

On the agenda of this last meeting of the school year to be conducted by outgoing president Mrs. Edward Ravizza are reports by standing committees, plans for the senior breakfast and ball and the girls athletic association dinner, and a by-law amendment concerning chaperonage will be voted on.

Before the meeting new members will be honored by outgoing board members at a luncheon at Dominic's in San Rafael under the chairmanship of Mrs. G. Stanley Lawrence. Rev. Mark Hurley, principal of Marin Catholic, will be a special guest.

A uniform exchange service under Mrs. John Looney has been established by the Mothers' Club. Girls' used uniforms may be bought, sold or exchanged, and the club will take care of cleaning for a nominal handling charge.

Muskrats cause considerable damage to levees and canal banks by their burrowing activities.

Marin Women

View Show To Honor The Hearing Handicapped

The magical "Sounds of Summer" arrive delightfully on Thursday at the Ondine in Sausalito accompanied by fresh, feminine summer looks from a San Francisco shop, to be promenaded at the distinctive 12:30 luncheon "Fashions With a View."

For every summer listening post—pool, patio or party, beach, backyard or Bar-B-Q, the store will provide the fashionable favorites that say "Here's To A Wonderful Summer."

Gay companions to the sound of the surf will be sun-sensational swimwear, beach togs and fun wear. Racing to the roar of a sports car will be carefree, colorful cottons equally adept at listening when the umpire says "Play Ball." To chaperon the tinkle of ice in a tall cool glass after five, the store promises an array of summer cocktail dresses perfect for city or suburbia.

Inspiration for Thursdays intriguing "Sounds of Summer" actually comes from those who cannot hear them—the hearing handicapped. May is National Hearing Month and some special Ondine "guests with a viewpoint" will spark the cause for the deaf both at home in Marin and across the nation.

Listening to the "Sounds of Summer" at the Ondine on Thursday begins at 12:30. Looking at their fashionable companions accompanies the luncheon. Reservations for "Fashions With a View" may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Sacrament Guild Having Fandango

"Fiesta Fandango" is the theme when the Blessed Sacrament Women's Guild winds up its busy year with a potluck supper for all members on May 22.

Members are asked to come in Spanish dress, complete with gay skirts and jewelry.

Mrs. Fred Hoffman, chairman for the evening, has announced that a special program will be presented. A skit will be given featuring impersonations of Carmen Miranda, the Gonzales sisters and brothers, a trio of Jose, Juanita and Rosita, with Carmen Cavellero at the piano.

The dinner in the parish hall will begin at 7 p.m. In addition to the entertainment, a Spanish exhibit of mosaics prepared by the fourth graders of Blessed Sacrament School will be displayed, and a pinata awarded to the child judged to have the best creation.

Housing Post

Erwin C. Farley, deputy executive director of the Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency of the County of Marin, this week was succeeded by Edmund Horwinski, executive director of the Housing Authoriay of the City of Oakland, as president of the Metropolitan San Francisco Bay Area Chapter of the National Assn. of Housing and Redevelopment Officials.

Fill the cavities of pear halves with chutney; serve on crisp greens with a cream cheese dressing.

Santa Rosa Locale For CCPT Meet

Fourteenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, will hold its annual workshop for new officers and chairmen in units and councils on Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church on Pacific Avenue in Santa Rosa.

The workshop, planned to orient new workers to the specifics of their jobs as well as to over-all P-TA policy, will be presided over by Mrs. Malcolm Finley, president of Fourteenth District, which comprises Marin and Sonoma counties.

The general session will commence promptly at 9:30 a.m. with the Inspiration presented by Mrs. George Alpers of San Rafael, special education chairman for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers. During the morning session, there will be general instruction in all phases of P-TA activity by means of panel discussions and dramatizations. This part of the workshop is designed to acquaint new workers with the entire scope covered by P-TA endeavors, and to illustrate the many and diverse ways in which P-TA is an influence in the home, school and community.

Kentucky Lock at the Kentucky Dam on the Tennessee River, 57 feet, is the world's second highest ship lift.

Rose Festival

Twenty-eight Marin County teen-age members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will participate in a dance festival feature of Santa Rosa's annual Rose Festival at 8 p.m. May 20.

U.S. Savings Bonds

Marin County residents bought $105,302 worth of U. S. savings bonds during April, according to C. D. Davis, county chairman.

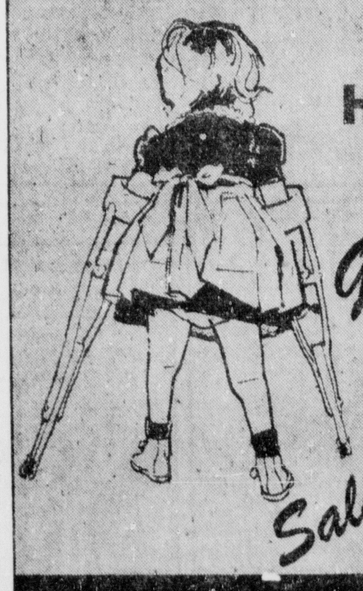

Panel On Publicity

Two San Rafael residents, Newton Stearns, partner in the public relations firm of Whitaker and Baxter, and Bryce W. Anderson, city editor of the Independent-Journal, will conduct a panel discussion on publicity Tuesday at the 13th annual training conference of the California Assn. of County Service Officers in the otel Bellevue in San Francisco.

Today is Monday, May 15, the 135th day of the year with 230 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1862, Congress created the Department of Agriculture.

In 1869, a group of women formed the National Woman Suffrage Assn. with the aim of securing the ballot for women by amending the United States Constitution.

In 1918, the Post Office Department launched the first regular airmail service between Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

In 1924, both houses of Congress passed the Johnston Act, restricting immigration to the United States on a quota basis.

A thought for today: English writer Samuel Coleridge said: "Every reform, however necessary, will by weak minds be carried to an excess, that itself will need reforming."

Some Simple Rules To Protect Your Children From Molesters

Helene was only 5, with blonde, curly hair and big blue eyes. Everyone loved her and in all her life she had never met a cruel person. She wholeheartedly trusted the people she met.

One afternoon Helene was playing on the sidewalk near her home as she had hundreds of times. A young man came up and started talking to her. He had a little doll which he gave to her. Helene was delighted. Then he asked her to come to his house so he could give her another one. Helene agreed.

She said goodbye to her playmates and climbed into his car. Then Helene vanished. A week later her ravished little body was found stuffed in a culvert, outside of town. Her murderer still walks the streets, undetected.

Do you have small children at home? Would they be ready victims of a degenerate? This is sex crime season. You must protect your children. Teach them five simple rules and make sure they follow them. They should:

Never talk with strangers, no matter how friendly they may seem.

Never accept gifts from strangers, no matter how nice the gifts may be.

Never get into a car with a stranger.

Always report immediately to a responsible adult if anyone makes advances.

The odds are against your children being molested. I'm sure you know that. But the consequences can be so horrible that you must take precautions.

Only a fraction of the minor sex offenses against children are reported. The true picture is worse than the official figures indicate. I repeat, you must protect your children.

(A) Yes, it would. He shouldn't do dangerous work nor be subjected to unusual influences. But the right kind of job would be very good for him.

Bolinas Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual clean-up day July 2 to help eliminate summer fire hazards.

Drill Master Sherman Smith said the clean-up day will begin at 9 a.m. Volunteers will pick up debris left in front of homes. At 1 p.m. there will be a lunch at the community center provided by a women's committee.

The 1961-62 budget of the Bolinas Fire Protection district is being prepared and will be taken up at the commissioner's meeting June 8.

Judging Team Gets 4th Place

A dairy judging team from Tomales High School placed fourth in state-wide judging contests in San Luis Obispo recently.

The team is composed of George Bianchi, Dick Adams and Don Crayne. It won third in Jersey judging, but fourth in the overall placing.

The school's livestock judging team, composed of Tim Furlong, Bob Francheschi and Bob Parks, came in ninth.

Marinite Graduates

Johnnie R. Gee, 16-year-old son of Mrs. Marie Gee of Forest Knolls, will graduate May 25 from Cal Farle's Boys Ranch in Amarillo, Tex., where he has been studying ranch management and operations for the past three years. The Fairfax Women's Club will have volunteers at the center today, the Deer Park Parent-Teacher Assn. on Wednesday, and Fairfax Community Congregational Church on Friday. The center is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. three days a week.

Steel Industry Takes Off Gloves

DETROIT (UPI)—The steel industry has taken off the gloves (steel gloves, naturally) in its battle with aluminum interests for a share of the automobile dollar.

Steel companies were stung in recent years by a series of aluminum-sponsored radio commercials featuring two characters named "Rusty" and "Salty."

They made a name by going around town gorging themselves on such things as steel bumpers and automobile bodies.

Now, in answer to "Rusty and "Salty," a Detroit steel company has introduced "Lulu La Luminum," a beguiling aluminum bumper who always comes out second best in clashes with steel bumpers.

The idea portrayed is that aluminum properly belongs in the kitchen for wrapping food leftovers and would be out of its element in an automobile bumper.

One of the commercials features two steel bumpers discussing "Lulu." It goes like this:

"Old steel bumper: Watch it son. She's one of that light metal tribe. In a few months she'll look like a crumpled gum wrapper.

"New steel bumper: She looked so soft, too.

"Old steel bumper: Yeah, soft enough to be dented by a rubber baby buggy bumper. Remember, you're steel son. Stick to your own kind. You wouldn't want an old cook-pot for a mother-in-law."

Another commercial features a smashup between Lulu and a heavy steel bumper.

"Lulu: Ouch! Say, big boy, why did you stop and let me bump you? You've messed me all up.

"Steel bumper: Aw, that's too bad. Now you've got another dent in your soft little hide.

"Lulu: I'm not soft, just lighter.

"Steel bumper: Look, why don't you give people a break. Let steel take care of the bumpers and you go back to your pots and pans."

Explaining the campaign, a steel executive said, "for many years we have remained silent with hats off in admiration for the way our aluminum friends have advertised their product. But not we are taking our gloves off, too."

The spokesman said the anti-aluminum bumper campaign actually is directed against a non-existing product.

"No aluminum bumpers are offered by American carmakers today," he said. "But because of aluminum advertising many persons think such bumpers already exist."

Even though there may not be aluminum bumpers, the light metal is finding increasing use in other parts of American cars. Thirteen years ago, only six pounds of aluminum were used on a car. Today, the average is up to 63 pounds per car.

Prison Building Ceremony Slated

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the construction of the chapel center in the San Quentin Prison grounds will be held May 21 at 2 p.m., announced Dale B. Frady, associate warden.

The new unit will include the Protestant chapel and a religious education wing to complete the chapel center. The contract for the job has been awarded to the De Narde Construction Co. of Oakland. Work is to begin May 22.

U.C. Adult Summer Extension Courses

A University of California Extension course for adults in the study of seashore life will be offered in Marin this summer. Titled "Marin Invertebrates of the California Sea Coast" the class will be taught by Dr. Rudolph Stohler, associate research zoologist at U. C.

Other Extension courses to be offered in Marin this summer include "The Modern American Novel," and "Photography." Further information and application for enrollment may be obtained from University Extension, University of California, Berkeley 4. Visitors are welcome to attend the first meeting of any class without obligation.

In Berlin Maneuvers

Army Pvt. Anthony J. Bettencourt, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Bettencourt, 41 Francis Avenue, Larkspur, recently participated in a field training maneuver in West Berlin. A 1960 graduate of Redwood High School, he joined the Army last August.

Two Become Members Of Fertilizer Group

Dr. M. H. McVickar of 1360 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, and Les Hamilton of 456 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, have been named as members of a national fertilizer group within the Ortho Division of California Chemical Co. in Richmond.

Dr. McVickar is chief agronomist for the firm and Hamilton is assistant national manager of fertilizer sales. They will head planning and marketing for sales of their product throughout the United States.

SEE YOU IN HAWAII

In the excitement of a Matson ship's arrival in Honolulu it is impossible to hear your name paged. One solution is depicted here. A pretty girl strolls the deck and holds up a sign of who she is looking for. There will be a trip to Hawaii this month sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. A lucky ticket for a trip for two last week was won by a Point Reyes nurse who may give the tickets to her daughter, Miss Belva Smith, of San Rafael.

REP. MILLER REPORTS

Congress Finally Gets Into High Gear On Bills

By REP. CLEMENT W. MILLER

WASHINGTON—Congress is finally in high gear and major legislation is moving ahead rapidly in the committees and on the floors of both house and senate.

Last week, for example, saw action on these major bills:

HIGHWAYS — The house passed the Highway Act of 1961 after substantial changes were made in financing provisions determining which classes of users are to pay how much for the federal highway program.

From the standpoint of a district where trucking iis a major enterprise and vital economic lifeline, the bill as passed was much more reasonable than the version first recommended by the commerce department.

Although the federal gasoline and diesel fuel tax was continued at four cents a gallon instead of being reduced to three cents as originally scheduled—other taxes, on truckers alone, were cut by about half from the original bill.

Unfortunately, the closed rule under which the bill came to the floor did not permit amendment. During the debate I said that I thought this was unfair both to the trucking industry and to local governments in non-metropolitan areas.

WATER POLLUTION CONTROL—The house approved a key portion of the president's natural resources progarm when it passed the Water Pollution Control Act of 1961.

The bill doubles authorization for federal incentive grants to help local communities build pollution-control plans. It also puts more teeth in anti-pollution enforcement authority by extending that authority to coastal waters. It authorizes stepped-up research in this field.

The bill has immeasurable long-range implications for the future prosperity of the Redwood Empire. Our commercial fishing industry depends on clean streams and clean offshore waters. So does our recreational fishing industry which is going to become a more and more important part of our economy. A score of Northern California communities and counties have already built pollution-control plants under this incentive program and there will be many more in the future.

Conservation groups such as the California Wildlife Federation, Izaak Walton League and Salmon Unlimited regard this as the most important federal legislation in years.

JUDGESHIPS — Both houses voted final passage of a federal judgeships bill that authorizes two additional district judges for Northern California. This should permit a good start on clearing away of the log-jam of cases in the federal courts that now causes delay of nearly two years in deciding most federal cases in California.

MINIMUM WAGE — Both houses passed a minimum wage bill which broadens coverage substantially for the first time in 23 years, in just about the same form the president requested.

COMMITTEE ACTION — In the committees hearings moved ahead on the administration's housing, farm and postal rate bills. And the administration's federal aid to education bill was approved by a senate subcommittee and readied for floor action in the senate.

Portable FMs Ban On Aircraft Set

The Federal Aviation Agency, in a special civil air regulation, has prohibited the use of portable FM radios on U. S. civil aircraft, effective May 25.

An investigation showed radioes having oscillators operating within or very near the Very High Frequency band used in aircraft affected instruments in the aircraft involved in the tests. More detailed tests are scheduled later.

On Judges Panel For Youth Awards

William R. Seeger, general manager of the Marin Municipal Water District, will serve on a panel of judges to select Bank of America high school achievement award winners at Bay Area finals in San Francisco.

The panel will pick four of a field of 36 seniors who have survived preliminary and semi-final screenings, the winners getting $1,000 cash awards. Judging will be through group interviews. Other winners will share a total of $10,600.

Compact Recognition

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Compact cars are beginning to make their presence felt—officially.

The city of Cheyenne has set aside six parking spaces, where bigger models would have a difficult time squeezing in, as reserved for the compact cars.

Some Simple Rules To Protect Your Children From Molesters

Helene was only 5, with blonde, curly hair and big blue eyes. Everyone loved her and in all her life she had never met a cruel person. She wholeheartedly trusted the people she met.

One afternoon Helene was playing on the sidewalk near her home as she had hundreds of times. A young man came up and started talking to her. He had a little doll which he gave to her. Helene was delighted. Then he asked her to come to his house so he could give her another one. Helene agreed.

She said goodbye to her playmates and climbed into his car. Then Helene vanished. A week later her ravished little body was found stuffed in a culvert, outside of town. Her murderer still walks the streets, undetected.

Do you have small children at home? Would they be ready victims of a degenerate? This is sex crime season. You must protect your children. Teach them five simple rules and make sure they follow them. They should:

Never talk with strangers, no matter how friendly they may seem.

Never accept gifts from strangers, no matter how nice the gifts may be.

Never get into a car with a stranger.

Never sit alone in a theater.

Always report immediately to a responsible adult if anyone makes advances.

The odds are against your children being molested. I'm sure you know that. But the consequences can be so horrible that you must take precautions.

Only a fraction of the minor sex offenses against children are reported. The true picture is worse than the official figures indicate. I repeat, you must protect your children.

(Q) "My son is 16. He never has held down a job. He is strong and capable. Would it be a good experience for him to work this summer?"

P.M.

(A) Yes, it would. He shouldn't do dangerous work nor be subjected to unusual influences. But the right kind of job would be very good for him.

Fire Clean-Up Day Planned In Bolinas

Bolinas Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual clean-up day July 2 to help eliminate summer fire hazards.

Drill Master Sherman Smith said the clean-up day will begin at 9 a.m. Volunteers will pick up debris left in front of homes. At 1 p.m. there will be a lunch at the community center provided by a women's committee.

The 1961-62 budget of the Bolinas Fire Protection district is being prepared and will be taken up at the commissioner's meeting June 8.

Judging Team Gets 4th Place

A dairy judging team from Tomales High School placed fourth in state-wide judging contests in San Luis Obispo recently.

The team is composed of George Bianchi, Dick Adams and Don Crayne. It won third in Jersey judging, but fourth in the overall placing.

The school's livestock judging team, composed of Tim Furlong, Bob Francheschi and Bob Parks, came in ninth.

Marinite Graduates

Johnnie R. Gee, 16-year-old son of Mrs. Marie Gee of Forest Knolls, will graduate May 25 from Cal Farle's Boys Ranch in Amarillo, Tex., where he has been studying ranch management and operations for the past three years. Johnnie attended private school in Mill Valley and Lagunitas School for one year before enrolling at the boys ranch.

Fairfax Week At Blood Bank

Fairfax organizations will recruit donors and furnish volunteers this week for the new Marin Blood Center at 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, Mrs. C. J. Bergstrom, chairman of community groups for the center, has announced.

The Fairfax Women's Club will have volunteers at the center today, the Deer Park Parent-Teacher Assn. on Wednesday, and Fairfax Community Congregational Church on Friday. The center is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. three days a week.

Steel Industry Takes Off Gloves

DETROIT (UPI)—The steel industry has taken off the gloves (steel gloves, naturally) in its battle with aluminum interests for a share of the automobile dollar.

Steel companies were stung in recent years by a series of aluminum-sponsored radio commercials featuring two characters named "Rusty" and "Salty."

They made a name by going around town gorging themselves on such things as steel bumpers and automobile bodies.

Now, in answer to "Rusty and "Salty," a Detroit steel company has introduced "Lulu La Luminum," a beguiling aluminum bumper who always comes out second best in clashes with steel bumpers.

The idea portrayed is that aluminum properly belongs in the kitchen for wrapping food leftovers and would be out of its element in an automobile bumper.

One of the commercials features two steel bumpers discussing "Lulu." It goes like this:

"Old steel bumper: Watch it son. She's one of that light metal tribe. In a few months she'll look like a crumpled gum wrapper.

"New steel bumper: She looked so soft, too.

"Old steel bumper: Yeah, soft enough to be dented by a rubber baby buggy bumper. Remember, you're steel son. Stick to your own kind. You wouldn't want an old cook-pot for a mother-in-law."

Another commercial features a smashup between Lulu and a heavy steel bumper.

"Lulu: Ouch! Say, big boy, why did you stop and let me bump you? You've messed me all up.

"Steel bumper: Aw, that's too bad. Now you've got another dent in your soft little hide.

"Lulu: I'm not soft, just lighter.

"Steel bumper: Look, why don't you give people a break. Let steel take care of the bumpers and you go back to your pots and pans."

Explaining the campaign, a steel executive said, "for many years we have remained silent with hats off in admiration for the way our aluminum friends have advertised their product. But not we are taking our gloves off, too."

The spokesman said the anti-aluminum bumper campaign actually is directed against a non-existing product.

"No aluminum bumpers are offered by American carmakers today," he said. "But because of aluminum advertising many persons think such bumpers already exist."

Even though there may not be aluminum bumpers, the light metal is finding increasing use in other parts of American cars. Thirteen years ago, only six pounds of aluminum were used on a car. Today, the average is up to 63 pounds per car.

Prison Building Ceremony Slated

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the construction of the chapel center in the San Quentin Prison grounds will be held May 21 at 2 p.m., announced Dale B. Frady, associate warden.

The new unit will include the Protestant chapel and a religious education wing to complete the chapel center. The contract for the job has been awarded to the De Narde Construction Co. of Oakland. Work is to begin May 22.

U.C. Adult Summer Extension Courses

A University of California Extension course for adults in the study of seashore life will be offered in Marin this summer. Titled "Marin Invertebrates of the California Sea Coast" the class will be taught by Dr. Rudolph Stohler, associate research zoologist at U. C.

Other Extension courses to be offered in Marin this summer include "The Modern American Novel," and "Photography." Further information and application for enrollment may be obtained from University Extension, University of California, Berkeley 4. Visitors are welcome to attend the first meeting of any class without obligation.

In Berlin Maneuvers

Army Pvt. Anthony J. Bettencourt, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Bettencourt, 41 Francis Avenue, Larkspur, recently participated in a field training maneuver in West Berlin. A 1960 graduate of Redwood High School, he joined the Army last August.

Two Become Members Of Fertilizer Group

Dr. M. H. McVickar of 1360 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, and Les Hamilton of 456 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, have been named as members of a national fertilizer group within the Ortho Division of California Chemical Co. in Richmond.

Dr. McVickar is chief agronomist for the firm and Hamilton is assistant national manager of fertilizer sales. They will head planning and marketing for sales of their product throughout the United States.

SEE YOU IN HAWAII

In the excitement of a Matson ship's arrival in Honolulu it is impossible to hear your name paged. One solution is depicted here. A pretty girl strolls the deck and holds up a sign of who she is looking for. There will be a trip to Hawaii this month sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. A lucky ticket for a trip for two last week was won by a Point Reyes nurse who may give the tickets to her daughter, Miss Belva Smith, of San Rafael.

REP. MILLER REPORTS

Congress Finally Gets Into High Gear On Bills

By REP. CLEMENT W. MILLER

WASHINGTON—Congress is finally in high gear and major legislation is moving ahead rapidly in the committees and on the floors of both house and senate.

Last week, for example, saw action on these major bills:

HIGHWAYS — The house passed the Highway Act of 1961 after substantial changes were made in financing provisions determining which classes of users are to pay how much for the federal highway program.

From the standpoint of a district where trucking iis a major enterprise and vital economic lifeline, the bill as passed was much more reasonable than the version first recommended by the commerce department.

Although the federal gasoline and diesel fuel tax was continued at four cents a gallon instead of being reduced to three cents as originally scheduled—other taxes, on truckers alone, were cut by about half from the original bill.

Unfortunately, the closed rule under which the bill came to the floor did not permit amendment. During the debate I said that I thought this was unfair both to the trucking industry and to local governments in non-metropolitan areas.

WATER POLLUTION CONTROL—The house approved a key portion of the president's natural resources progarm when it passed the Water Pollution Control Act of 1961.

The bill doubles authorization for federal incentive grants to help local communities build pollution-control plans. It also puts more teeth in anti-pollution enforcement authority by extending that authority to coastal waters. It authorizes stepped-up research in this field.

The bill has immeasurable long-range implications for the future prosperity of the Redwood Empire. Our commercial fishing industry depends on clean streams and clean offshore waters. So does our recreational fishing industry which is going to become a more and more important part of our economy. A score of Northern California communities and counties have already built pollution-control plants under this incentive program and there will be many more in the future.

Conservation groups such as the California Wildlife Federation, Izaak Walton League and Salmon Unlimited regard this as the most important federal legislation in years.

JUDGESHIPS — Both houses voted final passage of a federal judgeships bill that authorizes two additional district judges for Northern California. This should permit a good start on clearing away of the log-jam of cases in the federal courts that now causes delay of nearly two years in deciding most federal cases in California.

MINIMUM WAGE — Both houses passed a minimum wage bill which broadens coverage substantially for the first time in 23 years, in just about the same form the president requested.

COMMITTEE ACTION — In the committees hearings moved ahead on the administration's housing, farm and postal rate bills. And the administration's federal aid to education bill was approved by a senate subcommittee and readied for floor action in the senate.

Portable FMs Ban On Aircraft Set

The Federal Aviation Agency, in a special civil air regulation, has prohibited the use of portable FM radios on U. S. civil aircraft, effective May 25.

An investigation showed radioes having oscillators operating within or very near the Very High Frequency band used in aircraft affected instruments in the aircraft involved in the tests. More detailed tests are scheduled later.

On Judges Panel For Youth Awards

William R. Seeger, general manager of the Marin Municipal Water District, will serve on a panel of judges to select Bank of America high school achievement award winners at Bay Area finals in San Francisco.

The panel will pick four of a field of 36 seniors who have survived preliminary and semi-final screenings, the winners getting $1,000 cash awards. Judging will be through group interviews. Other winners will share a total of $10,600.

Compact Recognition

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Compact cars are beginning to make their presence felt—officially.

The city of Cheyenne has set aside six parking spaces, where bigger models would have a difficult time squeezing in, as reserved for the compact cars.

To Create A Desire For YOUR House Not Just A House

YOU NEED THE HELP OF YOUR REALTOR

Your REALTOR has the "Knowhow" to advertise your house to the best advantage for a quick sale. He knows the salient features about your property and how to use them to create in the buyer's mind the desire to make your house his home.
Your REALTOR is honor-bound not to misrepresent a property. Being unbiased and impartial and knowing just what the prospective buyers are seeking, he is able to bring just the right people to just the right house. Consequently there is always a minimum of delay in consummating the sale when you list your home with a REALTOR.

To Create A Desire For YOUR House Not Just A House

YOU NEED THE HELP OF YOUR REALTOR

Your REALTOR has the "Knowhow" to advertise your house to the best advantage for a quick sale. He knows the salient features about your property and how to use them to create in the buyer's mind the desire to make your house his home.
Your REALTOR is honor-bound not to misrepresent a property. Being unbiased and impartial and knowing just what the prospective buyers are seeking, he is able to bring just the right people to just the right house. Consequently there is always a minimum of delay in consummating the sale when you list your home with a REALTOR.

Ice Follies Will Open On June 14

The Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies will open at San Francisco's Winterland June 14.

Featured in the cast are David Jenkins, Olympic gold medal winner, and German champion Ina Bauer.

Performances are at 8:30 nightly except Sundays and Mondays, and 1:30 and 5:30 on Sundays. Matinees begin at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17, and are scheduled every Saturday throughout the run of the show. A special Independent Day matinee is scheduled at 2:30 p.m. July 4.

Tickets are available by mail, telephone or in person from the Winterland box office, Post and Steiner Streets or Downtown Center Box Office, Mason and O'Farrell Streets, San Francisco, and from Sherman, Clay Co., Oakland.

Judge Dismisses Battery Charge

San Francisco dentist James Leon Fuller, 35, accused of breaking into his ex-wife's Mill Valley home and committing battery against her, has been freed in Marin Municipal Court.

Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino recommended that the battery charge be dismissed because the woman does not want to press the complaint. Judge Leonard A. Thomas dismissed the complaint.

Elizabeth Blanche Aldrich, 30, who lives at 990 Redwood Highway, screamed for help about 3 a.m. on April 14 when Fuller climbed in through the bedroom window, according to sheriff's deputies. She told officers Fuller started an argument and began attacking her.

Television's Big Awards Show On Channel 4 Tomorrow Night

Television's answer to moviedom's Academy Awards spectacle, the "Emmy" presentations, comes off tomorrow night over KRON starting at 10 o'clock.

So far the TV awards have been unable to develop the glitter and command the interest that attends the "Oscar" derby. Perhaps this is because the television personalities we watch in our living rooms just naturally seem less glamorous than the stars who entertain us in the movie palaces — even when many of them are the same people. Perhaps it is because of the hodgepodge of award classifications that at times makes the television awards virtually meaningless. Or perhaps it is because there is so much mediocrity on TV that it is difficult for us to remember the really praiseworthy performances and productions.

Nevertheless, the Emmy show has and will again tomorrow night attract a sizeable viewing audience.

Once again the program will be split between Hollywood (where Dick Powell will emcee) and New York (where Joey Bishop will officiate).

It will mark the 13th year for the TV awards. The first, back in 1948, resulted in the award for "most outstanding television personality" going to some one named Shirley Dinsdale and her puppet, Judy Splinters. More familiar names came to the front in 1949 when Milton Berle was selected "the most outstanding kinescoped personality" and Ed Wynn "the most outstanding live personality." But TV was still young enough for a wrestling show to be honored for outstanding sports coverage.

It was 1951 when Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca swept top honors with "Your Show of Shows." "Dragnet" scored high in 1953. George Gobel was the outstanding new personality of 1954. Mary Martin's "Peter Pan" won her best actress laurels for 1955. Fred Astaire made a sweep of honors in 1958-59. And last year Laurence Olivier and Ingrid Bergman were the best actor and actress.

This year there will be awards in 25 categories. In the running are such talents as Maurice Evans, Ingrid Bergman, Judith Anderson, Fred Astaire and Harry Belafonte. And such productions as "Macbeth," "Sacco-Venzetti," "Astaire Time," "Belafonte, N.Y.," President Kennedy's news conference and the political conventions.

TONIGHT at 10:30 on its "Doctors at Work" show, KRON will show the birth of a baby by Caesarean section.

Cameras were taken into the operating room to film the operation as part of a show made in cooperation with the San Francisco Medical Society. Afterwards a panel of doctors will discuss Caesarian sections an answer some of the more frequently asked questions about it.

STATE CONSUMER Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley will appear with Gov. Edmund G. Brown on KQED's "State of the Capitol" show at 8:30 this evening to discuss the work of Mrs. Nelson's office.

ALSO TONIGHT: A visit to Hearst's fabulous San Simeon on KQED's "Exploring California" at 7:30, and a report from Dr. Victor Richards of the Presbyterian Medical Center on "Cancer Immunology" on "Science in Action," KRON at 7 o'clock.

Ice Follies Will Open On June 14

The Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies will open at San Francisco's Winterland June 14.

Featured in the cast are David Jenkins, Olympic gold medal winner, and German champion Ina Bauer.

Performances are at 8:30 nightly except Sundays and Mondays, and 1:30 and 5:30 on Sundays. Matinees begin at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17, and are scheduled every Saturday throughout the run of the show. A special Independent Day matinee is scheduled at 2:30 p.m. July 4.

Tickets are available by mail, telephone or in person from the Winterland box office, Post and Steiner Streets or Downtown Center Box Office, Mason and O'Farrell Streets, San Francisco, and from Sherman, Clay Co., Oakland.

Judge Dismisses Battery Charge

San Francisco dentist James Leon Fuller, 35, accused of breaking into his ex-wife's Mill Valley home and committing battery against her, has been freed in Marin Municipal Court.

Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino recommended that the battery charge be dismissed because the woman does not want to press the complaint. Judge Leonard A. Thomas dismissed the complaint.

Elizabeth Blanche Aldrich, 30, who lives at 990 Redwood Highway, screamed for help about 3 a.m. on April 14 when Fuller climbed in through the bedroom window, according to sheriff's deputies. She told officers Fuller started an argument and began attacking her.

Television's Big Awards Show On Channel 4 Tomorrow Night

Television's answer to moviedom's Academy Awards spectacle, the "Emmy" presentations, comes off tomorrow night over KRON starting at 10 o'clock.

So far the TV awards have been unable to develop the glitter and command the interest that attends the "Oscar" derby. Perhaps this is because the television personalities we watch in our living rooms just naturally seem less glamorous than the stars who entertain us in the movie palaces — even when many of them are the same people. Perhaps it is because of the hodgepodge of award classifications that at times makes the television awards virtually meaningless. Or perhaps it is because there is so much mediocrity on TV that it is difficult for us to remember the really praiseworthy performances and productions.

Nevertheless, the Emmy show has and will again tomorrow night attract a sizeable viewing audience.

Once again the program will be split between Hollywood (where Dick Powell will emcee) and New York (where Joey Bishop will officiate).

It will mark the 13th year for the TV awards. The first, back in 1948, resulted in the award for "most outstanding television personality" going to some one named Shirley Dinsdale and her puppet, Judy Splinters. More familiar names came to the front in 1949 when Milton Berle was selected "the most outstanding kinescoped personality" and Ed Wynn "the most outstanding live personality." But TV was still young enough for a wrestling show to be honored for outstanding sports coverage.

It was 1951 when Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca swept top honors with "Your Show of Shows." "Dragnet" scored high in 1953. George Gobel was the outstanding new personality of 1954. Mary Martin's "Peter Pan" won her best actress laurels for 1955. Fred Astaire made a sweep of honors in 1958-59. And last year Laurence Olivier and Ingrid Bergman were the best actor and actress.

This year there will be awards in 25 categories. In the running are such talents as Maurice Evans, Ingrid Bergman, Judith Anderson, Fred Astaire and Harry Belafonte. And such productions as "Macbeth," "Sacco-Venzetti," "Astaire Time," "Belafonte, N.Y.," President Kennedy's news conference and the political conventions.

TONIGHT at 10:30 on its "Doctors at Work" show, KRON will show the birth of a baby by Caesarean section.

Cameras were taken into the operating room to film the operation as part of a show made in cooperation with the San Francisco Medical Society. Afterwards a panel of doctors will discuss Caesarian sections an answer some of the more frequently asked questions about it.

STATE CONSUMER Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley will appear with Gov. Edmund G. Brown on KQED's "State of the Capitol" show at 8:30 this evening to discuss the work of Mrs. Nelson's office.

ALSO TONIGHT: A visit to Hearst's fabulous San Simeon on KQED's "Exploring California" at 7:30, and a report from Dr. Victor Richards of the Presbyterian Medical Center on "Cancer Immunology" on "Science in Action," KRON at 7 o'clock.

State Auto Assn. Planning Move To Bel Aire Offices

The California State Automobile Assn. district office at 1114 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, is slated for a move before the first of the year.

District manager William F. Lennon says the association has purchased about 20,000 square feet of land in the Bon Air development on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Greenbrae, west of the Union Oil station. A new building of about 4,000 square feet will be erected, affording almost twice as much office space and far more parking area than the existing premises.

San Rafael architects Crawford and Banning are drawing up plans which so far have not been detailed. The building will be single-story, frame construction.

The present CSAA building is leased from the Elks Club and the lease expires November 1. Lennon hopes they'll be moved by then.

Secretary Fred Schroers of the Elks Club says he has not been informed what usage will be given the CSAA building after it is vacated.

NIGHT CLUB operator and erstwhile construction man Whitey Litchfield will cancel the erstwhile part of it and get back in the contracting business if he can separate himself sufficiently from the increasing Bermuda Palms night activity to give attention to blueprints and such.

He's interested in constructing more apartments and in heavy commercial development.

CHARLES L. SCHAFER, 346 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, has been appointed regional chairman for the 11th annual International Design Conference to be held in Aspen, Colo., June 18-24. He has served previous international conferences in Mexico City and Hawaii since 1958.

MARTIN S. CHASE, 4 Woodside Way, Ross, active in the field of finance and investments for the last six years in New York and San Francisco, has recently joined the staff of Glore, Forgan and Co., San Francisco stock and bond brokerage firm.

AQUARIUM BEAUTIFUL, 1409 Fourth Street, San Rafael, recently sold by the Claude Fellands will be taken over by new owner Mrs. Ruby Miller of Chico sometime this week - probably Wednesday or Thursday.

CUSTOM BUILDERS are constructing another apartment house - a six-unit building at 1354 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael for the Stanley Cowans of this city. The apartments designed as rental units have two bedrooms; the building will be of stucco and redwood exterior with a floating staircase.

The contractors have recently finished the first 20 units of Marina Gardens, with the second 20-unit building nearing completion. Marina Landings was also one of their projects.

FIRST BREAKTHROUGH from Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, to San Anselmo will come when Racquet Club Drive is extended to meet Forbes Avenue and thence into the Miracle Mile near the United Market.

After the dedication and official opening of the Racquet Club last Thursday you can expect both the club itself and the hillside home development around it to take on accelerated promotion.

We understand that 151 club memberships have already been sewed up out of a possible 400. The remaining 249 are now open for applications and are not to be confined to residents of the Racquet Club Estates. Soon to be added are another tennis court and an additional 2,000 square feet of clubhouse space mainly devoted to expanding the restaurant facilities for which catering service is presently being given by Pete Lind, owner of Pete's Pier 15, San Rafael.

The Kaehler Development Co. handling the residential tract expects to complete 50 homes this year. So far there have been 11 starts and five sales.

Infantry Training

Army Pvt. James J. Lavaroni is undergoing basic infantry training at Fort Ord.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lavaroni of 18 Hampton Avenue, San Anselmo. A 1956 graduate of Drake High School, he attended San Francisco State.

Plane Circles Overhead For Educational Video

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—A DC-6 airplane circles an Indiana town today to open a new era in education—television teaching from the clouds to the classrooms.

Thousands of school children in six Midwestern states leaned forward in their seats. They glued their eyes to the familiar TV screens as teachers turned the knobs and invited an entire new staff of instructors to come in.

Instead of cowboys, the children saw something akin to reading, writing and arithmetic.

It was the opening test program from a "flying classroom" which, beginning next fall, will regularly beam instruction in a variety of subjects to elementary and high school pupils in Indiana and part of Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Kentucky.

Some of the nation's best teachers recorded lessons on tape and these were broadcast from a plane flying over Montpelier, Ind.

For the present these extra teachers are augmenting local school faculties through the sponsorship of Midwest program on airborne television instruction (MPATI).

This organization has its operating heart at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind. Through use of a process called stratovision it can reach schools within a radius of up to 250 miles instead of the limit of 25 miles on ground based television.

For the past week, one of two "flying classrooms" has been circling four and a half miles above Montpelier, sending out test signals over equipment that today was put to its intended use for the first time.

The children down below saw one or more of six lessons which were broadcast from the circling DC-6.

Science, mathematics and foreign languages form the bulk of the 14 courses which will be telecast from the plane until June 1.

Most of these lessons already have been telecast and taped and portions from them will be previewed for these last three study weeks of most public school systems in the area. The full scale program begins next September.

Madison Finchum, supervising principal for Decatur Township, Merion County, Ind., schools, expressed the general reaction of schools.

"This is one of the most marvelous things ever to happen in a school, particularly one which cannot afford the proper equipment to handle experiments in subjects such as science," he said.

"This is something the medical world has been doing for years. A great surgeon has only room for a few students to watch what he is doing. But through television, all the students in the nation could watch at one time if they wanted to. Now we can have some of the best teachers in the world in our schools."

The initial cost of the project is being financed with a seven million dollar grant by foundations and several firms. The schools provide their own receiving equipment.

A.F. Basic Training

Airman Gary Seibak, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hennessey of 1050 Greenwood Drive, Novato, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. He has been selected to attend the technical training course for armament system and maintenance at Lowry AFB, Colo. Airman Seibak is a graduate of San Rafael High School.

EXPONENT OF THE SOFT VOICE

Doctor 'Adopts' Greek Child

Dr. John H. Manwaring of Morrison Road, Ross, has financially adopted 10-year-old Agori Koutina in Greece through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., of New York City. He has pledged to contribute $15 a month toward the child's support for at least a year, utilizing a plan which has rehabilitated more than 76,000 children since 1937.

Little Agori lives in a small town in central Greece with her parents and brother who is her own age. Her father, formerly a vegetable peddler, is incurably ill with tuberculosis and her mother works as a field laborer and cleaning woman for about $20 a month.

Lions Club Talk

Elizabeth R. (Libby) Smith of Kentfield, treasurer of the United States, is scheduled to speak before the Kentfield Lions Club at a luncheon on June 15. The noon luncheon will be at the Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield. John Lethbridge wil preside.

Millions Of Dollars Loss Tied To Junior Colleges

HAYWARD (AP) — California's junior college system has been unable to account for millions of tax dollars spent annually, a state educator says.

An attempt to cross audit the cost of such spending was made, a speaker said, but resulted in a set of figures "so ridiculous and astonishing that the report was quickly buried away in state files and never published or released."

Three statements were made by Edgar B. Wicklander, assistant chief of the department of education's bureau of school apportionment and reports, at an educator's meeting Tuesday.

The high level staff meeting was attended by 37 Alameda County school and junior college representatives.

Wicklander said the state department of education was under heavy fire from state legislators because they were unable to give accurate figures on the cost of junior college education in California.

He said the department's inability to account for junior college expenditures resulted from two main causes.

One was that, until recently, only 26 junior colleges operating as separate districts were required to file detailed reports for audit with the state. The other 41 junior colleges, as part of high school or unified districts, were not reported separately, he said.

He said the second cause was lack of standard attendance accounting procedures.

Dr. Tyler, disagreeing with Wicklander, commented:

"I've worked with junior colleges and with the state master plan in various studies, and we have reason to believe the junior college system is less expensive."

The meeting was the second of five called by Ray H. Johnson, chief of the department's bureau of school apportionment and reports, to lay out and explain standardized attendance and accounting report procedures.

About 77 per cent of the United States population has some form of voluntary health insurance.

5 decisions that can help a couple look ahead with confidence

How the unique advantages of life insurance make the right decisions easier—bringing peace of mind at the stroke of a pen.

With life insurance, a family is protected right from the start. For only life insurance guarantees, at the stroke of a pen, an amount of money far greater than most couples could save in many years.

2 To safeguard the home they love.
A prudent husband safeguards the family home by owning enough life insurance to take care of any unpaid mortgage. Life insurance guarantees this protection.

3 To provide the children with a college education.
By figuring in advance what it will cost to give their children a college education, parents can make sure—through their life insurance—that college expenses can be met.

4 To accept new opportunity when it comes.
The risks of a new business or job opportunity can be assumed more readily when the family is protected by life insurance. And with life insurance, husband and wife know in advance exactly how much money will be available for an emergency at any given time.

5 To make a plan for a worry-free retirement.
A husband and wife can get more pleasure from their later years when they plan their life insurance to provide a steady income which will last for both their lifetimes.

The wise family head carefully estimates his family's future needs, then plans his life insurance accordingly. Since family circumstances often change, many couples review their programs with their life insurance agent each year. In this way, they get the most from the unique advantages of their life insurance.

State Auto Assn. Planning Move To Bel Aire Offices

The California State Automobile Assn. district office at 1114 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, is slated for a move before the first of the year.

District manager William F. Lennon says the association has purchased about 20,000 square feet of land in the Bon Air development on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Greenbrae, west of the Union Oil station. A new building of about 4,000 square feet will be erected, affording almost twice as much office space and far more parking area than the existing premises.

San Rafael architects Crawford and Banning are drawing up plans which so far have not been detailed. The building will be single-story, frame construction.

The present CSAA building is leased from the Elks Club and the lease expires November 1. Lennon hopes they'll be moved by then.

Secretary Fred Schroers of the Elks Club says he has not been informed what usage will be given the CSAA building after it is vacated.

NIGHT CLUB operator and erstwhile construction man Whitey Litchfield will cancel the erstwhile part of it and get back in the contracting business if he can separate himself sufficiently from the increasing Bermuda Palms night activity to give attention to blueprints and such.

He's interested in constructing more apartments and in heavy commercial development.

CHARLES L. SCHAFER, 346 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, has been appointed regional chairman for the 11th annual International Design Conference to be held in Aspen, Colo., June 18-24. He has served previous international conferences in Mexico City and Hawaii since 1958.

MARTIN S. CHASE, 4 Woodside Way, Ross, active in the field of finance and investments for the last six years in New York and San Francisco, has recently joined the staff of Glore, Forgan and Co., San Francisco stock and bond brokerage firm.

AQUARIUM BEAUTIFUL, 1409 Fourth Street, San Rafael, recently sold by the Claude Fellands will be taken over by new owner Mrs. Ruby Miller of Chico sometime this week - probably Wednesday or Thursday.

CUSTOM BUILDERS are constructing another apartment house - a six-unit building at 1354 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael for the Stanley Cowans of this city. The apartments designed as rental units have two bedrooms; the building will be of stucco and redwood exterior with a floating staircase.

The contractors have recently finished the first 20 units of Marina Gardens, with the second 20-unit building nearing completion. Marina Landings was also one of their projects.

FIRST BREAKTHROUGH from Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, to San Anselmo will come when Racquet Club Drive is extended to meet Forbes Avenue and thence into the Miracle Mile near the United Market.

After the dedication and official opening of the Racquet Club last Thursday you can expect both the club itself and the hillside home development around it to take on accelerated promotion.

We understand that 151 club memberships have already been sewed up out of a possible 400. The remaining 249 are now open for applications and are not to be confined to residents of the Racquet Club Estates. Soon to be added are another tennis court and an additional 2,000 square feet of clubhouse space mainly devoted to expanding the restaurant facilities for which catering service is presently being given by Pete Lind, owner of Pete's Pier 15, San Rafael.

The Kaehler Development Co. handling the residential tract expects to complete 50 homes this year. So far there have been 11 starts and five sales.

Infantry Training

Army Pvt. James J. Lavaroni is undergoing basic infantry training at Fort Ord.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lavaroni of 18 Hampton Avenue, San Anselmo. A 1956 graduate of Drake High School, he attended San Francisco State.

Plane Circles Overhead For Educational Video

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—A DC-6 airplane circles an Indiana town today to open a new era in education—television teaching from the clouds to the classrooms.

Thousands of school children in six Midwestern states leaned forward in their seats. They glued their eyes to the familiar TV screens as teachers turned the knobs and invited an entire new staff of instructors to come in.

Instead of cowboys, the children saw something akin to reading, writing and arithmetic.

It was the opening test program from a "flying classroom" which, beginning next fall, will regularly beam instruction in a variety of subjects to elementary and high school pupils in Indiana and part of Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Kentucky.

Some of the nation's best teachers recorded lessons on tape and these were broadcast from a plane flying over Montpelier, Ind.

For the present these extra teachers are augmenting local school faculties through the sponsorship of Midwest program on airborne television instruction (MPATI).

This organization has its operating heart at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind. Through use of a process called stratovision it can reach schools within a radius of up to 250 miles instead of the limit of 25 miles on ground based television.

For the past week, one of two "flying classrooms" has been circling four and a half miles above Montpelier, sending out test signals over equipment that today was put to its intended use for the first time.

The children down below saw one or more of six lessons which were broadcast from the circling DC-6.

Science, mathematics and foreign languages form the bulk of the 14 courses which will be telecast from the plane until June 1.

Most of these lessons already have been telecast and taped and portions from them will be previewed for these last three study weeks of most public school systems in the area. The full scale program begins next September.

Madison Finchum, supervising principal for Decatur Township, Merion County, Ind., schools, expressed the general reaction of schools.

"This is one of the most marvelous things ever to happen in a school, particularly one which cannot afford the proper equipment to handle experiments in subjects such as science," he said.

"This is something the medical world has been doing for years. A great surgeon has only room for a few students to watch what he is doing. But through television, all the students in the nation could watch at one time if they wanted to. Now we can have some of the best teachers in the world in our schools."

The initial cost of the project is being financed with a seven million dollar grant by foundations and several firms. The schools provide their own receiving equipment.

A.F. Basic Training

Airman Gary Seibak, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hennessey of 1050 Greenwood Drive, Novato, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. He has been selected to attend the technical training course for armament system and maintenance at Lowry AFB, Colo. Airman Seibak is a graduate of San Rafael High School.

EXPONENT OF THE SOFT VOICE

Doctor 'Adopts' Greek Child

Dr. John H. Manwaring of Morrison Road, Ross, has financially adopted 10-year-old Agori Koutina in Greece through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., of New York City. He has pledged to contribute $15 a month toward the child's support for at least a year, utilizing a plan which has rehabilitated more than 76,000 children since 1937.

Little Agori lives in a small town in central Greece with her parents and brother who is her own age. Her father, formerly a vegetable peddler, is incurably ill with tuberculosis and her mother works as a field laborer and cleaning woman for about $20 a month.

Lions Club Talk

Elizabeth R. (Libby) Smith of Kentfield, treasurer of the United States, is scheduled to speak before the Kentfield Lions Club at a luncheon on June 15. The noon luncheon will be at the Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield. John Lethbridge wil preside.

Millions Of Dollars Loss Tied To Junior Colleges

HAYWARD (AP) — California's junior college system has been unable to account for millions of tax dollars spent annually, a state educator says.

An attempt to cross audit the cost of such spending was made, a speaker said, but resulted in a set of figures "so ridiculous and astonishing that the report was quickly buried away in state files and never published or released."

Three statements were made by Edgar B. Wicklander, assistant chief of the department of education's bureau of school apportionment and reports, at an educator's meeting Tuesday.

With Wicklander at the meeting were T. H. Battelle, field representative from the department's bureau of administrative services; James J. Gorman, finance accountant from the bureau of appropriations, and Dr. Henry T. Tyler, executive secretary of the California unior College Association.
